

2012 UPDATE CONFERENCE

FEBRUARY 17, 2012

RITZ-CARLTON HOTEL · WASHINGTON, DC

SAVE THE DATE

DEAR COLLEAGUES

Mark your calendars and save February 17, 2012 for the Forum on Air & Space Law Washington Update Conference! This one-day CLE program will feature prominent aerospace practitioners from the government and various sectors of the aviation and space industry. Our panels will discuss, debate and challenge you to raise your concerns on the most important issues facing our industry in the New Year!

Key Legislative Issues for the Aviation Community:

Will 2012 be any different?

Aviation Safety: New Rules—New Issues

Till Death or 2012 Do Us Part?: Should The Commercial Human Space Flight Regulation Moratorium Be Continued?

Aviation Labor Relations: Any New Strategies in 2012?

Important Recent Judicial Decisions In Aviation Law: Their Financial, Operational and Practical Impacts On Airlines, Airports, and Aviation Security

Our keynote luncheon speaker will be Susan Baer, Aviation Director, Port Authority of New York and New Jersey. Our special opening morning speaker will be identified in the near future! There will be lots of time for networking with other practitioners in the aviation legal community, including a special reception where young lawyers can meet experienced lawyers in a variety of aviation practice areas.

We look forward to seeing you during the Forum's first conference in 2012!

Don't miss it; register now!

Program Chair
Monica R. Hargrove

Forum Chair
Steven H. Taylor

Hotel Reservations: To make your hotel reservations, please contact the hotel directly for availability at (800-558-9994). Please refer to the ABA Forum on Air and Space Law Conference when calling.

Sponsorship Opportunities: Contact Jennifer Trock at jennifer.trock@pillsburylaw.com