Creating an Effective Criminal Compliance Program for the Detection and Prevention of Cartel Conduct

Wednesday, March 2, 2011
12:00-1:00 PM, Eastern

With jurisdictions around the world placing increased emphasis on the detection and prosecution of price-fixing cartels, the need for an effective compliance program is greater than ever. This program will address the basic elements of an effective compliance program, provide an update on compliance developments in the U.S., and examine recent guilty pleas, sentencing and trials in which antitrust compliance programs had an impact.

Moderator:

Eric Enson – Jones Day

Speakers:

Jennifer Dixton – U.S. Department of Justice, Antitrust Division,

John Finocharo – The Procter & Gamble Company; and

Daniel Swanson – Gibson, Dunn and Crutcher, LLP
