November In-house Counsel Antitrust Update

Thursday December 8, 2011
12 - 1 p.m. Eastern Time

Don't miss any of the developments occurring last month in antitrust law that may affect your company, your clients, or your litigation strategy. Antitrust practitioners from Jones Day will discuss recent cases, new FTC and DoJ enforcement actions, and international developments.

Please join the Corporate Counseling Committee for our next monthly Antitrust Update for In-house Counsel, a telephonic brown bag program on Thursday December 8, 2011, from noon to 1 pm EST. The program will include a Q&A at the end.

This program continues our popular and often imitated monthly series of brown bags designed to keep corporate counselors up to date on antitrust developments. Antitrust practitioners from a different antitrust law firm each month report on the most recent developments around the world at antitrust agencies and in the courts.

Jones Day is the firm providing this month's update. Speakers will include Paula Render, Thomas Demitrack, Fiona Schaeffer, David Wales and Alexandre Verheyden. The program will be moderated by Dorothy Raymond, Vice-Chair of the Corporate Counseling Committee.

If you have already registered for our committee's monthly update series – there is no need to register again – simply mark your calendars for the date/time noted above.
