Members of the Washington advertising law community are invited to attend this networking reception hosted by Venable LLP, and sponsored by the ABA Section of Antitrust Law. Join your colleagues for drinks and hors d'oeuvres as we gather to visit with old acquaintances and meet new members of Washington's active advertising law community. Those in attendance will include advertising law practitioners, regulators, in-house attorneys, and others with related interests. In addition, this event is an opportunity to learn how to get more involved in the ABA's advertising, privacy, and consumer protection committees. Past networking receptions in Washington, New York, and California have been well-attended with a good mix of attorneys from a broad array of backgrounds. Please direct RSVPs and questions to Isaiah Burns at Venable LLP (icburns@venable.com / 202.344.4984).

*The ABA is not seeking CLE credit for this program.
You will not receive CLE credit for attending/viewing/listening.*
