The Unilateral Conduct Committee is holding its Winter 2012 Town Hall teleconference at Noon (eastern) on Wednesday January 18, 2012.

As always, the call will involve a discussion of Issues Before the Committee, led by the Committee Co-Chairs, as well as a subsequent substantive discussion.

In this call, we will provide an update on the Reinvigoration of Unilateral Conduct Enforcement in Canada, led by Neil Campbell. Mr. Campbell is a partner in the Competition Law Group at McMillan LLP and a member of the International Task Force of the Section of Antitrust Law.

We will also provide an update on how courts and administrative agencies have been addressing Abuse of Dominance Claims in China, led by Kate Wallace. Ms. Wallace is an associate at Jones Day, and is the Young Lawyer Representative to the Unilateral Conduct Committee of the Section of Antitrust Law.

After the presentations, callers will have an opportunity to ask questions and offer their own views.
