State & Statute	Who gets an interpreter?	Mandatory or discretionary?	Who pays?	Procedure (also check Local Rules)	Other Information
Alabama AL Code §12-21-130 et seq.	Any deaf or hard of hearing person who is a complainant, defendant or witness in a civil case is entitled to an interpreter. §12-21-131(c).	Mandatory	The fee and expenses for a court-appointed interpreter are paid out of the State General Fund from "Court Costs Not Otherwise Provided." §12-21-131(j).	The person entitled to the interpreter (or his or her lawyer) should inform the court of the need for an interpreter in writing at least 30 days prior to the court proceeding. §12-21-131(f); §12-21-133. It is the court's responsibility to request a qualified interpreter. §12-21-131(f); §12-21-132.
Arizona A.R.S. § 12-241 et seq.	Any deaf person who is party to a civil action as a witness, complainant, defendant or attorney is entitled to an interpreter. A.R.S. § 12-242(a).	Mandatory	The court pays the fees, unless the deaf person declines to use the court-appointed interpreter and chooses his or her own interpreter, in which case the deaf person pays. A.R.S. § 12-242(g).	Not set forth in statute, but see 2 Ariz. Legal Forms § 43.1, Motion For Appointment Of Interpreter.
Arkansas A.C.A. § 16-10-127; § 16-64-111; § 16-64-112	Any deaf person who is a party to any civil proceeding or a witness therein shall be entitled to an interpreter. § 16-64-111(a); see also § 16-10-127(c).	Mandatory	When an interpreter is appointed by a court, the fee shall be paid out of general county funds. § 16-64-112(h).	The deaf person should notify the court of his or her need prior to any appearance and should request at that time the services of an interpreter. Where a deaf person expects to need the interpreter for longer than a day, he or she should notify the appointing authority and such notification shall be sufficient for the duration of his or her participation in the proceedings.

State & Statute	Who gets an interpreter?	Mandatory or discretionary?	Who pays?	Procedure (also check Local Rules)	Other Information
Delaware 10 Del.C. § 8907	A deaf person who is a party to, or a witness in, any legal proceeding shall have a right to a qualified interpreter of deaf sign-language. 10 Del.C. § 8907.	Mandatory	The fee for an interpreter shall be fixed by the court in its discretion. In civil actions, fees shall be paid out of funds provided by law or by one or more of the parties as the court may direct and may be taxed ultimately as costs, in the discretion of the court. 10 Del.C. § 8907.	The court shall appoint an interpreter to interpret the proceedings to, and the testimony of, a deaf person. 10 Del.C. § 8907.
District of Columbia DC ST § 2-1901 et seq.	Any deaf person who is a party or witness in a civil proceeding is entitled to an interpreter upon request. DC ST § 2-1901, -1902.	Mandatory	An appointed interpreter shall receive a reasonable fee for the interpreter's services, paid by the Office of Interpreter Services. Except in cases in which the hearing-impaired person is financially unable to obtain adequate interpreter services, the court may direct that all or part of the salaries, fees, expenses, and costs incurred for interpreter services be apportioned among the parties in a civil action or may be taxed as costs in a civil action. DC ST § 2-1912.	The person entitled to an interpreter must notify the court of the need for an interpreter at least 5 business days prior to the person's appearance. However, failure to notify the court of the need for an interpreter is not a waiver of the right to an interpreter. When the court knows that a hearing-impaired person will be before it, the court shall inform the party of the right to a qualified interpreter. DC ST § 2-1903.

State & Statute	Who gets an interpreter?	Mandatory or discretionary?	Who pays?	Procedure (also check Local Rules)	Other Information
Hawaii Policies for Interpreted Proceedings in the Courts of the State of Hawaii (HI Court Rules)	An interpreter is needed if a party is unable to hear, understand, speak and/or use English sufficiently to comprehend the proceedings and to assist counsel in the conduct of the case.	Mandatory	Not specified in policy.	If it appears that a party may not hear, understand, speak and/or use English well enough to participate fully in the proceedings, the court, with or without a motion, should conduct an examination on the record to determine whether a court interpreter is needed and the case file should be clearly marked to ensure that an interpreter will be present when needed in any subsequent proceeding.
Idaho I.C. § 9-205	Any party in a civil action who has a physical handicap which prevents him from fully hearing or speaking the English language is entitled to an interpreter to interpret the proceedings to and the testimony of that party.	Mandatory	The court shall determine a reasonable fee for interpreter services which shall be paid out of the district court fund. I.C. § 9-205. Interpreters are entitled to receive a fee for their services to be paid out of the county treasury by order of the court in civil actions. I.C. § 9-1603.	If any party needs an interpreter, the party shall notify the court at least 14 days in advance (or as soon as practicable). If a party fails to do so without good cause and the trial or hearing is postponed as a result, the court may impose costs and expenses against the party or the party's attorney. I.R.C.P. 43(b)(2).
