

August 2001

RESOLVED, that the American Bar Association opposes federal, state or territorial legislation to create special legal immunity for the firearms industry from civil tort liability.