2007 NOLAN FELLOWS, Add One

“The section is proud to honor these six young tax lawyers with Nolan Fellowships,” said Susan P. Serota, section chair. “Their talent, contributions and commitment to the section have been outstanding, and represent the future of our organization and the profession.”

Each one-year fellowship includes the waiver of meeting registration fees and assistance with travel to some section meetings.

The American Bar Association Section of Taxation is the national voice of tax lawyers with approximately 20,000 lawyers nationwide. Its goals include helping taxpayers better understand their rights and obligations under the tax laws and working to make the tax system fairer, simpler and easier to administer.

With more than 413,000 members, the American Bar Association is the largest voluntary professional membership organization in the world. As the national voice of the legal profession, the ABA works to improve the administration of justice, promotes programs that assist lawyers and judges in their work, accredits law schools, provides continuing legal education, and works to build public understanding around the world of the importance of the rule of law in a democratic society.
