ABA TAX SECTION RECOGNIZES OUTSTANDING YOUNG TAX LAWYERS, NAMES SIX 2010 NOLAN FELLOWS

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 25, 2010 -- The American Bar Association Section of Taxation announced the recipients of its 2010 Nolan Fellowships, awarded during a luncheon at the section's Midyear Meeting in San Antonio on Jan. 23.

Nolan Fellows are young tax lawyers who are actively involved in the section and have demonstrated leadership qualities.

The six 2010 Nolan Fellows are:

- Kelley Cooper-Miller, Reed Smith LLP, Washington, D.C.
- Katherine David, Oppenheimer, Blend, Harrison & Tate, Inc., San Antonio
- Eric Green, Convicer & Percy LLP, Glastonbury, CT
- Kevin Jacobs, Ropes & Gray LLP, Washington, D.C.
- Summer LePree, Holland & Knight LLP, Miami
- Carlene Miller, Snell & Wilmer LLP, Phoenix

“We were able to choose six outstanding young lawyers from an impressive group of nominees,” said Stuart M. Lewis, ABA Section of Taxation chair. “These individuals have demonstrated a commitment to our organization and its work, and represent the future leaders in tax law,” he said.

Each one-year fellowship includes the waiver of meeting registration fees and assistance with travel to some section meetings.

The American Bar Association Section of Taxation is the largest professional association of tax lawyers, with more than 23,000 members nationwide. Its goals include helping taxpayers better understand their rights and obligations under the tax laws and working to achieve a simplified tax system that is equitable and efficient.

With nearly 400,000 members, the American Bar Association is the largest voluntary professional membership organization in the world. As the national voice of the legal profession, the ABA works to improve the administration of justice, promotes programs that assist lawyers and judges in their work, accredits law schools, provides continuing legal education, and works to build public understanding around the world of the importance of the rule of law.
