

FAMILY ADVOCATE

Summer 2016 • Vol. 39, No. 1

My Parents Are Splitting Up
A Graphic Novel

What happens to my stuff? 19

What happens if the divorce doesn't fix things? 32

How do I get my parents to stop fighting?

The Surprise Party 4

What happens to our family traditions... 22

Where can I go for help? 34

Why did this have to happen? 10

What about my life—my friends, my sports, my activities... 26

What else can I do to make it better? 36

How long will the divorce take? 14

Who cares about me? Who will listen to me? 28

Reminders for Teenagers 38

When do I get to have my say—about where I want to live and how I want things to go? 16

What happens if I don't want to go? 29

- 40 Books & More
My Parents Are Splitting Up: A Graphic Novel Bibliography
- 42 Section of Family Law Calendar
- 44 Index to Advertisers

COLUMNS

i Ask the Expert
Talking with Kids About the Divorce
By Sol R. Rappaport

iv ART: Law & Practice
Intending Parenthood
By Bruce Hale

2 From the Editor
By Kathleen A. Hogan

42 Section Highlights
By Cindy Swan

"The Surprise Party"
by Hilary Glazer
Illustrations
by Steve Jones