

TeleSeminars Available to Listen and Learn

If you missed one or more of the Section's 2005 TeleSeminars, now is your chance to listen at your convenience. The following programs are available for purchase on CD or audiotape, complete with course materials. All programs are $150. To order, visit www.ababooks.org and search for the Product Code listed or call 800-285-2221.

Evidence in the Family Court Setting – Unique or Universal

Although many Family Court evidentiary issues are the same as encountered every day in a civil trial court, there are certain issues that appear to be “sui generis” to the Family Court. This program highlights those issues that are either universal or unique. Panelists Brenda Rioles, Esq, Richard Merola and Peter Sangiovanni, Jr. address some of the most common evidentiary problem areas including, the child witness, Present Recollection Refreshed and Past Recollection Recorded, photographs, medical statements, and the use of learned treatises and hearsay.

Product Code: CET05EFCA for the Audiotape or CET05EFCC for the CD

The Bankruptcy Reform Act of 2005: Its Effect on the Practice of Family Law and the Family Law Attorney

The Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 will create changes in consumer law reaching far beyond debtors, creditors and bankruptcy attorneys. Learn about the effect of bankruptcy on rights and obligations in family law and how practitioners can protect themselves against liabilities. Expert panelists Hon. Margaret Dee McGarity and Shayna M. Steinfeld discuss changes in the law with particular emphasis on the definition for domestic support orders, provisions for treatment of property division, exceptions to the automatic stay and how Chapter 13 rules have changed.

Product Code: T05TBRA for the Audiotape or T05TBRC for the CD.

How the Experts Develop Parenting Plans: Point and Counterpoint

Differing philosophies can result in very dissimilar parenting plans - yet both can meet children's needs. This point and counterpoint discussion will discuss various viewpoints to consider and how to find compromise to meet the needs of children and parents. In addition, Panel Members Marc J. Ackerman, PhD and Phillip Stahl, PhD discuss what factors they consider and how attorneys can best prepare clients to meet with a mental health professional.

Product Code: T05EPPA for the Audiotape or T05EPPC for the CD.

New Challenges for the Valuation and Division of Stock Options in Divorce

In addition to discussing current factors and case law in stock option valuation, panel members cover tax consequences, methods to use in valuing stocks, differences between alienable and restrictive stocks and where to go for help. Learn the latest on how factors such as discounts, transferability and taxes are considered in the valuation process in the divorce proceeding. Panel members Sanford Ain, Richard J. Billovits, Darryl Feldman and Greg Ortiz also discuss methods for addressing these factors in separation agreements.

Product Code: T05NCVA for the Audiotape or T05NCVC for the CD.

Discovery of Mental Health Records in Child Custody Cases

This program surveys the different approaches adopted by different states to address the conflict, discuss the public policy arguments involved, and provide techniques and arguments to use as an advocate for either parent or the child's best interests. Join the Honorable Debra H. Lehrmann and attorney Carlton D. Stansubry as they address the discovery of mental health records in custody cases. .

Product Code: T05DAMC for the CD.