

Member Spotlight
Robb Longman

---

This month, the Section recognizes Robb Longman for his outstanding work on behalf of the Section of Taxation. Robb has been an active member of the Tax Section since his admission to the bar in 2001. Robb was a recipient of the 2008 Nolan Fellows award, a recognition given to young lawyers who are active in the Section and have demonstrated leadership qualities. He is currently Vice-Chair of the Young Lawyers Forum and is very active with the annual Law Student Tax Challenge writing competition. Robb was one of the first to publish the PTL joint articles when the program first started, and since then has been a mentor for three other PTL articles. Robb has spoken on several occasions for the LITC on identity theft, and was recently recognized at a U.S. Tax Court dinner for low income practitioners for his help organizing a pro bono group that attends calendar calls in Baltimore to provide advice to pro se taxpayers
