Contents

Acknowledgments xiii
Preface xv

Chapter 1
Overview of the Changing World of Medical Malpractice 1
1:1 The World of Rapid Change 1
1:2 The Care Environment Is Changing 2
1:3 The Shift of Physicians from Private Practice to Hospital Employment Is Changing the Fundamental Experience of the Patient 3
1:4 Retailer Medical Service “Kiosks” Are Changing the Way Medicine Is Practiced 5
1:5 The Expansion of the Practice of Medicine to Nonphysicians Changes the Face of Medical Malpractice 6
1:6 The Affordable Care Act Is Transforming the Medical Malpractice Landscape 8
1:7 A Technological Revolution Is Changing the Way Medicine Is Practiced and Lawyers Prepare Cases 9
1:8 The Potential “Gold Rush” of Lucrative Medical Malpractice Cases 14

Chapter 2
The New Medical Malpractice Defendants 17
2:1 The New Opportunities for Plaintiff’s Counsel 17
2:2 The New Challenges for the Defense Counsel 18
2:3 The New Defendants, in Contrast to the Old Traditional Cases against a Solo Physician 19
2:4 The Plaintiff’s Legal Advantage in a Case against an Institutional Defendant 21
Chapter 3
The New Approach to the Selection and Initial Investigation of a Potential Medical Malpractice Case
3:1 The Ideal Plaintiff in the New Era
3:2 The Dangerous Defendant in the New Era
3:3 The Initial Phone Interview in the New Era
3:4 The Research Needed before the Client Meeting
3:5 The Ethical Obligations of Counsel
3:6 The Face-to-Face Client Meeting in the New Era
3:7 Gathering the Medical Records and Invoices
3:8 Organizing the Medical Records and Bills
3:9 Determine the Insurance Status and Contact the Carriers
3:10 Find Out if There Is Sufficient Insurance Coverage
3:11 Send Demand Letters

Chapter 4
The New Standards for Researching a Medical Malpractice Case
4:1 Determine If Medical Providers Are Covered by the Medical Malpractice Statute
4:2 Determine If the Alleged Injury Is a Medical Claim
4:3 Determine If the Medical Providers Are Immune from Liability
4:4 Determine If There Was a Breach in the Standard of Care by a Medical Provider
4:5 Proving the Standard of Care Today
4:6 Proving the “Proximate Cause” of the Injury Today
4:7 Incorporate Agency Theory When Filing against Institutions

Chapter 5
“Make or Break” Considerations for Litigating a Medical Malpractice Case Today
5:1 Determine If There Is a Need to File a Claim with a Federal Agency
5:2 Be Certain the Case Does Not Need to Be Fought in Two or More Legal Forums
5:3 In a Case with Federal and Nonfederal Defendants, There Are Three Strategic Choices 57
5:4 Determine If a Case May Need to Be Filed in a State Court of Claims 58
5:5 Choice of Legal Forum Must Be Carefully Considered 60
5:6 Draft the Complaint to Meet Modern Legal Requirements and an Old-Fashioned Negligence Requirement 61
5:7 Be Certain That Pre-Notice Filing Is Not Required in Advance of Filing a Lawsuit 62
5:8 Ensure That the Affidavit of Merit Meets the Local State Statutory Requirements 62
5:9 Be Prepared to Present the Full Case in States Requiring Screening and Arbitration Panels to Go Forward to Trial 63
5:10 Take Advantage of All the Benefits of Electronic Records in Discovery 64
5:11 Traditional Steps of Preparation for Trial Still Hold in a New Era 64
5:12 Essential Elements of a Trial Remain the Same Although Experts Should Speak to New Legal Theories 65
5:13 Conclusion: A New Approach to Preparing and Trying a Medical Malpractice Case 66

Chapter 6
Telemedicine Liability 67
6:1 Defining Telemedicine 68
6:2 Telemedicine and Malpractice 70
6:3 Expanding the Duty of Care to Third Parties in Telemedicine 71
6:4 Telemedicine and Diagnostic Errors 72
6:5 Technology and Economics of Telemedicine Use 73
6:6 State Regulatory Controls 74
6:7 Telemedicine and Prescribing Drugs 75
6:8 Case Precedents on Liability for Telemedicine Deficiencies 75
6:9 Liability Insurance for Medical Malpractice 76
6:10 Health Insurer Support for Telemedicine 76
6:11 Exclusions from Telemedicine Regulatory Licensure 77
6:12 Technical Failings during Telemedicine and Their Effects 77
6:13 Informed Consent to the Limited Telemedicine Examination 78

Chapter 7
Risks for Retailers: Medical Errors of In-Store and Urgent-Care Clinics 79
7:1 Medical Services in Nontraditional Places 79
CONTENTS

7:2 Malpractice Remedies for Patients of These Nontraditional Sites 80
7:3 The Affordable Care Act and the Clinics 82
7:4 Barriers to Plaintiff’s Recovery 83
7:5 Strategies for Plaintiff 86

Chapter 8
Health Centers’ Immunity from Malpractice 89
8:1 The Clinics 90
8:2 Statutory Terms to Be Met by the “Deemed Federal” Clinic 94
8:3 How Clinics Are Shielded from Malpractice Vulnerability 94
8:4 The Federal Application Process 96
8:5 When Does the Federal Shield against Malpractice Suits Begin to Apply? 99
8:6 Annual Renewals 99
8:7 How Clinics Are Informed 100
8:8 The Critical Policy Conundrum 100
8:9 Clinics’ Obligations for Completing Applications 102
8:10 Use of the HRSA Application in a Liability Case 102
8:11 The FTCA Application and the Negligent Health-Care Professional 103
8:12 Administrative Due Process 104
8:13 The Grantee and Sub-grantee Coverage 105
8:14 Cooperation by Clinics 105
8:15 Coverage Exceptions 106

Chapter 9
Litigation Procedure Steps for Claims against the “Deemed Federal” Clinic 107
9:1 Overview 107
9:2 The Weakness of the FTCA “Deemed Federal” Claims System 113
9:3 Preparation of the Plaintiff’s Claim 114
9:4 Presentation and Negotiation of the FTCA Claim 116
9:5 Actions on the Claim by the Federal HHS General Counsel 119
9:6 Claim Denial and Its Timing Effects 122
9:7 Taking the Claim in Other Directions 123
9:8 After Denial of the Claim 124
9:9 The Importance of Timing 124
9:10 FTCA Jurisdiction: Federal District Courts Only 125
9:11 What Happens after Filing 126
9:12 Pretrial Steps of Preparing the Case 127
9:13 Civil Discovery Requests 128
9:14 Physician Credentials and Misstatements 129
9:15 Depositions 130
9:16 The Nonjury Trial of the FTCA Case 131
9:17 Judgment by Magistrate or District Judge 134
9:18 Payment of the Judgment 134
9:19 Appeals of the FTCA Cases re: Clinics 135

Chapter 10
Health Clinic Quality of Service: Legal and Regulatory Issues 137
10:1 Background 137
10:2 Patient Perspectives 140
10:3 Who Oversees Quality of the Health Clinic Services? 141
10:4 Mechanisms for Complaints 145
10:5 Oversight and Claims 145
10:6 Duties of Clinics beyond Regulatory Norms of Quality 146
10:7 “Duty,” a Medical Malpractice Prerequisite, Is Imported from State Law 148
10:8 Proving Breach of Duty by the Clinic 149
10:9 Proving Causation by the Clinic 149
10:10 The “Loss of Chance” Misdiagnosis Cases against the Clinic 151
10:11 Awards of Damages in the FTCA Medical Claim 153

Chapter 11
Resolving Injury Claims without Litigation 155
11:1 Mediation and Arbitration 155
11:2 Effects of the FTCA Time Barrier on Case Closure 156
11:3 Claims for Long-Term Care of the Injured Person 156
11:4 Free Clinics 157
11:5 Disability and Medicaid Subrogation 158

Chapter 12
Accessing the Key Sources of Information 159
12:1 Clinic Legal Status 159
12:2 Clinic Experience 161
12:3 Individual Experience 162
12:4 Which Torts Should Be Claimed? 163
12:5 Patient Records 164
Chapter 13

Governmental Oversight of Medical Provider Errors

13:1 Background
13:2 Federal Oversight and Its Consequences
13:3 State Roles in Indigent Care Systems
13:4 State Medical Discipline
13:5 State Investigation of Risk Elements
13:6 Quality of Care and Medical Malpractice Issues: In and Out of the Indigent Care Systems
13:7 Tracking the Claims

Chapter 14

The Impacts of Product Liability for Drug and Device Marketers on Medical Patient Injury Compensation

14:1 Sharing of the Risks
14:2 Playing Off Multiple Defendants
14:3 Conflicting Documents
14:4 Presentation of Claims
14:5 Pretrial Investigation of a Product
14:6 Cross-Claims by Product Marketers
14:7 The Contrast between Medical Malpractice and Product Liability Torts
14:8 Impacts on the Manufacturers and Marketers
14:9 Medical Device Defendants
14:10 Diagnostic Product Defendants
14:11 Pharmaceutical Defendants

Chapter 15

Future Issues in Medical Malpractice

15:1 Effects of the Affordable Care Act
15:2 Roles of Electronic Health Records
15:3 Changes in Scope of Professional Practice
15:4 Actions against Health Insurers
15:5 Importance of Practice Guides
15:6 Actions against New Institutional Defendants

Appendix 1

State-by-State Guide to Limits on Lawyer Fees in Medical Malpractice Statutes
Appendix 2
State-by-State Guide to Pretrial Mediation, Arbitration, and Screening Panels in Medical Malpractice Statutes 233

Appendix 3
State-by-State Guide to Affidavits or Certificates of Merit in Medical Malpractice Statutes 295

Appendix 4
State-by-State Guide to Statute of Limitations in Medical Malpractice 343

Appendix 5
State-by-State Guide to Obtaining Medical Records 399

Appendix 6
State-by-State Guide to Damage Caps in Medical Malpractice Statute 435

Appendix 7
State-by-State Guide to State Statutory Restrictions on the Selection of Medical Malpractice Experts 509

Appendix 8
Telephone Interview Questionnaire 533

Appendix 9
State-by-State Guide to Mandatory Periodic Payments in Medical Malpractice Statutes 537

Appendix 10
State-by-State Guide to Statutes Limiting Doctor Apologies, Admissions, and Gestures in Medical Malpractice Cases 593

Appendix 11
State-by-State Guide to Liability Types in Medical Malpractice Statutes 609