Contents

Introduction xiii

1 Intellectual Property Attorney’s Checklist 1
   A. Commercial General Liability/Umbrella/Excess Insurance Policies 1
      1. Insurance Services Office (ISO) Commercial General Liability
         (CGL) Policy Forms “Advertising Injury” Coverage 1
      2. Non-ISO CGL “Advertising Injury” Coverage 2
         under Personal and Advertising Injury Coverage in ISO CGL/
         2007] 5
      4. Broad View of Coverage Opportunities Based on Business
         Interests in Accord with Principles of Enterprise Risk
         Management 6
      5. Insurance Coverage for Corporate Counsel 8
   B. Intellectual Property Insurance Policies 9
      1. Insurance Policy Providers 9
   C. Cyberspace/Multimedia Coverage 14
      1. Selecting the Coverage That Suits the Company 14
      2. Insurance Product Offerings: Analyzing Their Applicability to Exposure 18
      3. Policy Provisions 23
      4. Issues Posed by Claims-Made Insurance Coverage and the Requirement of Prompt Notice 31
      5. Coverage Case Analysis 33
   D. Directors and Officers Policies 36
      1. Representative Policy Forms 36
      2. Coverage Case Analysis 36
   E. Errors and Omissions (Professional Liability) Policies 37
      1. Representative Policy Forms 37
      2. Coverage Case Analysis 37
2 What Intellectual Property Owners Should Know about Insurance Coverage
   A. The Insurance Product Marketplace for Intellectual Property Insurance
      1. The Entrepreneurial Insurance Marketplace
      2. Surmounting Corporate Roadblocks to Integrated IP Insurance Risk Management
      3. The Insurance/IP Audit
      4. Setting Up Protocols to Assess Coverage for Claims Involving IP Assets
      5. Restoring Balance to the IP/Insurance Interface
   B. Questions IPOs Should Ask Regarding Insurance Coverage
   C. IPOs as Plaintiffs
      2. Industries Likely to Benefit from Pursuit Coverage
      3. Coverages Available for Pursuit of Patent Infringement Lawsuits
      4. What Insurance Coverage Will Your Litigation against Defendants Trigger That Might Benefit Them or Your Company?
   D. IPOs as Defendants/Counterdefendants
      1. Issues to Confront in Assessing the Potential for Insurance Coverage
      2. What Insurance Coverage Will Litigation against Your Company Trigger That Benefits Its Interests?
      3. Recommendations for IPOs Serving as Defendants/Counterdefendants
      4. When Can an Insurer Be Compelled to Pay the Full Amount of the Contemplated Settlement of an Underlying Action?
   E. Assessing an Insurance Portfolio as an IPO to Maximize Value
      1. New Insurance Policies Covering Cyberspace Torts
      2. Cyberspace Policies
      3. Net Secure Policies

3 Special Aspects of Coverage under Offense-Based “Personal/Advertising Injury”/Cyberspace/Multimedia Coverage
   A. Ten Rules of Policy Construction Applicable to Offense-Based Coverage
   B. Ten Key Rules for Policyholders in Coverage Disputes
   C. Ten Rules for Communications with Carriers
4 What Are the Facts for Purposes of Coverage Analysis? 59
A. Distinct Tests for Determining What Facts Are Pertinent 59
B. Facts Asserted in the Complaint 59
1. The Complaint Allegations Rule 59
2. Amended Complaint May Trigger a Defense 61
3. Limitations on Use of the Complaint-Allegations Rule in Analyzing Offense-Based Coverage 62
4. Case Law Applying the Complaint-Allegations Rule to Offense-Based Allegations 63
5. Survey of Case Law 64
C. Facts Known or Knowable to the Insurer/Facts Asserted in the Complaint 65
1. Facts Known or Knowable Places a Burden on Policyholders to Alert Insurers to Ongoing Facts 65
2. Survey of Case Law 66
D. Facts Available to the Insurer (Duty to Investigate) 67
1. Facts Can Be Developed to Enhance Coverage Prospects 67
2. Survey of Case Law 67
E. Shaping the Underlying Litigation to Clarify the Duty of Defense and Right to Independent Counsel 68
1. Defense Counsel Should Not Dismiss Covered Claims 68
2. Opposing Claimant’s Discovery into Insurer/Policyholder Communications 68

5 Proper Parties Covered under the Policy 69

6 Notice 71
A. Who Should Be Notified? 71
B. Late-Notice Rules 71
1. Survey of Key Jurisdictions’ Late Notice Rules 71
2. Delay in Notice under Ultimate Net Loss Coverage Paired with a Voluntary Payments Provision May Preclude Defense Fee Reimbursement 73
3. Insurance Brokers Who Advise Policyholders Not to Give the Insurer Notice May Be Liable for Affirmative Misrepresentation 74
4. Recovery of Pre-Tender Fees 74
5. Relation Back Doctrine 82
C. Notifying the Policyholder of a Reduction in Coverage
   1. General Admonition to Read the Policy Is Not Enough
   2. Survey of Case Law
D. Circumstances in Which Notice Can Be Established When an Insurer Was Not Directly Provided with a Copy of a Potentially Covered Lawsuit
   1. Voluntary Payment Provisions as a Bar to Coverage Following Late Notice
   2. Failure to Understand the Scope and Application of Offense-Based Personal Injury Coverage Is No Excuse for Late Notice
   3. Where Notice Is a Condition Precedent to Coverage, Extra Vigilance in Providing Prompt Notice Is Required
   4. Notice May Be Constructive and Actual in Many Jurisdictions
   5. Late Notice Is Especially Problematic in Procuring Coverage in Intellectual Property / Antitrust Litigation

7 Choice of Law
A. Once a Forum Is Selected, What Law Will Apply?
B. Survey of Forums’ Choice-of-Law Rules
   1. Lex Loci Contractus (Place Contract Made)
   2. Most Significant Relationship Test
   3. Two-Pronged Test
   4. Place of Performance
   5. Government Interest Analysis
   6. Place of the Last Act to Give Rise to a Valid Contract
   7. Most Intimate Contacts Test
   8. Greatest Interest in the Outcome Test
   9. Balancing the Competing Interests of the States
   10. Aggregation of Contacts: Five-Factor Test
   11. Center of Gravity Test
   12. Most Significant Contacts Test
   13. Governmental Interests
   14. Location of Risk
C. Preferred Venues for Choice of Forum
   2. States That Permit Recovery of Attorneys’ Fees to the Prevailing Policyholder in a Coverage Litigation
3. States That Award Prejudgment Interest in Excess of the Market Rate to a Prevailing Policyholder
4. States That Permit the Selection of Independent Counsel at the Insurer’s Expense When a Conflict of Interest Arises Due to the Presence of Covered and Uncovered Claims in a “Mixed Action”
5. States That Find Ambiguity in Policy Language Evident Where Courts Disagree

8 Errors & Omissions Exposure for Failure to Notify Insurer of Claims
A. Broker Exposure for Failure to Notify
B. Lawyer Malpractice for Failure to Provide Notice
   1. Rule 26(f) Requires Intellectual Property Defense Counsel to Advise the Court Whether There Is Potential Coverage
   2. Coverage Cases Increasingly Look to “Facts Known to the Insurer”
   3. A Survey of “Facts Known” Coverage Reveals Additional Duties Insurers May Impose on Defense Counsel
   4. The Failure to Assure Effective Access to Policy Benefits Triggers IP Counsel’s Malpractice Exposure
   5. The Duty to Protect Policy Benefits Includes Securing Insurer-Funded Settlements
C. Broadening Intellectual Property Counsel’s Retainer Agreement to Include Securing the Assistance of Coverage Counsel

9 Advertising Injury Provisions
A. Three-Part Test
B. Applying the Three-Part Test
   1. The Offense Element
   2. The Advertising Element
   3. The Causal Nexus Element
   4. Patent Infringement
   5. Trade Secret Misappropriation
   6. Trademark Infringement
C. Fourth Element: During the Policy Period
   1. Scope of Meaning
   2. Coverage
   3. No Coverage
D. Fifth Element: As Damages
1. Scope of Meaning 142
2. Coverage 143
3. No Coverage 144

10 IP Insurance Coverage Cases 147
A. Copyright 147
   1. Nature of Copyright Claims 147
   2. Coverage Cases (Offense) 147
   3. Coverage Cases (Causal Nexus) 148
B. Patent 166
   2. Coverage Cases (Offense) 166
   3. Coverage Cases (Causal Nexus) 204
   4. Patent Infringement Lawsuits Conjoined with Other Potentially Covered Claims 223
   5. Non-ISO Policy Language 227
C. Trademark 235
   1. Nature of Trademark Claims 235
   2. Coverage Cases (Offense) 235
   3. Non-ISO Policy Language 270
   4. Coverage Cases (Causal Nexus) 276
   5. Non-ISO Coverage Cases (Causal Nexus) 283
D. Trade Secret 292
   1. Trade Secret Claims That Potentially Implicate “Advertising Injury” Coverage 292
   3. Coverage Cases (Causal Nexus) 313
   4. Non-ISO Policy 316

11 Personal and Advertising Injury Exclusions 321
A. Breach of Contract (All ISO CGL) 321
   1. Policy Language 321
   2. Scope of Meaning 321
   3. Coverage 322
   4. No Coverage 326
B. Business of Advertising (All ISO CGL) 331
C. Failure to Conform to Advertising (All ISO CGL) 331
   1. Policy Language 331
   2. Scope of Meaning 332
3. Coverage 332
4. No Coverage 333

D. First Publication (All ISO CGL) 338
1. Policy Language 338
2. Scope of Meaning 338
3. Exclusion Limited to Offenses That Require an Oral or Written Publication of Material: Libel, Slander, Disparagement, Invasion of Privacy 340
4. Complaint Silent as to When Infringing Conduct Commenced 348
5. No Injurious Use of Infringing Publication before Policy Inception 350
6. Distinct Material Published After Policy Inception Even Though Related to That Published Before 352
7. Same Publication Both Before and After Policy Inception 355

1. ISO Exclusions 358
2. Trademark, Service Mark, Trade Name, Other Than Titles and Slogans 368
3. Non-ISO Exclusions 370
4. Field of Entertainment Limitation Endorsement 383

1. Policy Language 384
2. Scope of Meaning 384
3. Coverage 386
4. No Coverage 390

G. Knowledge of Falsity (All ISO CGL) 390
1. Policy Language 390
2. Scope of Meaning 390
3. Coverage 391
4. No Coverage 400

H. Knowledge of Personal and Advertising Injury 404
1. Policy Language 404
2. Scope of Meaning 404
3. Coverage 404
4. No Coverage 407

I. Liability Assumed under Contract (All ISO CGL) 408
1. Policy Language 408
2. Scope of Meaning 408
Contents

3. Coverage 408
4. No Coverage 410
J. Professional Services (All ISO CGL) 411
1. Policy Language 411
2. Scope of Meaning 411
3. Coverage 411
K. Public Policy (Dependent on State Law) 413
1. Statutory Language 413
2. Scope of Meaning 413
3. Coverage 414
L. Willful Violation of Penal Statute (All ISO CGL) 416
1. Policy Language 416
2. Scope of Meaning 416
3. Coverage 417
4. No Coverage 418
M. Business of Publishing (All ISO CGL) 419
1. Policy Language 419
2. The Advertising Exclusion Cannot Preclude a Defense for an Insured Whose Business Is Not Primarily an Advertiser 420
3. “Business of Advertising” Has Been Narrowly Construed by Courts 420
N. Unauthorized Use 423
1. Policy Language 423
2. Coverage 423
3. No Coverage 425
O. Intended and Expected Exclusion 425
1. Policy Language 425
2. No Coverage 425

12 Counterclaims 427
1. Policy Language 427
2. Scope of Meaning 427
3. Coverage for Defamation 428
   1. Policy Language 433
   2. Scope of Meaning 433
   3. Coverage for Disparagement 434
   4. No Coverage for Disparagement 442
C. Making Known Material That Violates a Person’s Right of Privacy 446
   1. Policy Language 446
   2. Scope of Meaning 447
   3. Coverage 447
   4. No Coverage 458
D. Malicious Prosecution 461
   1. Policy Language 461
   2. Scope of Meaning 461
   3. Coverage 462
   4. No Coverage 464
E. Unfair Competition 466
   1. Policy Language 466
   2. Scope of Meaning 467
   3. Coverage 468
   4. No Coverage 469
   5. Causal Nexus 471
F. Non-ISO Language 475
   1. Discrimination 475
   2. Idea Misappropriation under an Implied Contract 478

Table of Cases 483

Index 543