Contributors and Acknowledgments

John R. F. Baer—Author, Chapter 10, State Franchise Sales Laws

John Baer is an officer in the Chicago office of Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale, PC. Mr. Baer has a broad transactions practice with extensive experience representing companies engaged in franchising and distribution, including the use of sales representatives, both domestically and internationally. He counsels clients on the appropriate structuring and implementation of the selected expansion vehicle, which could include preparation of the appropriate documentation and making any necessary filings, and provides ongoing counseling for the established business. His practice covers a wide range of other related areas, including commercial, sales, warranties, product safety, and regulatory matters. He also counsels foreign clients doing business in the United States and U.S. clients that want to expand internationally.

Mr. Baer was the Chair of the International Franchising Committee of the International Bar Association’s International Sales, International Franchising and Product Law Section in 2011 and 2012. He is currently serving as a Co-Editor of the International Journal of Franchising Law.

Mr. Baer was Chair of the Illinois Attorney General’s Franchise Advisory Board from 1996 to 2012, a member of the Industry Advisory Committee to the North American Securities Administrators Association Franchise Project Group from 2007 to 2010, a member of the ABA Forum on Franchising’s Governing Committee from 2003 to 2006, and editor of the CCH Sales Representative Law Guide from 1997 to 2011. He was the first recipient of the Forum’s prestigious Lewis G. Rudnick Award in 2009.

Mr. Baer is a frequent speaker and writer on franchise topics for various organizations.

Judith Bailey—Member, Casebook Steering Committee; Editor, Chapter 12, Other Types of Business Relationships

Judith Bailey was a Partner in the Phoenix, Arizona, office of Gust Rosenfeld, PLC before she retired in 2006. She specialized in franchising, distribution, and intellectual property law throughout her professional career. In 1975, Ms. Bailey received her J.D. degree magna cum laude from the Arizona State University Sandra Day O’Connor
College of Law, where she subsequently became an adjunct professor and taught a franchising course.

Ms. Bailey is the author of numerous articles and book chapters on the subject of franchise law. She formed the Arizona Licensee/ Franchisor Association, the first state franchisor trade association; she served on the Governor's Regulatory Review Council of Arizona and on the Franchise Advisory Committee to the Securities Division of the Arizona Corporation Commission.

Ms. Bailey is a past member of the Governing Committee of the Forum, where she co-founded the Forum's Women's Caucus. She was a regular panelist at the Forum's annual programs and chaired its 1982 annual program. In 2012, the Forum honored her with the Lewis G. Rudnick Award in recognition of her lifetime contributions to the Forum and franchise law.

Rupert M. Barkoff—Author, Introduction: Franchise Law as an Academic Discipline

Rupert Barkoff has been practicing franchise, distribution, and corporate law since 1973. His franchise practice emphasizes solutions to registration and structuring issues and developing individual and collective solutions to franchisor-franchisee relationship problems.

During the course of his career, Mr. Barkoff has represented numerous start-up, national, and regional franchisors in the establishment and operation of their franchise systems. He has negotiated encroachment policies, counseled clients on the establishment and operation of purchasing cooperatives, and acted as mediator and arbitrator in the negotiation of franchisor-franchisee disputes.

Mr. Barkoff was recognized as one of the country's leading franchise attorneys by The Best Lawyers in America® in 2013 and the 12 years immediately preceding. In 2010, he received the prestigious Lewis G. Rudnick Lifetime Achievement Award from the American Bar Association's Forum on Franchising. He was one of only seven attorneys nationwide to receive the top ranking for franchise law in the 2009 and 2010 editions of Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business for Franchising. Mr. Barkoff was recognized as one of only 20 attorneys for franchising globally by Chambers Global 2013. He was named a Georgia “Super Lawyer” in the area of Franchise/Dealership in 2008, 2009, 2010, 2012, and 2013 by SuperLawyers magazine. Mr. Barkoff was named a “Most Highly Regarded Individual for Franchise” by The International Who's Who of Business Lawyers for 2006, ranking #9 globally. This peer-nominated distinction is based upon a comprehensive and independent survey of both general counsel and private practice attorneys worldwide. Mr. Barkoff has been named a “Legal Eagle” for nine consecutive years by Franchise Times. He is AV® rated by Martindale-Hubbell.

Mr. Barkoff has published over 200 articles on franchise law and is the Co-Editor-in-Chief of Fundamentals of Franchising, which is used to teach novices about the intricacies of franchise law. He has testified before Congress on franchise law issues and is a columnist for the New York Law Journal. Mr. Barkoff has spoken at major franchise law seminars for more than 30 years, as well as at numerous colleges and law schools. He served as Chair of the American Bar Association Forum on Franchising for three years and was a member of its governing committee for nine years.

Joel R. Buckberg—Co-Editor, Chapter 6, Typical Business Terms and Chapter 7, Multi-tier and Combination Franchising

Joel Buckberg is Of Counsel in Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz, PC’s Nashville Office, where he is the co-chair of the firm’s hospitality industry service team and chair of the firm’s franchise and distribution practice group. Mr. Buckberg counsels clients on corporate and asset transactions and operations, particularly in hospitality, franchising, and distribution, including strategic planning and transactions, financing, mergers and acquisitions, system policy and practice development, regulatory compliance, and contract system drafting. Prior to joining Baker Donelson, Mr. Buckberg was Executive Vice President and Deputy General Counsel of Cendant Corporation. He is the co-author of the 2009 American Bar Association Forum on Franchising Annual Update on Franchise and Distribution Law, editor of the firm’s Hospitalitas newsletter, and a frequent speaker at franchise law seminars sponsored by the American Bar Association Forum on Franchising and the International Franchise Association. He participated in the development of the IFA’s Fran-Guard Compliance Training Program. He has been named as a Legal Eagle by Franchise Times magazine for seven years and one of the Best Lawyers in America for five years and is listed for franchise law in The International Who’s Who Legal.

Deborah Coldwell—Forum Publication Officer; Member, Casebook Steering Committee

Deborah Coldwell is a business litigator who focuses on franchise, distribution, and contract disputes and business tort litigation. In her more than 23 years as a trial lawyer, she has successfully tried jury trials, bench trials, and arbitrations and has sought and received preliminary and permanent injunctive relief for franchisors, distributors, and the individuals who run those companies.

Ms. Coldwell is the Chair Elect of the Forum on Franchising and began her two-year term in August 2013. She is also a frequent speaker and writer on franchising and distribution. She served as the Editor-in-Chief of the American Bar Association Forum on Franchising Franchise Law Journal. She currently serves on the Forum Governing Committee and is the Publication Officer, overseeing the preparation, production, and publication of all handbooks, manuals, desk books, and monographs for the Forum.

Prior to attending law school, Ms. Coldwell worked in restaurant operations and in education. With that unique background, she brings a practical approach to problem solving and assists clients in finding an individual workable strategy in each case she handles.

Kenneth R. Costello—Author, Chapter 12, Other Types of Business Relationships

Kenneth Costello is a Partner at Bryan Cave, LLP. He specializes in U.S. and international franchising law and product and service distribution. His expertise also includes intellectual property law including internet, e-commerce, domestic and international trademark, service mark, copyright, know how, and technology transfers and licensing. Mr. Costello represents clients in general business transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, advice and counsel with respect to unique intellectual property issues involved in acquisitions of franchising companies, lending, employment agreements, and formation and capitalization of business organizations.

Among other honors, Mr. Costello has been recognized by The International Who’s Who of Business Lawyers since 2002, including five years as a “Most Highly Regarded Individual for Franchise”; has been given worldwide recognition in Chambers Global since 2007 and as one of the country’s leading franchise attorneys by The Best Lawyers in America since 2007. He has been named a Legal Eagle since 2004 by Franchise Times.

Mr. Costello thanks Anthony Marks and Andrew Chereck, attorneys with Bryan Cave, LLP, for their assistance and contributions to Chapter 12.

Daniel A. Crane—Author Chapter 5, Antitrust Principles Affecting Franchise Law

Daniel Crane is the Frederick Paul Furth, Sr. Professor of Law at the University of Michigan Law School. He teaches contracts, antitrust, antitrust and intellectual property, and various advanced antitrust courses. He was previously Professor of Law at Yeshiva University’s Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, and a Visiting Professor at New York University Law School and the University of Chicago Law School. In the spring of 2009, he taught antitrust law on a Fulbright Scholarship at the Universidade Católica Portuguesa in Lisbon. His recent scholarship has focused primarily on antitrust and economic regulation, particularly the institutional structure of antitrust enforcement, predatory pricing, bundling, and the antitrust implications of various patent practices. Professor Crane’s work has appeared in the University of Chicago Law Review, the California Law Review, the Michigan Law Review, and the Cornell Law Review, among other journals. He is the author of several books on antitrust law, including The Institutional Structure of Antitrust Enforcement (Oxford University Press, 2011).
John Cross—Editor, Chapter 2, Trademark Law, and Chapter 4, Trade Secrets

John Cross is Grosscurth Professor of Law at Louis D. Brandeis School of Law, the University of Louisville. He joined the Louisville faculty in 1987 after several years in private practice in Minneapolis. His main research interests involve intellectual property law (both domestic and international) and the law governing court systems (civil procedure, conflicts, federal jurisdiction, and comparative systems). Mr. Cross currently oversees the intellectual property curriculum at Louisville and teaches many of the courses in that curriculum, including the Intellectual Property Survey, Trademark Law, Intellectual Property and Competition, Authors’ and Performers’ Rights, International Intellectual Property Law, Law and Computers, and Design Protection Law. He also continues to teach courses in court law, especially the first-year Civil Procedure course and the capstone course in Federal Jurisdiction.

Because of the broad scope of Mr. Cross’s research, his work has been recognized both in the United States and abroad. Most significantly, in 2006 he was awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws H.C. from the University of Turku in Finland, in recognition of his significant contributions to legal scholarship. He has also received two Fulbright awards, one in Finland (1995) and the other in Ireland (2000).

Mary Kellerman DesCombaz—Co-Author, Chapter 11, Relationship and Termination Laws

Mary Kellerman DesCombaz is a 2008 cum laude graduate of the Hamline University School of Law, and a former associate of the firm of Dady & Gardner, P.A. Ms. Kellerman DesCombaz graduated from the University of Kansas with a B.A. in History in May 2003.

Ronald K. Gardner, Jr.—Co-Author, Chapter 11, Relationship and Termination Laws

Ronald Gardner, the Managing Partner of Dady & Gardner, PA, limits his practice to the representation of franchisees, dealers, and distributors when they are in disputes with their franchisors, manufacturers, and suppliers. He is Past Chair of the ABA Forum on Franchising, the country’s leading group of franchise attorneys (and the first “franchisee lawyer” to ever be elected to this position). Mr. Gardner, along with the rest of his colleagues at Dady & Gardner, P.A., prides himself on the fact that the firm has a national reputation for effectively and efficiently helping their franchisee, dealer, and distributor clients to resolve their disputes through litigation, negotiation, mediation, and arbitration. More specifically, Mr. Gardner has helped clients in dozens of industries, including fast food, automobile, trucking, construction equipment, and agricultural implements.

Mr. Gardner is a member of the American, Minnesota, Hennepin County, and Rice County Bar Associations. In addition to the chairmanship of the Forum on Franchising, he has served as Division Director of the Forum’s Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution Division and Co-Chair of the Orlando Forum. He is also an active participant in the American Association of Franchisees and Dealers.

Mr. Gardner is a frequent speaker at various gatherings on franchise and distribution-related topics, such as the Annual Forum on Franchising, the National Convention of the American Association of Franchisees and Dealers, and the International Franchise Association. He also speaks regularly to various franchise and industry groups about their rights.

Mr. Gardner has represented businesses of all sizes, including multi-unit franchisees, as well as single-owner operations. Mr. Gardner also does extensive representation of franchisee associations. He has handled disputes ranging from unlawful terminations to encroachment to cases regarding franchisor’s failure to comply with registration and disclosure requirements of the FTC and state governments. He has represented or counseled clients in virtually all 50 states.

Susan Grueneberg—Author, Chapter 8, The FTC Rule

Susan Grueneberg is a Partner at Snell & Wilmer LLP in Los Angeles, California, and is a certified specialist in franchise and distribution law. She focuses on advising clients on franchise and distribution law, including regulatory compliance. Her practice emphasizes both domestic and international franchises and licensing, as well as area development arrangements and subfranchises. She has advised on mergers and acquisitions of franchise companies, franchisor-franchisee relationship issues, brand launches and transitions, and exemption-based franchising.

Ms. Grueneberg works with state and federal franchise regulators as Chair of the Industry Advisory Committee to the North American Securities Administrators Association Franchise Project Group. She is also a Past Chair of the American Bar Association Forum on Franchising and Chair of the California State Bar Franchise and Distribution Law Commission, the commission that oversees the certification of legal specialists in franchise and distribution law in California. She is Co-Editor of the ABA publication The FTC Franchise Rule.

A graduate of UCLA Law School, Ms. Grueneberg speaks Chinese (Mandarin) and has lived both in Hong Kong as a U.S. State Department Fellow and in Beijing as a National Academy of Sciences Fellow in economics at the University of Beijing.

David C. Gurnick—Author, Chapter 6, Typical Contract Terms

David Gurnick is a franchise attorney, business lawyer, and litigator with Lewitt, Hackman, Shapiro, Marshall & Harlan. He is a State Bar of California Specialist in Franchise and Distribution Law, as certified by the State Bar’s Board of Legal Specialization. Mr. Gurnick’s practice also focuses on licensing, trademarks and copyrights, trade secrets, e-commerce, antitrust and competition matters, and related litigation.
Mr. Gurnick represents clients in all aspects of franchise and distribution law and has testified as an expert in the field. Representing clients in wide-ranging industries, Mr. Gurnick provides counsel and transactional and litigation services to local, national, and international companies.

Mr. Gurnick assists numerous franchisors in registering to offer and sell franchises, structuring to avoid and work around franchising and other legal issues, and negotiating solutions to wide-ranging business challenges. He has won millions of dollars of court judgments in litigation and settlements for clients: franchisors, franchisees, manufacturers, distributors, resellers, and policyholders in claims against insurance companies. He represents clients in federal and state courts.

As a franchise attorney, Mr. Gurnick has served as an adjunct professor of law, teaching semester courses, as well as a panelist at the American Bar Association Forum on Franchising, International Franchise Association annual Legal Symposium, and California Continuing Education of the Bar. He also served on the editorial board of the American Bar Association Franchise Law Journal and on the Franchise Law Committee of the State Bar of California. He served twice as President of the San Fernando Valley Bar Association and as a trustee of the Los Angeles County Bar Association.

Ann Hurwitz—Editor, Chapter 11, Relationship and Termination Laws

Ann Hurwitz chairs the Franchise and Distribution Law practice at Baker Botts and is based in the firm’s Dallas office. She has more than 30 years of experience advising U.S. franchisors on the structuring and operation of their domestic and international franchise programs. She also represents non-U.S. based franchisors expanding into the U.S. market. She has devoted particular attention to the complex issues arising from the ownership of multiple brands, co-branded opportunities, system restructuring, and brand acquisition. She also advises clients on the structuring of non-franchised distribution systems.

Ms. Hurwitz represents clients of all sizes, from start-ups to mature companies with multi-national operations. Representative clients include leaders in the hotel and hospitality, restaurant, and retail industries.

Among other honors, Ms. Hurwitz has been recognized repeatedly by the International Who’s Who of Franchise Lawyers as one of the “10 most highly regarded individuals internationally.” She has been listed in Chambers USA every year since 2007 and in The Best Lawyers in America every year since 1995. She has also been recognized repeatedly for her work in franchise law by Dallas’ D Magazine. A two time winner of the International Law Office Client Choice Award for Franchising, Ms. Hurwitz has been praised as “very practical, able to understand business issues and extremely commercially aware.”
William L. Killion—Author, Chapter 1, The History of Franchising

Bill Killion is a Partner at Faegre Baker Daniels LLP in the firm’s business litigation group and a part of the firm’s franchise and distribution team.

Mark A. Kirsch—Co-Author, Chapter 14, Mergers and Acquisitions of Franchise Systems

Mark Kirsch is a Principal at Gray, Plant, Mooty, Mooty & Bennett, PA, in Washington, D.C. He focuses his practice on domestic and international franchising and distribution matters, and his work involves mergers and acquisitions, franchise-transactional and regulatory matters, and international franchise and commercial transactions, as well as counseling on dispute resolution and mediation of franchise-related disputes. Mr. Kirsch enjoys working with a wide variety of clients, which range from large national and international chains to emerging systems, across a wide range of industries. This has given him extensive experience including developing and structuring franchise and distribution systems; drafting and negotiating franchise, licensing, and distribution agreements, asset purchase agreements, and related commercial contracts; and counseling clients on compliance with state and federal regulatory issues.

Mr. Kirsch has been involved in numerous corporate, commercial, and merger transactions, including many private equity-backed deals related to the acquisition, sale, and/or combination of franchise systems.

Mr. Kirsch is a frequent author and speaker at industry seminars about a variety of issues including branding, licensing, franchising, and distribution issues. He is active in the franchise industry, currently serving as Vice Chair of the International Franchise Association’s Supplier Forum, and is a member of the IFA’s Board of Directors. Mr. Kirsch’s awards and honors include recognition in the International Who’s Who of Business Lawyers and Best Lawyers in America.

Mr. Kirsch and his co-author, Lee Plave, would like to thank Ben Reed for his invaluable work in preparing the teacher’s manual for Chapter 14.

Gaylen L. Knack—Author, Chapter 7, Multi-Tier and Combination Franchising

Gaylen Knack is a Principal at Gray Plant Mooty in Minneapolis and assists franchisors in structuring domestic and international franchise and distribution programs, and advises clients on related business and regulatory issues. He also advises clients on international trade regulation, trademark, internet, and corporate law matters.

Mr. Knack’s combined 25 plus years of experience in private practice and as a franchise executive provide him with a unique understanding of the complex business and legal issues that companies face in establishing and operating franchise and other distribution systems. As vice president and general counsel at a Midwest-based, multi-concept retail franchise, Mr. Knack developed sales training and compliance, preferred vendor, internet, franchise renewal, operational standards, and due diligence programs that are integral to the success of expanding franchise programs.

He has authored numerous articles on such varied franchise and distribution-related topics as the use of franchisee referral networks, development through multi-unit and area development strategies, international expansion and disclosure issues, cross-border supply chain transactions, due diligence audits, and franchise advertising funds. Mr. Knack is a frequent lecturer, both nationally and internationally.

Mr. Knack’s awards and honors include recognition as a “Leader in Their Field” for international franchising in Chambers Global as well as recognition by Best Lawyers in America International Who’s Who of Franchise Lawyers, Chambers USA and Franchise Times.

Bret Lowell—Author, Chapter 9, Disclosure

Bret Lowell is a Partner at DLA Piper. He is an internationally recognized leader in franchise and distribution law and has counseled and represented clients across a broad spectrum of industries, including restaurants and food service, car rental, hotel and motel, health care, financial services, high tech, real estate, and retail.

Mr. Lowell’s experience includes extensive analysis as to whether arrangements constitute “franchises”; drafting and negotiating domestic and international franchise, distribution, and license agreements; preparation and filing of disclosure documents; counsel and advice regarding the establishment and operation of franchise and distribution systems; counsel and advice regarding termination, transfer, and renewal obligations; dispute resolution, including representation before federal and state government agencies; mediation; due diligence reviews and document preparation in connection with public offerings, mergers, and acquisitions; and trademark and other intellectual property matters.

Mr. Lowell writes and speaks extensively on franchise-related topics in a variety of forums.

Mr. Lowell would like to thank Jennifer Kappel and Shonda Folsom, attorneys at DLA Piper LLP (U.S.), for their assistance in the preparation of Chapter 9.

Alexander M. Meiklejohn—Lead Editor; Co-Editor, Chapter 6, Typical Contract Terms and Chapter 7 Multi-Tier and Combination Franchising; Author, Chapter 13, Common Law Doctrines; Member, Casebook Steering Committee

Alexander Meiklejohn is a Professor of Law at Quinnipiac University School of Law. A graduate of Amherst College and the University of Chicago Law School, he teaches Contracts, Commercial Law, Secured Transactions, Real Estate Transactions, and Franchise Law. His publications and research interests are in commercial law and franchising.

Professor Meiklejohn is a member of the American Bar Association Forum on Franchising and of the Executive Committee of the Connecticut Bar Association.
Section on Franchise Law. He serves as Legislative Liaison for that section. He is also a member of the Publications Committee of the ABA Forum on Franchising. Before joining the law school faculty in 1981, he practiced law with the firm of Niles & Gibbs in Woodstock, Vermont.

Professor Meiklejohn thanks Deans Brad Saxton and Jennifer Brown for supporting his work on this project; Robert C. Power, Margaret V. Sachs, and colleagues at Quinnipiac for helpful comments on drafts of Chapter 13; Allan Hillman for helpful comments on Chapter 5; the Quinnipiac law library and IT staffs; and Peter Carpentier, Christopher Katsmagles, Mitchell Teta, and Elissa Weinbach for research and editorial assistance.

Ted P. Pearce—Editor, Chapter 13, Common Law Doctrines

Ted Pearce is Special Counsel at Nexsen Pruet, LLC. He is an accomplished corporate attorney and executive who has more than three decades of experience in managing the legal affairs of multiple franchise systems.

Mr. Pearce began his career in franchise law as General Counsel for Meineke Discount Muffler Shops, when it was a small developing franchise system. Throughout his time with the company, he handled a wide range of matters related to the various stages of franchise development and ownership.

He worked with founders and successive management teams to help the company meet the legal challenges of initial development, exponential growth, and maturation of the franchise system, including its transformation from a single product offering to a multi-product and co-branded franchise system. He later counseled successive owners, including multiple private equity groups, on the development of a multi-platform franchise holding company, Driven Brands, which now owns five separate brands, including Meineke and MAACO Collision and Auto Painting, in the automotive aftermarket.

Thanks to his broad background, Mr. Pearce is well versed in litigation and arbitration involving enforcement of non-competition and intellectual property rights for franchisors. He has appeared in both state and federal courts and managed the defense of a franchisee class action suit against its franchisor.

His experience also includes advising business leaders on franchise relationship issues, including encroachment and effectuating changes to the franchise system. He has managed the legal aspects of the franchise sale process, worked with independent franchisee associations on behalf of franchise systems, and participated in multiple corporate transactions involving the purchase and sale of franchise systems to and from both strategic buyers and private equity groups.

Lee J. Plave—Co-Author, Chapter 14, Mergers and Acquisitions of Franchise Systems

Lee Plave is a Partner at Plave Koch PLC. He has extensive experience counseling distributors and franchisors, including drafting and negotiating franchise agreements for complex international and domestic transactions and advising clients on all aspects of franchise and distribution law.

Mr. Plave also counsels clients on the application of technology to franchise and distribution systems. He focuses his attention on matters such as social networking and social media issues, e-commerce, data use and security policies, cybersquatting and domain name disputes, and consumer complaint and cybersmear sites, as well as software and hardware licensing. In addition, he represents clients in matters before the Federal Trade Commission.

In 2008, the International Franchise Association Educational Foundation recognized Mr. Plave as a Certified Franchise Executive. In 2012, he was appointed to serve as the Director of the International Division of the American Bar Association’s Forum on Franchising for 2012–2014.

Mr. Plave and his co-author, Mark Kirsch, would like to thank Ben Reed for his invaluable work in preparing the teacher’s manual for Chapter 14.

Benjamin B. Reed—Author, Teacher’s Manual for Chapter 14, Mergers and Acquisitions of Franchise Systems

Ben Reed is a Partner at Plave Koch PLC. His practice focuses on litigating cases involving franchise relationships and brand protection, including claims under federal and state franchise laws and regulations, trademark and unfair competition laws, antitrust and deceptive trade practice laws, and state contract and tort laws. He has represented franchisors in a wide range of commercial disputes before state and federal courts and in arbitration involving issues such as encroachment, post-termination covenants, fraud, transfer and renewal rights, compliance with state franchise acts, and breach of contractual obligations. He also counsels franchisors on intellectual property issues involved in developing and growing their franchise programs, such as securing and protecting their trade and service marks.

Michael E. Santa Maria—Editor, Chapter 15, National Law Issues in Canada and Mexico

Michael Santa Maria has a broad-based corporate transactional practice with an emphasis in international cross-border transactions. He routinely handles complex cross-border business transactions and corporate matters ranging from mergers and acquisitions, direct investment, joint ventures, and international franchise distribution matters. Mr. Santa Maria is recognized in Chambers for his expertise in cross-border franchising, was listed for five consecutive years in Who’s Who Legal: The International Who’s Who of Business Lawyers, and was recently named by Franchise Times as one of the top 101 franchise lawyers in the United States and Canada. He was also selected both in 2003 and 2004 as a Texas Super Lawyer for inclusion in the annual Texas Super Lawyers Magazine.

Mr. Santa Maria assists clients in realizing their corporate transactional goals. In cross-border matters, he establishes international development strategies, assisting in structuring, negotiating, and implementing all types of business matters. His practice extends to complex joint venture agreements, international real estate matters, licensing and franchising contracts, hotel management agreements, labor and employment agreements, and contract manufacturing agreements, among others. Mr. Santa Maria has helped clients in a host of different types of direct investment transactions, particularly in Latin America. Before entering private practice, he obtained an MBA and worked as a financial analyst in leveraged buyouts in the transportation industry and as a Registered Investment Advisor.

Roger Schmidt—Editor, Chapter 1, The History of Franchising; Member, Casebook Steering Committee

Mr. Schmidt is the Managing Partner of Schmidt, Ayers & Associates, a Waco, Texas, law firm specializing in a franchise practice. Mr. Schmidt recently retired as Senior Vice President and Chief General Counsel for Curves International, Inc., the largest fitness and wellness franchisor in the world. Mr. Schmidt has represented franchisor clients in a wide spectrum of industries including food and beverage; automotive service; real estate brokerage; personal care services; the health, fitness and wellness industry; the motorcycle industry; and educational services. Mr. Schmidt received his Doctorate of Jurisprudence from South Texas College of Law in 1975 and is currently an Adjunct Professor of Law at Baylor University Law School, where he teaches a comprehensive course in Franchise Law. Mr. Schmidt’s franchise class includes the history of franchising, disclosure, relationship laws, antitrust, mergers, franchise structure, trademarks/intellectual property, state franchise laws, FTC rules and laws, dispute resolution, and franchise agreement and FDD drafting. At Baylor, Mr. Schmidt developed an extensive curriculum and implemented the same as there were no textbooks on franchising. Mr. Schmidt is a Certified Franchise Executive, has written several articles on franchising, and is a frequent speaker at International Franchise Association events, franchise symposiums and the American Bar Association’s Forum on Franchising.

In 2012, the International Franchise Association Educational Foundation recognized Mr. Schmidt as a Certified Franchise Executive.

Andrew Scott—Member, Casebook Steering Committee

Mr. Scott was formerly the Chair of the Forum Publications Committee. He is currently retired.

Lars S. Smith—Author, Chapter 2, Trademark Law and Chapter 4, Trade Secrets in Franchising

Professor Lars S. Smith holds the Samuel J. Stallings Chair in Law at the University of Louisville’s Louis D. Brandeis School of Law. He teaches in the areas of intellectual property, business, and commercial law. His courses include Intellectual Property Survey, Trademark Law, Business Planning, Law and Economics, Property, and Secured Transactions. Professor Smith is particularly interested in helping students build practice skills and so incorporates various practice-based exercises in his Trademark Law and Business Planning courses.

In 2012 Professor Smith received the University of Louisville Distinguished Faculty Award in Teaching. In 2011, Professor Smith received a Fulbright Scholarship Award to teach at Zhongnan University of Economics and Law in Wuhan, China, where he taught Chinese Masters of Law students about U.S. intellectual property law. Professor Smith is the faculty advisor to the law school’s Entrepreneurship Clinic and was the initial Interim Director of the law school’s first law clinic.

Professor Smith’s scholarship focuses on issues related to intellectual property, commercial law, and technology. His other work has focused on the challenge of applying existing intellectual property legal structures to new technologies. He is currently working on issues of intellectual property, cloud computing, and unfair competition.

Prior to joining the Faculty at University of Louisville, Professor Smith worked as a corporate and intellectual property lawyer in Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

L. Seth Stadfeld—Member, Casebook Steering Committee; Editor, Chapter 8, The FTC Rule, Chapter 9, Disclosures, and Chapter 10, State Franchise Sales Laws

Mr. Stadfeld was formerly a member of Weston, Patrick, PA of Boston, Massachusetts. He is a graduate of Brown University and Boston University School of Law. His practice has been concentrated in franchise and distribution law matters for more than 30 years. He has counseled and represented dealers, franchisees, associations, franchisors, and suppliers, both in litigation and transactions including franchise offerings and registrations.

Mr. Stadfeld has authored many articles and has served as a frequent speaker on franchise-related subjects for the American Bar Association, Boston Bar Association, Massachusetts Bar Association, Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education, Inc., International Franchise Association, American Association of Franchisees & Dealers, and Massachusetts Academy of Trial Attorneys. Mr. Stadfeld is listed in the International Who’s Who of Franchising Lawyers. He is an arbitrator in franchise cases for the American Arbitration Association. He served as a member of the Governing Committee of the American Bar Association’s Forum Committee on Franchising, a nine-member panel of franchise law specialists that helps formulate and implement policy for this group of lawyers numbering in excess of 2000. He has taught a course in franchise law at New England School of Law in Boston.

Mr. Stadfeld has represented franchise clients (franchisors, suppliers, franchisees, dealers, and prospects) in a wide range of industries including automotive, petroleum, fast food, hotels, pet care, convenience store, retailing (including tires and auto parts, computer products and specialty), brokerage (real estate and business), personnel, personal care services, dry cleaning, mail and related services, donuts, coffee, bagels, jewelry, day-care and children’s services, telecommunications-fax, office equipment, and ballroom dancing, among others.

James Trigg—Author, Chapter 3, Copyright Law
James Trigg is a Partner at Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP. He practices in the areas of trademark, copyright, and entertainment law. His intellectual property experience includes litigation, licensing, trademark prosecution, and general trademark and copyright counseling. His practice has developed a particular focus on copyright and trademark issues arising in the context of the internet, including matters implicating the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, domain name disputes, and social media. Mr. Trigg has represented major companies, as well as recording artists, in music copyright litigation, and he also has advised an array of entertainers and creators on domestic and international trademark and branding issues. A former professional musician, Mr. Trigg regularly draws on this background when litigating music copyright cases and in negotiating licenses both for artists and for parties desiring to use musical works in advertising and in other contexts. He has served as an Adjunct Professor of Trademark Law at the University of Georgia School of Law, and he lectures frequently on copyright and trademark issues at law schools and at professional events.

John M. Vernon—Member, Casebook Steering Committee; Author, Chapter 15, National Law Issues in Canada and Mexico
John Vernon is an officer of the Vernon Law Group, PLLC. He advises and counsels clients on cross-border international and domestic transactions, including matters of acquisition, joint venture, privatization, project financing, foreign investment, trade resolution, dispute resolution, dealer/supplier franchising, licensing product distribution transactions, export compliance, customs and international trade.

Mr. Vernon formerly chaired the International Bar Association’s Leisure Industries Section and currently serves as Chair of the Electronic Entertainment and Online Gaming Committee. He is also an active member of the American Bar Association’s Forum Committee on Franchising and International Law Section.

Mr. Vernon is an adjunct Professor of Law at Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, teaching U.S. Franchising and Distribution Law as well as Advanced Franchising Law. He also teaches courses such as Jurisprudence of Indigenous Peoples, International Human Rights Tribunals and Courts Post-Nuremberg, The Impact of the Arab Spring on Israel and the Middle East, and Terrorism, Torture and International Law in SMU’s Master of Liberal Studies program.
Suzanne E. Wachsstock—Editor, Chapter 5, Antitrust Principles Affecting Franchise Law

Suzanne Wachsstock is Chief Antitrust Counsel at the American Express Company in New York City, where she is responsible for all aspects of global antitrust compliance. Before joining Amex in 2007, Ms. Wachsstock was a Partner and Co-Chair of the Antitrust and Consumer Protection Practice Group in the Stamford, Connecticut, office of Wiggin and Dana LLP. She is currently a vice-chair of the International Committee of the Antitrust Section of the ABA and is a past chair of the Section’s Financial Services Committee and past vice-chair of the Distribution and Franchising Committee. Suzanne was recently included in the Global Competition Review’s list of 100 Women in Antitrust. She speaks frequently on antitrust and consumer protection topics.