Contents

CHAPTER 1
Constitutional and Legal Protections of Lobbying 1
William McGinley
1-1 Introduction 1
1-2 Lobbying: The Constitutional Framework 2
   1-2.1 Constitutional Foundations 2
   1-2.2 Modern Jurisprudence 3
1-3 Lobbying: An Evolving but Ever-Present Force 5

CHAPTER 2
The Structure and Organization of Congress and the Practice of Lobbying 9
Craig Holman and Jamie Conrad
2-1 Introduction 9
2-2 Overview of the Legislative Process 11
2-3 Earmarks 14
2-4 Concentration of Power in Congressional Leadership 18
2-5 The Role of Lobbyists in the Drafting Process 21
2-6 Opportunities and Pitfalls of Selected Procedural Maneuvers 24
2-7 The Administrative Rulemaking Process 26
   2-7.1 Introduction 26
   2-7.2 Rulemaking 27
      2-7.2.1 Types of Rules 27
      2-7.2.2 Notice and Comment Rulemaking 28
      2-7.2.3 Role of OMB 29
      2-7.2.4 The Final Rule 29
   2-7.3 Judicial Review 30

CHAPTER 3
Brief History of Federal Lobbying Regulation 33
Thomas M. Susman
3-1 Introduction and Background on Federal Regulation of Lobbying 33
3-2 Federal Regulation of Lobbying Act (1946) 35
   3-2.1 The Lobbying Act and Early Experience under It 36
   3-2.2 Difficulties of Early Implementation (1946–1954) 37
   3-2.3 Supreme Court’s Decision in United States v. Harriss (1954) 38
   3-2.4 Subsequent (Post-Harriss) Developments and Enforcement 40 and HLOGA (2007) 41

xvii
CHAPTER 4
Registration and Reporting Requirements 43
Rebecca Gordon, Kate Sawyer Keane, and Linda Rockwell
4-1 Overview 43
4-2 Key Definitions 45
4-2.1 Lobbyist 45
4-2.2 Lobbying Contact 46
4-2.3 Covered Officials 46
4-2.4 Lobbying Activities 47
4-3 Excepted Communications 48
4-3.1 Administrative Requests 48
4-3.2 Information Required or Requested by the Government 48
4-3.3 Inherently Public Communications 50
4-3.4 Inherently Private Communications 51
4-3.5 Additional Excepted Communications 51
4-4 Registration 52
4-5 Quarterly Reporting 56
4-6 Semiannual Reporting 58
4-7 Termination (Lobbyist and Registrant) 58
4-8 Tax Code Election 60
4-9 Recordkeeping and Reporting Compliance 60

CHAPTER 5
Semiannual Reports on Contributions and Disbursements
by Registrants and Lobbyists 61
Daniel Nudelman
5-1 Introduction 62
5-2 Who Must File 62
5-3 When Is the LD-203 Due? 63
5-4 What Is the Process for Filing? 64
5-5 Substantive Reporting Requirements 65
5-5.1 Political Action Committee (PAC) Names 65
5-5.2 Contributions and Disbursements 66
5-5.2.1 Federal Election Campaign Act (FECA) Contributions 67
5-5.2.2 Honorary Expenses 68
5-5.2.3 Meeting Expenses 74
5-5.2.4 Presidential Library Foundation and Presidential Inaugural Committee Contributions 75
5-5.3 Comments Box 75
5-5.4 Certification of Compliance with House and Senate Gift Rules 75
5-5.5 Sample Form LD-203 76

CHAPTER 6
Public Access to Lobbying Records: The Online Lobbying Disclosure Database 79
Craig Holman
6-1 Introduction 79
6-2 The Secretary of the Senate’s Lobbying, Post-Employment, and Gift Databases 80
6-3 The Clerk of the House’s Lobbying, Post-Employment, and Gift Databases 84
6-4 Lobbyists and Campaign Contributions 88
6-5 The FARA Database 92
6-6 Nongovernmental Internet Sources of Lobbying Information 98
6-7 Conclusion 98

CHAPTER 7
GAO Audits of Compliance with the Lobbying Disclosure Act 99
Brian G. Svoboda and Rebecca Gordon
7-1 Background: The Statutory Mandate to Audit 99
7-2 The Audit Experience 101
7-2.1 Annual Review of Quarterly LD-2 Reports 101
7-2.2 Annual Review of Semiannual LD-203 Reports 103
7-2.3 Annual Review of First LD-2 Reports 104
7-3 Other Objectives 104
7-4 Reporting 104
7-5 Conclusion 105

CHAPTER 8
Congressional Ethics: Gifts, Travel, and Income 107
Robert F. Bauer and Rebecca H. Gordon
8-1 Introduction 108
8-2 A Very Brief History of Congressional Ethics 108
8-3 Gifts 111
8-3.1 The Basic Rule: Senate 112
8-3.1.1 A Brief Note on Value and Source 112
8-3.2 The Basic Rule: House 114
8-3.3 Gifts to Family Members 114
8-3.4 Exceptions 115
8-3.4.1 Family and Friends 115
8-3.4.2 Personal Hospitality 117
8-3.4.3 Political Contributions 117
8-3.4.4 “Widely Attended” and Charity Events 118
8-3.4.5 Food of Nominal Value 120
8-3.4.6 Market Value Transactions 120
8-3.4.7 Opportunities Open to the Public 121
8-3.4.8 Gifts from Governments 121
8-3.4.9 Informational Materials and Training 122
8-3.4.10 Items of Little Value, Plaques, and Commemoratives 123
8-3.4.11 Meals Incidental to Site Visit, and Constituent Events 124
8-3.4.12 Miscellaneous Other Exceptions 125
8-3.4.13 Waivers 125
8-3.5 Additional Special Restrictions on Lobbyists 125
8-4 Travel 126
8-4.1 Restrictions on Travel Paid by Lobbyists’ Clients—In General 126
8-4.2 Purpose of Travel 127
8-4.3 Who May Pay 128
CONTENTS

8-4.4 Who May Accompany 128
8-4.5 Time Limits 129
8-4.6 Disclosure 129
8-4.7 Other Privately Funded Travel 130
8-5 Honoraria and Other Outside Income 130
8-5.1 Honoraria 131
8-5.1.1 Disclosure 132
8-5.2 Other Outside Income 132
8-5.2.1 Government-Wide Restrictions 133
8-5.2.2 Senate Income Restrictions 133
8-5.2.3 House Income Restrictions: Book Publishing 134
Appendix 8-A: Summary of Limits on Income 135
Appendix 8-C: Outside Income Restrictions 137

CHAPTER 9
Laws Governing Interactions with the Executive Branch 139
Kip F. Wainscott
9-1 LDA Contacts and the Impact of the IRC Election 139
9-1.1 Executive Branch Lobbying Contacts under the LDA 140
9-1.2 Who Is a Covered Executive Branch Official under the LDA? 141
9-1.3 What Is the IRC Election? 141
9-1.4 Who Is Eligible for the IRC Election? 141
9-2 The IRC Election for Section 162(e) Organizations 142
9-2.1 Section 162(e) Expenses 142
9-2.2 Triggering Lobbying Registration 144
9-3 The IRC Election for Qualifying Public Charities 144
9-3.1 Calculating Expenses for Qualifying Public Charities 145
9-3.2 Triggering Lobbying Registration 146
9-4 Impact of the IRC Election on Executive Branch Lobbying Contacts 146
9-5 Concluding Note 147

CHAPTER 10
Antitrust Consent Decree (Tunney Act) Lobbying 149
Thomas M. Susman
10-1 Introduction 149
10-2 Background of Reporting Requirement 151
10-3 Communications Covered 152
10-3.1 Period of Covered Communications 152
10-3.2 Communications with “Officers or Employees of the United States” 154
10-4 Exemption for Counsel of Record 156
10-4.1 Definition of Counsel of Record 157
10-4.2 Scope of Exemption 158
10-5 Filing of Disclosure 159
10-6 Form of Disclosure 159
10-7 Certification 160
10-8 Enforcement 160
10-9 Experience under the Act 161
CHAPTER 11
501(c)(3) Internal Revenue Code Lobbying Limits  163
Ezra Reese
   11-1 Two Methods of Calculating Legislative Lobbying Limits  163
       11-1.1 Substantial Part Test  163
       11-1.2 501(h) Election  164
   11-2 Lobbying Limits under Section 501(h)  165
       11-2.1 Section 501(h) Limits  165
       11-2.2 Affiliation Rules  166
       11-2.3 Direct Lobbying Definitions  167
       11-2.4 Grassroots Lobbying Definitions  167
       11-2.5 Supporting Activities  169
       11-2.6 Transfers  169
       11-2.7 Member Communications  169
       11-2.8 Exceptions  170
       11-2.9 Mixed-Purpose Activity  171
       11-2.10 Subsequent Use  172
   11-3 Action Organizations  173
   11-4 Private Foundations  173
   11-5 Form 990 Reporting  174
   11-6 No Specific Limit for Administrative Lobbying  174

CHAPTER 12
Tax Laws That Apply to Lobbying for Businesses and Other Nonprofits  177
Tyler Hagenbuch
   12.1 Lobbying for 501(c)(4), (5), and (6) Organizations: An Introduction  177

CHAPTER 13
Tax Rules Limiting Deductibility of Lobbying Expenses by Businesses and Trade Associations  181
Joseph Sandler
   13-1 Introduction  181
   13-2 History  182
   13-3 Scope of Nondeductibility  184
       13-3.1 Lobbying  184
           13-3.1.1 Direct Lobbying  184
           13-3.1.2 "Influencing Legislation"  184
           13-3.1.3 Communications with Covered Federal Executive Branch Official  186
           13-3.1.4 Grassroots Lobbying  186
           13-3.1.5 De Minimis Exception  187
       13-3.2 Initiatives and Referenda  188
       13-3.3 Political Activity  189
   13-4 What Types of Costs Are Nondeductible?  189
   13-5 Anti-Cascading: Professional Lobbyists  190
   13-6 Dues Payments and Other Contributions to Trade Associations and Nonprofit Organizations  190
       13-6.1 Trade Associations: Flow-through and Proxy Tax  191
       13-6.2 Other Noncharitable Exempt Organizations  192
       13-6.3 Section 501(c)(3) Organizations  192
CHAPTER 14  195
Office of Management and Budget Regulations Governing Lobbying Costs Incurred by Nonprofit Organizations  195
Thomas M. Susman
  14-1 Introduction  195
  14-2 Prohibitions under OMB Circulars  196
  14-3 Allowed Exceptions  198
  14-4 Required Cost-Accounting Procedures  200
  14-5 Recordkeeping  200
  14-6 Enforcement  200

CHAPTER 15
The Byrd Amendment  203
Thomas M. Susman
  15-1 Introduction  203
  15-2 Background of the Byrd Amendment  204
  15-3 Description of the Byrd Amendment  205
  15-4 OMB Rules for All Federal Agencies  207
  15-5 Modification by the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995  209
  15-6 Uncertainty Regarding the Prohibition on Appropriated Funds  209
    15-6.1 What Are “Appropriated Funds”?  209
    15-6.2 Bid Protests and Contract Dispute Costs  211
    15-6.3 Program (Earmark) Lobbying  211
    15-6.4 Distinguishing “Liaison” from “Influence”  212
    15-6.5 Lobbying for Contract Specifications  212
    15-6.6 Payments By and To Third Parties  213
  15-7 Questions Regarding Disclosure Requirements  214
    15-7.1 Reporting Non-reportable Payments  214
    15-7.2 Reasonable Compensation Not Reportable  215
    15-7.3 Defense Department  215
    15-7.4 The Need for Clarification  215
  15-8 Penalties and Enforcement  216
  15-9 Incomplete Coverage  217
    15-9.1 Employee Lobbying  217
    15-9.2 Non-appropriated Federal Benefits  217
  15-10 Public Availability of Disclosure Reports  217
  15-11 Constitutionality  218
  15-12 Conclusion  218

CHAPTER 16
Contingent Fee Lobbying  221
Thomas M. Susman
  16-1 Introduction  221
  16-2 Statutory Prohibitions  222
    16-2.1 “Covenant Against Contingent Fees” in Federal Contracts  224
    16-2.2 Foreign Agents Registration Act  226
    16-2.3 Byrd Amendment  227
    16-2.4 Congressional Recognition that There Is No General Ban  227
22-4 Confidentiality 305
  22-4.1 The Attorney-Client Privilege 306
  22-4.2 The Ethical Duty of Confidentiality 307
22-5 Conflicts of Interest 309
  22-5.1 The Westinghouse Case as Illustrative 310
  22-5.2 Concurrent Conflicts 312
  22-5.3 Positional Conflicts 315
  22-5.4 Successive Conflicts 316
  22-5.5 Former Government Lawyers 318
22-6 Fees 320
  22-6.1 Coudert Brothers Case as Illustrative 321
22-7 Competence 322
22-8 Prohibited Assistance 322
  22-8.1 Ethics Rules 323
  22-8.1 General Principles Outside Ethics Law 325
22-9 Conclusion 325

CHAPTER 23
The Use of Corporate Resources in Connection with Federal Elections 327
Andrew Werbrock
23-1 Introduction 328
23-2 Establishing a Corporate PAC 329
  23-2.1 Establishing an SSF and Paying Its Expenses 330
  23-2.2 Registering the SSF 330
  23-2.3 Reporting Requirements 331
  23-2.4 Contribution Limits 332
  23-2.5 Soliciting Contributions for the SSF 333
    23-2.5.1 Who May Be Solicited: The Corporation’s “Restricted Class” 333
  23-2.5.2 The Requirement that Contributions Be Voluntary and Disclaimer Requirements 335
    23-2.5.3 Methods of Solicitation 335
    23-2.5.4 Solicitation of Other Employees 336
23-3 The Use of Corporate Facilities 336
  23-3.1 Corporate “Facilitation” 337
  23-3.2 Permissible Uses of Corporate Resources for Fund-Raising and Other Events 338
    23-3.2.1 Campaign-Sponsored Events 338
    23-3.2.2 Restricted Class Events 339
  23-3.3 Use of Corporate Facilities in Connection with Individual Volunteer Activity 340
  23-3.4 Bundling 341
    23-3.4.1 Conduit Contributions 341
    23-3.4.2 Reports of Contributions Bundled by Lobbyists 342
23-4 Corporate Communications 343
  23-4.1 Communications to the Restricted Class 344
    23-4.1.1 Restricted Class Communications and Candidate/Party Appearances 344
xxvi CONTENTS

23-4.1.2 Restricted Class Voter Registration and Get-Out-the-Vote Drives 344
23-4.1.3 Reporting Restricted Class Communications 345
23-4.2 Communications Outside the Restricted Class 345
23-4.2.1 Candidate and Party Appearances before a Corporation’s Employees 345
23-4.2.2 Officeholder Appearances before the General Public 346
23-4.2.3 Voter Registration and Get-Out-the-Vote Communications and Drives 346
23-4.2.4 Voting Records and Voter Guides 347
23-4.2.5 Candidate Endorsements 347
23-5 Rules for Trade Associations 347
23-5.1 What Is a Trade Association? 348
23-5.2 Trade Association SSFs and the “Solicitable Class” 348
23-5.3 Trade Association Communications and Appearances 349

CHAPTER 24
Federal Election Activity by Corporations after Citizens United 351
Trevor Potter and Matthew T. Sanderson
24-1 Corporations Generally—Directly Sponsoring Independent Communications That May Influence Federal Elections 352
24-1.1 A Corporation Must Maintain Its Independence from Federal Candidates and Party Representatives When Sponsoring Certain Advertisements That Identify Federal Candidates or Party Committees 352
24-1.2 A Corporation May Need to File Disclosure Reports for Advertisements That Mention Federal Candidates or Party Committees 354
24-2 Corporations Generally—Indirectly Sponsoring Independent Communications That May Influence Federal Elections 356
24-2.1 A Corporation May Contribute to a Federal Super PAC That Sponsors Independent Communications 358
24-2.2 A Corporation May Contribute to a 501(c)(4) Social Welfare Organization That Sponsors Independent Communications 360
24-3 Certain Types of Corporations May Be Prohibited from Directly or Indirectly Sponsoring Independent Communications That May Influence Federal Elections 362
24-3.1 Federal Contractors 362
24-3.2 National Banks and Federally Chartered Corporations 363

CHAPTER 25
Pay-to-Play Rules 365
Jonathan Berkon and Karl Sandstrom
25-1 SEC and MSRB Pay-to-Play Rules 366
25-1.1 Basic Structure of the SEC and MSRB Rules 366
25-1.2 Who Is Covered? 367
25-1.3 Which Political Activities Are Restricted and Which Remain Unrestricted? 368
CHAPTER 26
Restrictions on Giving Gifts to Executive Branch Employees 389
Kathleen Clark and Cheryl Embree
26-1 Introduction 389
26-2 Gift Restrictions 390
26-3 Events as Gifts: Widely Attended Gatherings 395
26-4 Travel as Gifts: Payment or Reimbursement of Travel Expenses 397
26-5 Illegal Gratuities and Other Criminal Statutes Relevant to Those Bearing Gifts 398
26-6 Conclusion 399

CHAPTER 27
Post-Employment Restrictions and the Regulation of Lobbying by Former Employees 401
Robert G. Vaughn
27-1 Introduction 402
27-2 Post-Employment Restrictions Generally Applicable to the Executive Branch 403
27-2.1 Restrictions on Employees Personally and Substantially Involved in Particular Matters Involving Specific Parties 403
27-2.2 Restrictions on Employees Officially Responsible for Particular Matters Involving Specific Parties 407
27-2.3 Restrictions Regarding the Use of Confidential Information in Trade and Treaty Negotiations 409
27-2.4 Restrictions on Senior Personnel 411
27-2.5 Restrictions on Very Senior Personnel 412
27-2.6 Restrictions Regarding Representation of a Foreign Entity 413
27-2.7 Exceptions and Waivers 413
27-2.8 Administrative Enforcement 415
27-2.9 Ethical Restrictions Applicable to Lawyers 416
27-3 Other Post-Employment Restrictions Applicable to the Executive Branch 416
27-3.1 The Procurement Integrity Provisions 417
27-3.2 Post-Employment Restrictions Imposed by Agency Regulations 420
27-3.3 Post-Employment Restrictions Imposed by Executive Order  420
27-4 Post-Employment Restrictions Applicable to Congress  422
  27-4.1 Restrictions on Members of Congress and on Elected Officers of Congress  424
  27-4.2 Restrictions on Higher-Paid Personal Staff of Members of Congress  425
  27-4.3 Restrictions on Higher-Paid Committee Staff  426
  27-4.4 Restrictions on Higher-Paid Leadership Staff  426
  27-4.5 Restrictions on Higher-Paid Employees of Other Legislative Offices  427
  27-4.6 Restrictions Applicable to Employment Negotiations  427
  27-4.7 Restrictions on Representing Foreign Entities  428
  27-4.8 Restrictions Regarding the Use of Confidential Information in Trade and Treaty Negotiations  428
  27-4.9 Exceptions  430

CHAPTER 28
Additional Restrictions on Post-Employment Activity and on Negotiating for Future Employment under Congressional Ethics Rules  432
Robert L. Walker
  28-1 Introduction  433
  28-2 Senate Post-Employment Restrictions under Senate Rule 37, Paragraphs 8 and 9  434
    28-2.1 Senators: Two-Year Senate-wide Ban on Lobbying  435
    28-2.2 Officers of the Senate and “Senior Staff”: One-Year Senate-wide Ban on Lobbying  435
    28-2.3 Other Senate Staff  436
    28-2.4 Meaning of the Terms “Registered Lobbyist” and “Lobbying” in Rule 37; Differences in Scope of the “Revolving Door” Ban Imposed by Rule 37 and the Ban Imposed by 18 U.S.C. § 207  437
      28-2.4.1 “Registered Lobbyist”  437
      28-2.4.2 How Is “Lobbying” Defined?  438
    28-2.5 Exceptions and Permitted Activity under Paragraphs 8 and 9 of Rule 37  439
    28-2.6 Enforcement of the Post-Employment Restrictions under Rule 37  439
      28-2.6.1 Observe the Rules, Avoid the Costs  441
  28-3 House Post-Employment Restrictions  441
  28-4 Negotiating for Future Employment under House and Senate Rules and under the STOCK Act  442
    28-4.1 Employment Negotiations, and Notification/Recusal Requirements, in the Senate  443
      28-4.1.1 What Are Employment “Negotiations” under Senate Rules?  443
      28-4.1.2 Rules Applicable to Senators’ Future Employment Involving Lobbying  444
CHAPTER 28

Employment Negotiations, and Notification/Recusal Requirements, in the House

28-4.2.1 What Are Employment Negotiations under House Rules? 448
28-4.2.2 Members of the House 448
28-4.2.3 House Senior Staff 449

CHAPTER 29

Restrictions on Service by Former Lobbyists in the Obama Administration and on Service by Lobbyists on Federal Advisory Committees 451

Robert L. Walker

29-1 Introduction 452
29-2 The Ethics Pledge and Restrictions on Former Lobbyists on Service in the Obama Administration 454
29-3 Taking the Pledge: Who Is an “Appointee” and Who Is a “Registered Lobbyist” Subject to the “Revolving-Door Ban” under the Ethics Pledge? 455
29-3.1 Who Is an “Appointee” under the Ethics Pledge? 455
29-3.2 Who Is a “Registered Lobbyist” and What Is a “Lobbying Organization” under the Ethics Pledge? 456
29-4 The Ethics Pledge “Revolving-Door Ban” for All Appointees Entering Government 457
29-4.1 What Does “Participate” Mean? 457
29-4.2 What Is a “Particular Matter Involving Specific Parties”? 457
29-4.3 When Is a Matter “Directly and Substantially Related to” a Former Employer or Client? 459
29-4.4 Who Is a “Former Employer” and Who Is a “Former Client” under the Ethics Pledge? 459
29-4.4.1 “Former Employer” 459
29-4.4.2 “Former Client” 460
29-5 The Ethics Pledge “Revolving-Door Ban” on Former Lobbyists Entering Government 461
29-5.1 What Do “Lobby” and “Lobbied” Mean under the Pledge? 461
29-5.2 What Is a “Particular Matter” under Paragraph 3(a) of the Pledge? 461
29-5.3 What Is a “Specific Issue Area” under the Pledge? 462
29-6 The Ethics Pledge and Other Executive Branch Impartiality Restrictions 462
29-7 Administration of the Ethics Pledge: Waivers and Enforcement 463
29-7.1 Administration of the Ethics Pledge 463