About the Authors

Courtney Delaney is Medicare Secondary Payer Special Counsel for the Garretson Resolution Group in Charlotte, North Carolina. She has extensive experience working with the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services Central Office and Medicare’s administrative contractors to resolve Medicare Secondary Payer obligations and related issues that arise in mass tort and other complex personal injury litigations and settlements. She provides consultation to plaintiff and defense on all aspects of Medicare Secondary compliance. Ms. Delaney earned her B.A. degree in political science from North Carolina State University and her J.D. from the Charlotte School of Law. She is a member of the North Carolina State Bar.

Nicholas D’Aquilla is Special Counsel for the Garretson Resolution Group in New Orleans, Louisiana. He provides consultation to plaintiff and defendant stakeholders in mass tort and complex litigations on best practices to ensure all-party compliance with the Medicare Secondary Payer Act, MMSEA Section 111 reporting requirements, and Medicaid and private health insurance reimbursement claims. He is a 2016 Health Law LLM candidate at Loyola University of Chicago School of Law and a member of the ABA’s Health Law and Litigation Sections. Mr. D’Aquilla would like to thank Abigail D’Aquilla for her assistance with his contributions to this book.

John Cattie, MSP Subject Matter Expert, heads the Future Cost of Care Practice for Garretson Resolution Group, counseling attorneys nationwide on compliance issues related to the Medicare Secondary Payer Act, including the applicability and use of Medicare Set-Aside Arrangements (MSAs) as part of workers’ compensation, liability, and no-fault settlements. Mr. Cattie joined Garretson in 2008. Serving as a neutral third party with respect to Medicare complince, he is a member of DRI, American Association of Justice (AAJ), Claims and Litigation Management Alliance (CLM), and National Association of Medicare Set Aside Professionals (NAMSAP). Within DRI, John serves as the chair of the DRI Medicare Secondary Payer Task Force, leading DRI’s efforts to provide MSP compliance education to over 22,000 attorney members. Prior to joining GRG, Mr. Cattie was an attorney with Moore & Van Allen where he conducted buy-side due diligence efforts for corporate merger and acquisitions.

David M. Melancon is a member of Irwin Fritchie Urquhart & Moore LLC in New Orleans. Mr. Melancon is an experienced litigator in a wide variety of personal injury and property damage claims, including the areas of products liability, environmental and toxic tort, asbestos, automotive, and premises liability. His asbestos practice includes the defense of manufacturers, employers, and premises owners. He is a member of DRI’s Toxic Torts and Environmental Law Committee, Drug and Medical Device Committee, and Medicare Secondary Payer Task Force. His practice focuses on Medicare Secondary Payer and Section 111 compliance and he is a frequent writer and lecturer on Medicare reimbursement issues. He is now serving as a member of Medicare Secondary Payer committees and working groups for the firm’s clients, as well as national professional organizations.

Erin Anderson Nowell is an associate attorney with Simon Greenstone Panatier Bartlett, PC. Her practice is focused on large-scale mass torts and representing individuals injured by their exposure to toxic substances, dangerous products, or the prescribed use of pharmaceuticals. Ms. Nowell is a 2003 graduate of the University of Texas School of Law, and is licensed to practice in Texas, the U.S. district courts in the Northern and Eastern Districts of Texas, and was recently admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States. She was named a “Rising Star” by Texas Super Lawyer in 2015 and 2016, and was recently listed as one of the Nation’s 40 Best Advocates under 40 by the National Bar Association.