accountable care organization reimbursement issues, 63–65 eligibility requirements, 63 flexibility in use of telehealth services, 65 Medicare fee-for-service rules,
  application of, 64
Next Generation ACOs, issues regarding, 64
Social Security Act, provisions of, 65
types of ACOs, 64
Alice Corp. v. CLS, 28–30
  computer software patents,
    application to, 28
apps subject to HIPAA, 78–79
  developer as business associate, issues regarding, 79
  downloaded apps, issues regarding, 79
Health and Human Services
guidance regarding, 78
offering of service, issues regarding, 79 contractual protections for mHealth products, 36 business associate agreement purpose of, 37
  terms of, 37
data, protection of, 36 healthcare information, value of, 36 copyright protection for mHealth products, 32–33 copyright owner, rights of, 32 registration, obtaining, 33 U.S. Copyright Office issuance of registration, 33 works eligible for, 32 current regulatory status of mHealth products, 8 administrative support, functions, defined, 8 administrative support software, 8–9 Mobile Apps Guidance, application to, 9 clinical decision support software, 12–14
  clarification regarding, need for, 13
  key definitions regarding, 12 data handling software, 11–14
  key definitions regarding, 11 education software, 14
  electronic patient records, 10
  Mobile Apps Guidance, application to, 10
general wellness, 9–10

Calculators, Mobile Apps Guidance,
  application to, 17–20
clinical decision support software general purpose aids, 14
  regulation of, 12–14
communication tools, enforcement discretion, products subject to, 16–17 Wellness Guidance, application to, 9 products that are not devices, 8 reference software, 14
three categories of mHealth products, 8

Data handling software, regulation of, 11–14 data privacy and security, 40–44.
Also see protected health information annual audits and reports, obtaining, 41 Cloud services restrictions, 42 compliance with law, 41–44 data security policies, 41–42
ISO/IEC 27001 Information Security Certification provisions of, 41
IT vendor practices, evaluation of, 40 rights and obligations, clarification of, 41 secure access controls, 43 security breach, issues regarding, 42–43 unauthorized access, prevention of, 44 vendor clients, contact with, 40 vendor compliance certification, determination of, 41 vendor use of data, restrictions on, 42 de-identified information exemption from HIPAA coverage, 76

Privacy Rule, provisions regarding, 76
Safe Harbor method for, 76
Defend Trade Secrets Act, provisions of, 31
device, defined, 3
software functions excluded from, 6 domain names and mHealth product protections, registration of domain names, 35

Economic Espionage Act, provisions of, 31 education software, Mobile Apps Guidance application to, 14 eHealth, mHealth as component of, 1 electronic patient records regulations regarding, 10 enforcement discretion, products subject to, 15–19 calculators, 17–20
communication tools, 16–17
general wellness, 15
medical image storage and communication, 17 reference look-up, 17–20 supplemental clinical care, 15–16

FDA medical device regulations, 20–25 adverse event reporting, requirements for, 21 advertising and promotion restrictions, 21 cybersecurity issues, 23–25 enforcement options, 24 labeling requirements, 21 misbranding and adulteration, prohibitions against, 21 postmarket requirements, 21–25
premarket review, provisions for, 20–25
Quality System Regulation
application of, 21
requirements under, 22
recordkeeping requirements, 22 unique device identifier, application of, 21 FDA regulation of mHealth. Also see current regulatory status of mHealth products background and history of, 3–8 device, defined, 3
general wellness products,
guidance regarding, 6
guidance documents regarding, 5 medical device data systems,
regulation of, 6
medical image communications devices, regulation of, 6 medical image storage devices,
regulation of, 6
Mobile Apps Guidance
implementation of, 5
principles of, 6
software products, regulation of, 4 apps regulated under, 5 device defined under, 3 FDA authority under, 3
premarket review, provisions for, 20–25
software functions excluded from device definition, 6
Food and Drug Administration. See FDA medical device regulations; FDA regulation of mHealth Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act; mHealth products, regulatory status of G
general purpose aids, regulation of, 14
general wellness
enforcement discretion, products subject to, 15 products, regulation of, 9
FDA guidance regarding, 6
H
Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).
Also see apps subject to HIPAA; de-identified information; HIPAA compliance for app developers; HIPAA considerations for personal health records; HIPAA requirements for business associates; HIPAA requirements for covered entities Breach Notification Rule, provisions of, 74
business associates, 75 business associate agreement, requirement for, 75 coverage of, 75
defined, 75
covered entities, 75–76
defined, 75
Health and Human Services guidance with respect to, 83–84 information covered by, 76 mHealth services, compliance with, 73 overview of, 74–78
PHI, storage of, issues regarding, 75
Privacy Rule, provisions of, 74 protected health information, standard for protect, 74 Security Rule, provisions of, 74 health records, 16–17
enforcement discretion, products subject to, 16–17 healthcare operation service levels, 44–46 HIPAA compliance for app developers, 79–82 breach notification requirements, compliance with, 82 business associate agreement, importance of, 81 requirement for, 79
loss or theft of devices, issues regarding, 81 Privacy Rule, provisions of, 79–80 security incident detection requirements, 80 Security Rule, compliance with, 80 use and disclosure of information, restrictions re, 80 HIPAA considerations for personal health records, 82–83 Federal Trade Commission guidance regarding, 82 personal health records defined, 82 requirements regarding, 82 vendors, requirements for, 82 HIPAA requirements for business associates, 77–78 business associate agreement, provisions of, 77
Privacy Rule, provisions of, 77
HIPAA requirements for covered entities, 77–78 administrative safeguards, implementation of, 77 Breach Notification Rule, provisions of, 78
physical safeguards, implementation of, 77 Privacy Rule, provisions of, 77 protected health information, use or disclosure of, 77 risk assessments, conduct of, 77 technical safeguards, implementation of, 77

I
information technology, issues regarding, 39. Also see data privacy and security; IT service levels, requirements for; unexpected events, planning for business and legal requirements, vendor adherence, 39 proprietary information, handling of, 39 protected health information, handling of, 39 termination or expiration of IT contract, 46 intellectual property laws, 27. Also see contractual protections for mHealth products; copyright protection for mHealth products; domain names and mHealth product protections patent protection for mHealth products; social media and Index

mHealth innovations, protection of, 27 strategy, development of, 27
Interstate Medical Licensure Compact, provisions of, 52
IT service levels, requirements for, 44–45 availability, issues regarding, 44 response time, issues regarding, 44 scheduled downtime, issues regarding, 44 throughput, minimum levels of, 44

L
Lanham Act, trademark provisions of, 34

M
Medicaid, regulation of mHealth, 2 Medicaid reimbursement for mHealth, 65–70. Also see patient-provider interfaces coverage, state differences in, 66 electronic communications, coverage of, 68 facility-based originating site restrictions, 68–69 home- and community-based care, issues regarding, 69 outcome-based payment models, 69 patient-centered payment models, 69 remote patient monitoring, coverage of, 68 service restrictions, trends in, 70 services and provider types, limitations regarding, 70 states discretion in reimbursement, 65 medical device data systems, FDA regulation of, 6 medical image communications devices, FDA regulation of, 6 medical image storage devices, FDA regulation of, 6
Medicare, regulation of mHealth, 2 Medicare reimbursement for mHealth, 58–65. Also see accountable care organization reimbursement issues; procedures incorporating mobile health devices; services traditionally delivered face-to-face failure to keep pace with mHealth advances, 58 Medicare Administrative Contractors, 58 function of, 58
policy implementation, assistance with, 58 reasonable and necessary determination, impact of, 58 mHealth digital technology covered by, 1 eHealth, component of, 1
general definition of, 1 Medicare regulations regarding, 2 regulation by Medicaid, 2 regulatory challenges faced by developers, 1 state licensing requirements for, 2 mHealth pilot programs, 71 categories of, 71
testing of, 71
mHealth products. Also see current regulatory status of mHealth products; enforcement discretion, products subject to; FDA medical device regulations; FDA regulation of mHealth products that are devices products, categories of, 8 mHealth products that are devices, 19–20
Mobile Apps Guidance, application to, 19
Mobile Apps Guidance administrative support software, application to, 9 calculators, application to, 17 clinical decision support software, application to, 13 communication tools, application to, 16 education and reference software, application to, 14 electronic patient records, application to, 10 FDA implementation of, 5 health records, application to, 16 mHealth products that are devices, application to, 19
principles of, 6
reference look-up, application to, 17 mutual recognition compacts, 51–52 growth of, 51
Interstate Medical Licensure Compact, provisions of, 52
Nurse Licensure Compact, provisions of, 52
Nurse Practice Act, provisions of, 52 physicians and nurses, coverage of, 51 provisions of, 51–52

N
North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners v. FTC, 56
Nurse Licensure Compact, provisions of, 52
Nurse Practice Act, provisions of, 52

P
patent protection for mHealth products, 28–30 Alice Corp. v. CLS, application to, 28 patent applications, process for, 30 patent validity, challenges to, 29 utility patents, issuance of, 28 patient-provider interfaces, 66–67 real-time, audiovisual interactions, reimbursement, 66 store-and-forward applications, use of, 67 procedures incorporating mobile health devices, 59–61 covered mobile technologies that are paid, 59 mobile technologies as products, 60 preventive services, issues regarding, 60 telemetry, reimbursement for, 59
United States Preventive Services Task Force, provisions of, 60 protected health information, 39
HIPAA standard for protection of, 74
IT vendor experience in handling, evaluation of, 40 security standards for, 40

R
reference look-up, Mobile Apps Guidance, application to, 17–20 reference software, Mobile Apps Guidance application to, 14 reimbursement for mHealth services.
See Medicaid reimbursement for mHealth; Medicare reimbursement for mHealth; mHealth pilot programs telemedicine parity laws

S
services traditionally delivered face-to-face, 61–63 electronic technology reimbursement, criteria for, 61–62 electronically-generated technology, reimbursement, 61 Medicare Part B, issues regarding, 63
Social Security Act, provisions of, 61
social media and protection for mHealth products social media handles, registration of, 35 Social Security Act, 61, 65
software products, regulation of, 4–8 complexities regarding, 5
FDA guidance regarding, 4–6 software functions, exclusion of, 6–7 state law barriers, 55–56 corporate practice of medicine doctrine, 56 drug prescription restrictions, 55 preexisting physician-patient relationship, requirements for, 55 privileging and credentialing, 55 state mHealth licensing laws, 48–53. Also see state law barriers; state modernization efforts; state scope of practice standards antitrust issues, 56
North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners v. FTC, 56 federal healthcare program qualification policies, 52–53 Bureau of Indian Affairs physicians, application to, 52
Department of Defense physicians, application to, 52 Veterans Administration physicians, application to, 52 limited mobile practice, allowances for, 49 national licensing examinations, prerequisites for, 49 physical location of vendor, consideration of, 48–49 restrictive approach by, 49 state modernization efforts, 49–52.
Also see mutual recognition compacts in-state physicians consulting with physicians throughout the nation, 50 limited telemedicine licenses, 50–51 practicing in a given jurisdiction, restrictions of, 51 specific restrictions, existence of, 51 peer to peer consultation exceptions, 50 state scope of practice standards, 53–54 certified registered nurse anesthetists, issues re, 54 legal authority variations within location, 54 physicians’ practice authority, determinations regarding, 53 practicing medicine, definition of, 53 supplemental clinical care, enforcement discretion, products subject to, 15–19 teledicine parity laws, 70 private insurer coverage, requirements for, 70 specific types of services, parity for, 71 uniform coverage issues, addressing, 70 trade secret protection for mHealth products, 31–32

Defend Trade Secrets Act, provisions of, 31
Economic Espionage Act, provisions of, 31 trade secret protection, eligibility for, 31 trade secrets, exploitation of, 32
Uniform Trade Secrets Act, provisions of, 31

trademark protection for mHealth products, 33–36 Lanham Act, provisions of, 34 service mark registrations, 34 trade dress registrations, 34
21st Century Cures Act enactment of, 6
software functions excluded from device definition, 6

U
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services apps subject to HIPAA, guidance regarding, 78 HIPAA compliance, guidance regarding, 83–84 mHealth guidance, deficiencies in, 73 unexpected events, planning for, 45 business continuity, plans for, 45 data backup plans and procedures, 45 remote location, risk reduction of, 45 disaster recovery, plans for, 45
Uniform Trade Secrets Act, provisions of, 31
United States Preventive Services Task Force, 60