Contents

Foreword .............................................. vii

Chapter 1
Introduction to mHealth ................................. 1

Chapter 2
Food and Drug Administration (FDA) Regulation of mHealth .......................... 3
A. Statutory Background and History of FDA Regulation ................................ 3
B. Current Regulatory Status .................................. 8
   1. mHealth Products That Are Not Devices ........ 8
   2. mHealth Products Subject to Enforcement Discretion ....................... 15
   3. mHealth Products That Are Devices .......... 19
C. Considerations for mHealth Products Subject to FDA Regulatory Oversight
   1. Premarket Review .............................. 20
   2. Postmarket Requirements ....................... 21
   3. Cybersecurity .................................. 23
   4. FDA Enforcement .......................... 24

Chapter 3
Intellectual Property Rights and Protections .............. 27
A. Patents ........................................... 28
B. Trade Secrets ................................... 31
C. Copyrights ....................................... 32
D. Trademarks, Domain Names, and Social Media ....... 33
E. Contractual Protections ........................... 36
Chapter 4
Information Technology Matters ............................ 39
   A. Data Privacy and Security ............................ 40
      1. Data Security Policies and Compliance with Law ............................................. 41
      2. Restrictions on Usage ............................. 42
      3. Cloud Services Restrictions ....................... 42
      4. Post-breach Rights and Responsibilities ........ 42
      5. Secure Access Controls. .......................... 43
      6. Unauthorized Access Prevention. ................. 44
   B. Service Levels ....................................... 44
   C. Data Backup, Disaster Recovery, and Business
      Continuity .......................................... 45
   D. Termination or Expiration of the Contract ....... 46

Chapter 5
State Licensing and Scope of Practice Laws ............ 47
   A. State Licensing Laws ............................... 48
      1. General Rule: A Provider Must Be Licensed in the State in Which the Patient Is Physically
         Located ............................................. 48
      2. State Efforts to Modernize and Accommodate mHealth ........................................... 49
         a. “Peer-to-Peer” Consultation Exemptions .... 50
         b. Limited Telemedicine Licenses .............. 50
         c. Mutual Recognition Compacts ............... 51
      3. Provider Qualification Policies for Certain
         Federal Healthcare Programs .................... 52
   B. State Scope of Practice Standards .................. 53
   C. Other State Law Barriers ........................... 55
   D. Antitrust Issues .................................... 56

Chapter 6
Reimbursement .............................................. 57
   A. Medicare Reimbursement for mHealth ............. 58
      1. Provider and Physician Procedures Incorporating the Mobile Health Device ....................... 59
2. Telehealth Services Traditionally Delivered
   Face-to-Face ........................................... 61
3. ACO Reimbursement for Telehealth Services ... 63
B. Medicaid Reimbursement for mHealth ............ 65
   1. Patient-Provider Interfaces .................... 66
   2. Facility-Based Originating Site Restrictions .... 68
   3. Other Restrictions on Medicaid Reimbursement for mHealth ........................................ 69
C. Telemedicine Parity Laws .......................... 70
D. mHealth Pilot Programs ............................. 71

Chapter 7
Privacy and mHealth ................................. 73
A. Overview of HIPAA ................................. 74
   1. Who Is Covered by HIPAA? ..................... 75
   2. What Information Is Covered by HIPAA? ...... 76
   3. What Does HIPAA Require of a Covered Entity or a Business Associate? ....................... 77
B. Considerations for mHealth Developers and Professionals ......................................... 78
   1. When Is an App Subject to HIPAA? .......... 78
   2. What Does HIPAA Compliance Mean for an App Developer? ............................... 79
   3. Some Considerations Relating to Personal
      Health Records ................................. 82
C. Early Indications of Additional Guidance from HHS ................................................... 83
D. Conclusion ........................................... 84

About the Authors .................................... 85
Index .................................................... 91