

Contents

Part I Finding Your Passion in the Practice of Law

- Chapter 1 Why This Book? Some Preliminary Matters 3
- Chapter 2 Why Should You Listen to Me? 9
- Chapter 3 Why You Shouldn't Listen to Me 13
- Chapter 4 Your Chances of Going Solo Are Greater Than You Might Think 15
- Chapter 5 The Dilemmas Law Students Face When Deciding to Practice Solo 19
- Chapter 6 So What Are You Afraid of? Your Greatest Fear May Be Success 23
- Chapter 7 Two Who Made the Plunge (Sarah/Alex) 27
- Chapter 8 Understanding Your Strengths and Weaknesses 31
- Chapter 9 What Really Matters: The Six Characteristics of Successful Solos 35
- Chapter 10 Time Management 53
- Chapter 11 Grades Matter, but Your Success in Practice Will Not Be Measured by Your GPA 61
- Chapter 12 Blinding the Judge with Your Brilliance: It Is All About Being Prepared 65
- Chapter 13 Lawyer? Attorney? What Is the Difference? 67
- Chapter 14 What Area of Law Should I Practice? 69
- Chapter 15 On Second Thought, Not Such a Good Idea . . . 73
- Chapter 16 Rural Practice: Maybe You Should Look Outside the Crowded Legal Suppliers Market 77
- Chapter 17 Card-Table Lawyer: Keeping Your Overhead Low 81
- Chapter 18 Should I Work from My Home? 91

- Chapter 19 You May Be Able to Earn More Than You Think as a Solo 97
- Chapter 20 How to Get More Out of Law School 103
- Chapter 21 How Do I Find/Make My First Job? 107

Part II Get on Track to Start Your Own Practice

- Chapter 22 Exploring Your Possible Options, Putting Everything in Context, and Understanding the Rudiments of the Legal Profession 113
- Chapter 23 A Recommended Timeline to Put You on the Path to Success 115
- Chapter 24 Understanding Your Best Options. Start Early: Build Your Practice While Still in Law School 117
- Chapter 25 Get Out There During Your First Year in Law School 123
- Chapter 26 Continue Your Investigation and Interviews with Local Attorneys 127
- Chapter 27 Write, Write, Write 129
- Chapter 28 Prepare to Pass the Bar Exam 131

Part III Marketing: Your Biggest Challenge, Your Greatest Opportunity

- Chapter 29 Sell the Sizzle, Not the Steak: Part I 135
- Chapter 30 Sell the Sizzle, Not the Steak: Part II 141
- Chapter 31 Is a Niche Practice in Your Future? 145
- Chapter 32 Carnegie Skills 153
- Chapter 33 Uber into Law: Access Docs from Anywhere 155
- Chapter 34 Wholesale Versus Retail: Keep Your Eye on the Ball and Expand Your Reach and Influence 157
- Chapter 35 Would You Buy a Car Without Wheels? Understand What You Are Selling: It Isn't Paper 161
- Chapter 36 Cost-Effective Mediocrity: Make Sure You Invest Your Money Wisely in Marketing Your Firm 163
- Chapter 37 Do-It-Yourself Lawyering and How It Might Go Awry 165

- Chapter 38 Dog in a Basket: One More Way to Think About How to Sell Your Service and Close the Sale 167
- Chapter 39 Your Tiger Team: One Way to Expand Your Sphere of Influence with Greater Efficiency 171

Part IV Miscellaneous Good-to-Know Stuff

- Chapter 40 Why Aren't You Going Paperless? 177
- Chapter 41 Not Enough Time for Your Ferrari? Maybe Outsourcing Help Is More Efficient 179
- Chapter 42 Why Your Next Hire Might Come from Starbucks 181
- Chapter 43 Can't Take Notes? One Tip on Efficient Note-Taking 183
- Chapter 44 Google Scholar and Other Free Research Sources: Do You Still Need a Large Library for Legal Research? 187
- Chapter 45 Disaster Preparedness: Your Duty and Obligation 191
- Chapter 46 How Should I Organize My Business? 195
- Chapter 47 Malpractice Insurance 199
- Chapter 48 Student Debt Management 201

Part V Client Control Issues

- Chapter 49 Litigation: Is That the Answer for Your Clients? 207
- Chapter 50 Barriers to Communication: Learn to Listen Effectively 213
- Chapter 51 Client Honesty: Don't Let the Client's Problem Become Your Problem 217
- Chapter 52 Cow in the House? Malpractice? Fess Up 221
- Chapter 53 The World Is Pass/Fail 223
- Chapter 54 Is Your Client a Twenty Footer? A Hard Lesson to Learn: When to Turn Away Business 225
- Chapter 55 In and Out: Avoid Bias When Assessing Clients' Communication 227
- Chapter 56 Some Final Words: The Dirty Dozen Tips for Solos 231
- Index 239