Contents

Acknowledgments .......................................................... xvii
About the Contributors .................................................. xix
About the Editors .......................................................... xxv
 Editors’ Introduction ...................................................... xxvii
Reports from the Frontlines of Disaster Recovery &
Community Resilience .................................................. xxxiii
  Ingrid Norton

Part 1
Framework for Recovery ............................................... 1

Chapter 1
Federal Funding and Financing Programs Post-Disaster ........... 3
  Antoinette M. Jackson
  I. Introduction .......................................................... 3
  II. Creation of Funding Sources ..................................... 4
      A. National Response to Disasters ............................. 4
      B. State and Local Responses to Disasters ................. 5
      C. Process for Presidential Declaration ...................... 6
  III. Identification of Resources ..................................... 7
      A. Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency
         Assistance Act .................................................... 7
      B. Community Development Block Grants Disaster
         Recovery Funds .................................................. 10
      C. HOME Funds .................................................... 11
      D. Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program ...................... 12
      E. Capital Fund Emergency/Natural Disaster
         Funds/Disaster Housing Assistance Program .............. 12
      F. Small Business and USDA Loans .......................... 13
      G. U.S. Department of Commerce Disaster Relief
         Opportunity Funds .............................................. 13
Chapter 2
The Role of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development in Post-Disaster Community Recovery
Helen R. Kanovsky and Carey Catherine Whitehead

I. Introduction

A. HUD’s Historical Involvement in Federal Disaster Response

B. Evolution of HUD’s Disaster Recovery Role

II. Discussion and Case Studies

A. HUD’s Toolbox for Recovery

B. Using the Toolbox to Meet Housing Needs

C. CDBG-DR: Using the Toolbox to Meet Economic and Other Development Needs

D. HUD’s Role in the Overall Federal Response

III. Best Practices and Lessons Learned

IV. Conclusion

Notes
Chapter 3
Beyond the Stafford Act: A Human Rights Approach to Disaster Policy . . . . . 53
Eric Tars and Catherine Galitzine
I. Introduction .............................................................. 54
II. International Human Rights Law in the United States ....................... 55
   A. Domestic Legal Effect of International Human Rights Law ........... 55
   B. Using International Human Rights Law in Domestic Courts ....... 57
   C. Using International Human Rights Law in Policy Advocacy .......... 57
III. Using International Human Rights Law to Defend the Housing Rights of Internally Displaced Persons .................................... 58
   A. Introduction to Human Rights of Internally Displaced Persons ... 58
   B. General Principles .................................................. 60
   C. Rights in Planning for Displacement .................................. 67
   D. Rights during Displacement ........................................... 68
   E. Rights after Displacement ............................................. 73
IV. Case Study: Using Human Rights Standards and Processes to Advance
    Housing Rights of Internally Displaced People in Post–Katrina
    New Orleans ............................................................ 75
   A. Engaging with the Human Rights System: Advocacy with the Human Rights Committee, 2005–2006 ............................. 75
   B. Building Momentum and Empowering Victims on an International Stage: Working with the Committee on Elimination of Racial Discrimination, 2007–2008 ............................. 77
   C. Visits from Human Rights Monitors: Specific Recommendations and Increased Visibility, 2008–2009 ............................. 79
   D. Putting Housing Rights in Context: 2010 Universal
      Periodic Review ....................................................... 81
V. Conclusion ................................................................... 83
Notes ............................................................................ 85

Chapter 4
Equity in Disasters: Civil and Human Rights Challenges in the Context of Emergency Events ......................................................... 91
Jacqueline Patterson
I. Introduction ................................................................ 91
II. A Post-Disaster Equity Framework ................................... 92
III. Preexisting Community Vulnerabilities ............................... 93
IV. Socio-cultural Impacts of Disaster Cripple Families and Cause
    Irreversible Community Changes .................................... 94
V. Housing .................................................................... 96
VI. Employment .............................................................. 98
VII. Community Infrastructure ........................................ 99
VIII. Transportation ..................................................... 100
IX. Business .............................................................. 101
X. Redevelopment Following the Disaster ............................ 101
XI. Recommendations .................................................. 102
XII. Conclusion ........................................................... 103
Notes ........................................................................... 104

Chapter 5
Local Government and Interjurisdictional Coordination in
Disaster Response and Recovery ................................. 109
Dina Schlossberg
I. Introduction ............................................................. 109
II. All Disasters Are Local: Roles of Local Government Post-Disaster . 110
III. Local Government Considerations in Disaster Planning, Response, and Recovery ............................................ 111
   A. State of Existing Infrastructure .................................. 112
   B. Size of the Local Jurisdiction .................................... 112
   C. The Beleaguered State of Local Economies .................. 113
   D. Vulnerable and At-Risk Populations .......................... 113
IV. Planning and Cooperation among Local Governments ........ 116
   A. Continuity of Operations / Continuity of Government Plans . 116
   B. Mutual Aid Compacts ............................................. 116
   C. Council of Governments as Facilitating Disaster Recovery. 117
V. State and Local Government Interaction .......................... 118
VI. Federal Support for Local Government Response .............. 120
   A. Public Assistance Program ....................................... 120
   B. Community Development Block Grant—Disaster Recovery . 121
VII. Local Government Framework for Long-Term Recovery .......... 122
VIII. Challenges: Inclusive, Long-term Planning in the Midst of Disaster . 123
IX. Opportunity: Building Stronger Communities Post-Disaster .... 124
   A. East Grand Forks, Minnesota ..................................... 125
   B. Greensburg, Kansas ............................................... 126
X. Conclusion ............................................................. 127
Notes ........................................................................... 128

Chapter 6
The Role of Nonprofits and Religious Organizations in Emergency Response ..................................................... 133
Brenda Bratton Blom (with contribution by Woody Widrow)
I. Introduction ............................................................. 133
II. Turbulence on the Rise and Community Resilience ............ 134
Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. Community</td>
<td>135</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Resilience</td>
<td>136</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. Emergency Housing Post-Disaster</td>
<td>137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. The Paradigm and Critical Orientations</td>
<td>137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. International Lessons</td>
<td>137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. The Role of Nonprofit Organizations</td>
<td>139</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. National and International Nonprofits</td>
<td>139</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Local Nonprofit Initiatives</td>
<td>143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V. The Role of Religious Organizations</td>
<td>146</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. National Religious Organizational Response</td>
<td>146</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Local Religious Organizations Respond</td>
<td>147</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VI. Innovations Post-Disaster</td>
<td>149</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Portable Individual Development Accounts: Supporting</td>
<td>150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Individual and Community Assets after Major Disasters</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VII. Best Practices and How Attorneys Can Make a Difference</td>
<td>156</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Emergency Preparedness and Coordination</td>
<td>156</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Common Platforms</td>
<td>158</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Communication</td>
<td>158</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. Reflection</td>
<td>159</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VIII. Conclusion</td>
<td>159</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>160</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Part 2

Economic Recovery                                165

Chapter 7

The 9/11 Attack on America and Lessons on How to Rebuild a Mixed-Use Business District                                           167

Richard M. Froehlich

I. Introduction                                              167

II. Downtown: The History and Base Case                        168

III. Building the World Trade Center Towers and Battery Park City 169

IV. Impact of 9/11 on Housing and Community Economic Development  170

V. Creation of Lower Manhattan Development Corporation         171

VI. Case Example: Federal Recovery Funds                       172

VII. Specific Aid for Transit, Small Businesses, and Economic Development 174

VIII. Voluntary Charitable Giving                              175

IX. Liberty Zone Tax Benefits and Liberty Bonds                176

X. Rebuilding at Ground Zero: Commercial Space, Arts, the Memorial, and Museum 177
Contents

III. The Federal Response ......................................................... 219
IV. Texas’s Initial Response: Inequities and Long Delays ................. 221
V. Legal and Community-Based Strategies .................................. 225
   A. State-Level Advocacy ..................................................... 225
   B. Local Advocacy ......................................................... 230
VI. Nuts and Bolts of Section 3 Law .............................................. 237
VII. Lessons Learned .............................................................. 240
VIII. Conclusion ........................................................................ 242
Notes ...................................................................................... 243

Chapter 11
Public Housing Post-Disaster: To Rehabilitate or Replace? ............... 249
Michael H. Reardon and Nathaniel S. Cushman
I. Introduction ........................................................................... 249
II. An Introduction to the “Big Four”: The Housing Authority of New Orleans Confronts Hurricane Katrina ......................... 250
III. Rehabilitating Public Housing ............................................... 251
   A. Disaster under the Stafford Act: The Public Assistance Program .. 252
   B. Non–Stafford Act Disaster: HUD Funds for Emergency Capital Needs ................................................................. 254
IV. Demolition and Disposition of Public Housing ......................... 255
   A. Section 18 General Requirements for Demolition or Disposition .. 256
   B. Section 18 Requirements Specific to Dispositions ...................... 257
   C. Section 18 Requirements Specific to Demolitions ...................... 258
   D. Special Guidance for Exigent Cases, Including Disasters .......... 259
V. Programmatic Options for Redevelopment of Public Housing ....... 259
   A. Disposition in Support of Mixed-Finance Development ............ 260
   B. The HOPE VI Program and the Choice Neighborhoods Initiative .. 262
   C. The Rental Assistance Demonstration Program ......................... 263
VI. Issues in Public Housing Rehabilitation and Replacement ........ 265
   A. One-for-One Replacement Requirement ............................... 265
   B. Fair Housing, Deconcentration, and Site and Neighborhood Standards ................................................................. 267
VII. Conclusion ........................................................................... 268
Notes ...................................................................................... 268

Chapter 12
Locked Out and Torn Down: Public Housing Post–Hurricane Katrina .... 275
Bill Quigley and Sara H. Godchaux
I. Introduction ........................................................................... 275
II. Low-Income Housing in New Orleans Pre–Hurricane Katrina ...... 277
III. Public Housing in New Orleans Pre–Hurricane Katrina .............. 278
IV. Hurricane Katrina Damage to Public Housing ............................. 280
V. Political Response to Damaged Public Housing ................. 281
VI. What Happened to Public Housing Residents during and after Hurricane Katrina: An Unequal Opportunity to Return ....... 282
VII. Response of HUD ..................................................... 285
    A. Demolition or Rehabilitation? .................................. 286
    B. Consultation and Offer to Residents .............................. 286
    C. The Failures of the Federal Demolition Procedure ............. 287
VIII. Litigation to Reopen Public Housing ................................. 288
IX. Low-Income Housing in New Orleans 2012 ......................... 289
X. Conclusion .............................................................. 293
Notes ............................................................................. 294

Part 4
Community Resilience: Challenges and Opportunities. ............... 301

Chapter 13
Wolf at the Door: Protecting Homeowners from Predatory Housing
Activities in the Wake of Disaster ............................................. 303
Kate Titford and Rutledge Simmons
I. Introduction ................................................................. 303
II. Challenges of the Post-Disaster Environment ......................... 304
III. Predatory Housing Transactions in the Wake of Disaster .......... 306
    A. Contractor Fraud ..................................................... 307
    B. Insurance Fraud .................................................... 308
    C. Government Relief Scams ........................................... 308
    D. Mortgage Fraud ..................................................... 310
    E. Affiliation with Government Entities ............................. 310
IV. After the Storm: Ways to Protect Homeowners from Financial Predators after Disasters ................................................. 310
    A. Consumer Education and Outreach ............................... 311
    B. Presence of High-Capacity Service Providers in the Post-Disaster Vacuum ............................................... 311
    C. Design Programs That Avert Scammers’ Access to Potential Victims ..................................................... 312
    D. Develop Technology That Is Responsive to New Scams ....... 313
    E. State and Federal Enforcement Actions ......................... 313
V. Conclusion ................................................................. 315
Notes ............................................................................. 316
Chapter 14

Housing Choice in Crisis: Short-Term Post–Hurricane Katrina Relief

James H. Perry and Monika Gerhart-Hambrick

I. Introduction .................................................. 319
II. Shelter as Dwelling ......................................... 320
III. Vouchers as Disaster Housing .............................. 321
   A. Katrina Disaster Housing Assistance Program .......... 322
IV. “I’m Not Racist, but Whites Only” ........................ 324
V. Compounding Burdens: People with Disabilities ............ 327
VI. Sex Discrimination ....................................... 330
VII. No Se Puede ............................................... 333
VIII. Recommendations ..................................... 336
Notes .................................................................... 339

Chapter 15

Disasters’ Long-Term Impact on Fair Housing: Rebuilding as an Engine to Perpetuate or Challenge Entrenched Segregation

Morgan Williams and Nisha Arekapudi

I. Introduction .................................................. 345
II. Recent Post-Disaster Redevelopment Programs on the Gulf Coast and the Perpetuation of Entrenched Patterns of Segregation .......... 347
   A. Road Home Program ..................................... 347
   B. Gulf Opportunity Zone Tax Credit Program ............ 350
   C. Redevelopment of Public Housing ....................... 353
   D. Disaster Housing Assistance Program .................. 356
III. Fair Housing Law Mandates That Post-Disaster Redevelopment Programs Employ Federal Housing Funds to Promote Integration ............................................. 357
   A. Practices Needed to Ensure Post-Disaster Redevelopment Occurs in a Manner That Furthers Fair Housing Choice ............ 360
   B. Policies Needed to Counteract Identified Barriers to Fair Housing Choice ............................................. 362
   C. Enforcement Techniques Available to Challenge Post-Disaster Redevelopment Plans That Do Not Further Fair Housing Choice ............................................. 364
IV. Conclusion .................................................. 366
Notes .................................................................... 366
Chapter 16
Innovative Post-Disaster Community-Based Housing Strategies. . . . . . . 371
Diane Glauber and David Zisser

I. Introduction ............................. 371
II. Barriers to Rebuilding .................. 372
   A. Exclusionary Zoning ................ 372
   B. Government Programs ............... 373
   C. Private-Sector Barriers ............. 374
   D. Planning Problems .................. 375
III. Community-Based Strategies .......... 375
   A. Community Land Trusts ............. 376
   B. Developing Vacant and Blighted Properties ... 379
   C. Volunteer Construction Model ....... 380
   D. Title Clearing ........................ 383
IV. Lessons Learned ........................ 385
Notes ...................................... 386

Chapter 17
Disaster as a Catalyst for Collaboration and Innovation: Workforce
Development in Mississippi Following Hurricane Katrina. ............ 391
Ed Sivak

I. Introduction ............................. 391
II. Case Examples ......................... 392
   A. Hurricane Katrina Damage Estimates ... 392
   B. Workforce Development before Hurricane Katrina ... 394
   C. After Katrina: The First Weeks of Recovery .......... 395
   D. National Emergency Grant Program ... 396
   E. Temporary Jobs ........................ 397
   F. Workforce Training: Mississippi Gulf Coast .... 398
   G. Workforce Training in Rural Areas .......... 399
   H. Women in Construction Program .......... 400
III. Lessons Learned ....................... 401
   A. Do Not Waste a Crisis ............... 401
   B. Hierarchy of Needs Matters .......... 401
   C. Supportive Services Matter—Particularly for Low-Income Families ............... 402
   D. Nonprofits Have a Role to Play—Yet Scale Remains a Challenge ... 402
IV. Conclusion ............................. 402
Notes ...................................... 403

Resources ................................ 405
Federal Government Resources ............... 405
Tools You Can Use ........................ 405
Consumer Financial Protection Bureau ........................................ 406
Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) .................. 406
Internal Revenue Service ...................................................... 407
Small Business Administration (SBA) ............................... 408
U.S. Department of Agriculture .......................................... 408
U.S. Department of Commerce Economic Development
Community Development Block Grants-Disaster ..................... 409
U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) ... 409
Tribal Governments .............................................................. 412
Evaluations of Federal Support Post-Disaster ......................... 413
International Human Rights Law ......................................... 415
Tools You Can Use ............................................................ 415
For Further Reading ......................................................... 415
Equitable Recovery ............................................................ 416
Tools You Can Use ............................................................ 416
For Further Reading ......................................................... 417
State Government Resources .............................................. 418
Local Government Resources .............................................. 418
Nonprofit and Religious Organizations .................................. 419
Emergency Housing .......................................................... 420
Fair Housing ........................................................................ 420
Public Housing ..................................................................... 421
Predatory Financial Transactions .......................................... 423
Small Businesses ................................................................. 423
Workforce Development ...................................................... 423
Centers and Think Tanks ..................................................... 424
Select Disaster-Specific Recovery Resources ......................... 425
New York City Post–9/11 ..................................................... 425
2005 Hurricane Katrina .................................................... 425
2008 Texas Hurricanes ..................................................... 426
2008 Iowa Storms ............................................................. 428
2010 BP Oil Spill ............................................................... 429
2012 Hurricane Sandy ....................................................... 430
Index .................................................................................. 433