

Contents

Introduction	xix
About the Curator and Editor	xxiii

PART I SELF-AWARENESS

CHAPTER 1

Being the Happiest, Most Effective Lawyer You Can Be 3

Larry Krieger

Getting Started and Avoiding Obstacles	4
The Research on the Best, the Happiest, and the Most Professional Lawyer You Can Be	4
What Do We Mean by a “Happy Lawyer”?	5
The Surprising Findings: What Actually Makes Lawyers Happy?	6
How to Increase Lawyer Happiness Factors in Your Life Right Now	7
1. Integrity/Authenticity	7
2. Relatedness to Others	10
3. Competence and Motivation, the Third Key to Well-Being	11
4. One More Critical Contributor: Autonomy Support	14
Would You Like to Drop Your Level of Stress Immediately?	17
A Single Guiding Principle to Understand Your Needs and Become Your Best	19
Appendix: Additional Well-Being Factors	19

CHAPTER 2

Lawyering as a Spiritual Path 21

Elizabeth Bader

Working with Human Nature: A Lawyer’s Difficult Task	22
The Crisis in the Profession as a Spiritual Crisis	22
A Life of Balance?	23
Stuck on “ON”?	23

The Importance of Spiritual and Reflective Practices	23
Meditation	23
Reflective Inquiry	24
Rethinking Ambition	24
Community and Connection	25
Conclusion	25
CHAPTER 3
Mindful Lawyering	27
Professor Nathalie Martin
Defining Mindfulness	29
The Science of Stress	29
The Science of Mindfulness	30
Putting Meditation and Yoga in the Broader Context of Mindfulness	30
Practicing Easy Mindfulness	32
1. Basic Breath Mindfulness Practice	32
2. Five-Count Breathing or Square Breathing	33
3. Variation on Lion's Breath Yoga Pose	33
4. Deep Belly Breathing	34
5. Other Light Mindful Practices	34
Major Mindfulness: Formal Meditation Practice	34
Meditation on an Object	35
Mantra Practice	35
Developing Your Practice	38
Conclusion	39
CHAPTER 4
Transform Lawyer Well-Being into a Team Sport	41
Anne Brafford, Esq., MAPP
1. Develop Effective Leaders	43
2. Cultivate the Experience of Meaningful Work	43
3. Cultivate Cultures in Which Lawyers Feel Valued and Valuable	45
Behaviors to Stop Doing	47
Behaviors to Start or Keep Doing	47
4. Expand Lawyers' Sense of Control and Autonomy	47
Conclusion	50
CHAPTER 5
Using Emotional Intelligence to Promote Lawyer Wellness	51
Dr. Larry Richard, Esq., PhD
How Can You Use These Skills to Improve Your Own Wellness?	55

CHAPTER 6
Resilient and Ready	59
Paula Davis-Laack, JD, MAPP
Why the Legal Profession Needs Resilience	60
1. The Legal Profession Is Different, and It's Changing	60
2. Well-Being Decreases in Law School and Continues to Decrease in Practice	60
3. Stress and Burnout Are Real Challenges in the Law	61
How to Build Resilience	62
F: Flexible, Accurate, and Thorough Thinking	62
O: Other People Matter	63
C: Connecting to Something Bigger	63
U: Utilize Positive Emotions	64
S: Self-Care	65
The Benefits of a Resilience Approach	65
Resilience Works	66
1. Success in the Legal Profession	66
2. Success in the Military	66
3. Success with Adults Generally	67
CHAPTER 7
The Lawyer in the Lotus	69
Professor Nathalie Martin
Introduction to Yoga: More Than Just Pretzel Poses	70
Yoga's Practical Applications	71
How Yoga Has Changed in Recent Years	72
Your Yoga Practice: Getting in Touch with the Body	73
Choosing a Yoga Practice or Class	73
Stealth Yoga around the Office	74
Upright Not Uptight	74
Take a Walk on the Wild Side	75
Develop Your Inner Desk Dog	75
Twist and Shout	75
Hip Hip Hooray	76
Do Something Fishy	76
Lift Exhaustion and Your Legs	77
Sigh It Out with Lion's Breath	77
Conclusion	78
CHAPTER 8
Healthy Brands Win	79
Katy Goshtasbi, JD
Healthy Brand Presence	80
Who Are You?	80
Support	81
Stress and Self-Confidence	81
Healthy Brand Message	82
Process in Action: Example from the Trenches	82
Conclusion	83

PART II SELF-MANAGEMENT

CHAPTER 9
Increasing Well-Being	87
Diane Costigan, MA
Self-Sabotage: What Is It and How Does It Show Up?	88
Why Is Self-Sabotage So Hard to Overcome?	89
“A-D-O-P-T” a New Approach—Five Steps to Breaking Free from Self-Sabotage	90
Step One: Awareness	91
Step Two: Diagnose	92
Step Three: Objective	93
Step Four: Plan	94
Step Five: Take Action	97
Best Practices	99
Beware of the Push-Through Period, Backsliding, and Resistance	99
CHAPTER 10
Your Best Career Path	103
Rachelle J. Canter, PhD
1. Make an Informed Choice	104
2. Don’t Let Your Stories about Your Career Hold You Back	104
3. Manage Your Career—Don’t Delegate It	105
4. Create a Career Plan to Guide Career Moves and Choices	105
5. Build Your Employability	106
6. Build Your Brand	106
7. Take Small Steps to Create Momentum	107
8. Keep Your Brand Up to Date	107
9. Cultivate Emotional Intelligence	107
10. Conduct Periodic Reviews to Ensure You Are Still on the Right Path	108
Summary	109
CHAPTER 11
Professional Success and Maintaining Personal Well-Being	111
Steven Meyers, Esq.
The Billable Hour: The Bane of Our Existence	112
Business Development	115
Winning at All Costs	116
CHAPTER 12
Financial Impacts on Health and Well-Being	119
Edward Poll, JD, MBA, CMC

CHAPTER 13
Using Stress to Your Advantage	125
Eva Selhub, MD
What Is Stress?	126
The Stress Response	126
The Real Problem with Stress	127
The Key to Resilience: Managing Stress	127
Old Habits Die Hard	128
Stopping the Cycle and Using Stress to Your Advantage	129
1. Pause, Breathe, Listen	129
2. Redirect the Focus to Positive Expectation	130
3. Move Your Body	130
4. Food Is Your Fuel	131
5. Make Time for Rest and Recovery	131
6. Play Has a Pay-Off	131
Jack's Turn-Around	132
Use Stress So It Doesn't Use You	132
CHAPTER 14
What You Need to Know to Nourish Yourself	135
Felicia D. Stoler, DCN, MS, RDN, FACS, FAND
Disease Prevention	136
The Dietary Guidelines for Americans	137
Getting Your Nutrients from the Food Supply	137
Family Matters	139
Planning/Shopping	139
Just Do It!	140
Sports Nutrition: Before, During, and After	140
Hydration	140
Magic Pills, Potions, and Bars	141
Fad Diets	141
Online Resources	141
CHAPTER 15
Well-Being and Physical Exercise	143
John Mitchell, Esq., MBA
The Physical Benefits of Exercise	144
Practice Tips	145
The Impact of Physical Fitness on Our Mental State	146
Practice Tips	147
The Connection between Physical Fitness and Our Emotional State	147
Practice Tips	148
Finding Spiritual Answers through Physical Activity	148
Practice Tips	150
A Word of Caution	150
Conclusion	150

CHAPTER 16
Psychological Capital and Lawyer Success	151
Martha Knudson, JD, MAPP
PsyCap: Mental Strength and Flexibility for New Lawyers	152
Building Lawyer PsyCap	153
1. Improve Self-Efficacy	153
2. Cultivate Hope	154
3. Develop Resilience	155

CHAPTER 17
Leveraging Coaching for Greater Well-Being	159
Anne Collier, MPP, JD, PCC
Know Yourself in Order to Better Self-Manage	160
Use Your Strengths to Follow Your Passion	162
Compassion for Yourself and Others	162
A Coach Can Help You Create the Support You Need	163
A Coach Can Help You Improve Communication	164

PART III ENGAGEMENT

CHAPTER 18
Providing Exceptional Client Service	167
Micah Solomon
1. Clients Judge You Based on What They Know	168
2. Don't Benchmark Other Law Firms' Client Service	168
3. Shelve Your Legal Skills When It Comes to Resolving Client Problems	168
4. Faster Service Wins the Day	168
5. Fees Must Be Appropriate and Appropriately Presented	169
6. Every Hello and Goodbye Must Be Perfect	169
7. Recognition Is the Master Stroke of Exceptional Client Service	169
Putting Principles into Action	169
The Red Bench Principle	170
Conclusion	171

CHAPTER 19
Smart Collaboration for Greater Well-Being	173
Dr. Heidi K. Gardner
Introduction	174
Commitment and Belonging	174
Goal Alignment	175
Meaning and Mastery	176
Less Tangible Rewards for the Seasoned Collaborator	176
How to Foster Employee Productivity and Loyalty	177
Conclusion	179

CHAPTER 20
The Importance of Diversity and Inclusion for Attorney Wellness	181
Dean Joan R. M. Bullock
The Value of Difference	184
The Value of Staying True to Your Self-Identity	185
The Importance of Fit	186
The Importance of Relationships	187
CHAPTER 21
Transferring Wisdom with the Dual-Centric Millennial Mindset	189
Phyllis Weiss Haserot
Understanding What Young Professional Talent Wants	190
Cross-Generational Solutions	191
How Mutual Mentoring and Circles Help All Generations	191
Mutual Mentoring across the Generations	192
Implementing Alternate Styles of Mentoring	192
Seven Self- and Career-Development Tactics for Cross-Generational Conversation	193
Further Resources	194
CHAPTER 22
Happiness and Pro Bono Legal Service	195
Julie LaEace, Esq.
Charles Johnson	197
Leon Smallwood	199
CHAPTER 23
Bar Association Volunteerism	201
K. William Gibson, Esq.
CHAPTER 24
You Can Too	205
Linda Alvarez, Esq.
In Precedent We Trust	206
No Emotions Allowed	206
Power of the Heart	207
Integrity: What Is It? And Why Is It Important?	207
Know Thyself and To Thine Own Self Be True	207
Lodestar	208
Your Vision	208
Your Mission	208
Values and Principles / Constraints and Imperatives	209
Obliquity	209
Integrity and Innovation	210
Trustworthiness and Accountability	210
You Can Too	211

CHAPTER 25
Integrative Law	213
J. Kim Wright, Esq.
Introduction to Integrative Law	214
Individual Evolution Leading to Systemic Evolution	215
Responding to the Tripartite Crisis: Something Is Wrong Here!	216
Reflecting on Self, Relationships, the Profession	217
Purpose and Values	218
Thinking Systemically	218
Harbingers of a New Cultural Consciousness and Leaders in Social Evolution	219
Integrative Law in Action: Becoming the Changemakers	219
Restorative Justice	220
Collaborative Practice	221
Problem-Solving Courts	222
Sharing Law	222
Earth Law	223
Values-Based Contracts	223
Engaging Challenges	224
CHAPTER 26
Heal the System, Heal Thyself	225
Marguerite Picard, Esq.
Victim Blaming? Don't Let It Feel That Way	226
Pushing against the Status Quo	226
Adversarial Systems and Problem Solving: Incompatible Bedfellows?	226
The Search for Truth: Unstable Bedrock	227
Litigating Your Values out of Existence?	228
Collaboration and Mediation as the Antidote	228
The Well-Being Bonuses	229
The Denounced Billable Hour	229
The Health Downsides of the Billable Hour	229
Opting for Change?	230
Artificial Intelligence (AI) and New Law: A Tool for Good Systems, Old and New	230

CHAPTER 27
The Lawyer's Oath	233
Cheryl L. Conner, MAE, JD
Faneuil Hall	234
The Lawyer's Oath	234
Duty	236
The Old State House and James Otis	236
The Arts and Mercy Otis Warren	237
The Los Angeles County Registry of Voting	237
Stewarding Democracy	238
The Declaration of Independence, Philadelphia, 1776	238
AFTERWORD
Risky Business	241
Louise Phipps Senft, Esq.
Index	251