DANIELLE DAVISROE

Passionate about remote learning, Danielle is the force behind Affinity's membership training program, Affinity Insight. Danielle focuses on creating easily accessible training materials and webinars tailored to meet each organization's needs. From one-on-one training to organization-wide training plans, Danielle has her clients covered.

When Danielle isn't providing remote training, she focuses on teaching CLE via webinar and providing legal organizations with the advice they need to run smoothly. With a background practicing law at a boutique firm, Danielle understands the challenges that legal professionals face every day.
