Acknowledgments

The Section of State and Local Government Law continues to lead in producing a vast array of educational content with valuable, practical, and intellectually challenging information on the most recent developments in land use law. This series, At the Cutting Edge, is an integral part of the total effort, which includes teleconferences, meetings, newsletters, our website, the book publishing program, and our preeminent publication, The Urban Lawyer.

The Section has been led by a series of outstanding chairs. Those leaders, key to the Section’s much-acclaimed success, include our present chair, W. Andrew Gowder, Jr., and past chairs Mary Kay Klimesh, Edwin P. Voss, Jr., Donna J. Pugh, Adriane J. Dudley, Benjamin E. Griffith, Edward J. Sullivan, Patricia E. Salkin, and Tom Roberts. The hardworking substantive committees of the Section are the main producers of the articles in this volume. Those committees report each year on recent developments. The Content Coordinator, Martha (Marti) Chumbler; CLE Director, David Hartman; Publications Director, Ronald J. Kramer; and Special Advisor/Committee Coordinator, Robert J. Thomas, all deserve special recognition for their considerable efforts. The following 2013-2014 committee chairs have all made substantial contributions to the work of their committees, and some of them are represented in this volume as authors and co-authors:

- Electronic Communications Committee, Peter Olson
- Emergency Management/Homeland Security Committee, Lai Sun Yee

At the center of this effort to bring the best information we can to our members is the editor of The Urban Lawyer, Julie M. Cheslik of the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law, and her committed student editors and staff members—an impressive team of 65 people—led this year by Jason Schurke. The Urban Lawyer is the preeminent scholarly periodical on state and local government law. All of the articles in this volume were previously published in The Urban Lawyer. The hard work of editing was all done by the exceptional people at the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law. The officers and members of the Section thank The Urban Lawyer for its exceptional efforts and consistent extraordinary performance on behalf of the Section’s educational mission.

Finally, our thanks to Tamara Edmonds Askew, our Staff Director, and ABA Publications for supporting our work in countless ways.
