Praise for the first edition of

Contract Drafting: Powerful Prose in Transactional Practice

By Lenné Eidson Espenschied

“A terrific resource. Even seasoned practitioners will learn something new with each read. The case studies are an especially effective training tool.”
— Bruce Taten, Senior Vice President and General Counsel, Cooper Industries plc

“There is a real need for a practical guide to transactional drafting. Lenné Espenschied has written a very well organized ‘how to’ guide for new and experienced lawyers that provides practical techniques and the theories behind the techniques. I feel certain this will be a valuable resource for any transactional lawyer.”
— Mark D. Wasserman, Managing Partner, Sutherland Asbill & Brennan LLP

“I loved this book. It’s a resource that is both practical and provocative and now has a place of honor on my desk! I have had several “aha!” moments when reading this book, and look forward to many more.”
— Lizanne Thomas, Partner-in-Charge, Atlanta office, Jones Day

“This book should find its way into the hands of every business executive and his or her ‘deal lawyer.’ It is practical, easy to read, and understandable. When these simple guidelines are followed, we can expect a better working document, even for the most complex transactions.”
— Jane O. Salter, Chief Financial Officer, Global Tower Partners

“Finally someone has created a concise, easy to use hornbook for legal drafting instead of legal writing, and has paid attention to the needs of the client instead of the needs of the professional ego . . . an invaluable resource for those lawyers beginning their transactional practices.”
— Don Manning, former General Counsel, Nextel
