Acknowledgments

This project was initially conceived during the ABA 2009 Spring Meeting in Washington, D.C., when the editors put forward the suggestion to the ABA Publications Committee. This second edition was a result of the great success of the first edition published in 2011, as well as of the continued economic growth of the South America region. This project was made possible thanks to the support and full commitment of the invited country coordinating authors, and we are delighted with the result.

Putting together this publication has called for a great deal of determination and enthusiasm. The work done by each of the country coordinating authors, coauthors, and contributors is acknowledged in each of the chapters. We wish to express our gratitude to each lawyer who contributed to the preparation of this book through the country coordinating authors.

The section’s publications officer, Catherine Doll, and ABA Publishing’s Richard Paszkiet and Kimberly Rosenfield provided invaluable support and contributed enormously from the inception of this book to its publication. In our role as editors, we also enjoyed the full support of other lawyers from our firm, Barretto Ferreira e Brancher–Sociedade de Advogados (BKBG), for the preparation of the chapter on Brazil. A warm thanks to all of them.

The chapters of this book are the result of the hard work, persistence, and cooperation of a highly experienced and skilled team of lawyers. We hope that readers will rely on the content of this guide when considering doing business in South America.
