Contents

About the Editor vii
About the Contributors ix
Introduction xvii
Instructions for Using This Book xix

1 The Hardest Part: Asking for Business 1

§ 1.1 Marketing Is Not a Dirty Word 1
Mark A. Chinn

§ 1.2 Cold Calls and Marketing 19
Carolyn Elefant

§ 1.3 How to Land Your First Client 24
Jennifer Willner

2 Your Rainmaking Team 33

§ 2.1 A Blueprint for Marketing with Staff 33
Robert A. Kraft

§ 2.2 Mining Your Own Client Resources 39
Jeffrey Allen

§ 2.3 How to Cross-Sell to Your Clients 45
Michael P. Hurley

§ 2.4 Positioning Yourself for Referrals 47
Deborah G. Matthews
3 Rainmaking with the Client in Mind  59
§ 3.1 Developing a Strategic Plan to Market Your Law Firm  60
   David Zachary Kaufman

§ 3.2 Make Time for Marketing and Client Care  72
   Barbara Nelson

§ 3.3 Niche Marketing: The Inside Track to Client Development  81
   David Leffler

§ 3.4 Big Game Hunting: The Short Course for High-End Marketing  85
   Robert Zupkus

§ 3.5 Five Essential Steps to Rainmaking in a Really Small Town  89
   Ted A. Waggoner

§ 3.6 How to Market a Legal Research and Writing Practice to Other Lawyers  96
   Lisa Solomon

§ 3.7 How to Market Litigation Support as a Contract Attorney  101
   Tracia Y. Lee

4 Tools of the Trade  107
§ 4.1 Why Lawyers Still Need Business Cards  107
   Penny Umstattd-Cope

§ 4.2 Twitter—It’s Not Just for Kids  112
   Nicole Black

§ 4.3 Leveraging LinkedIn: An Uncomplicated Review and Guide for Lawyers  119
   Debra L. Bruce

§ 4.4 How Technology Can Help You Market Your Practice and Build Client Relationships  131
   Nerino J. Petro

§ 4.5 How to Make Your Bills a Rainmaking Tool  136
   Natalie Robinson Kelly
§ 4.6 Building a Service-Centered Firm  138
Matthew W. Homann

§ 4.7 The Myth and Reality of Volunteerism  142
Jeffrey Allen

5 Making Rainmaking Part of Your Daily Practice  149
§ 5.1 Five Easy Ways to Use Daily Activities as Marketing Tools  149
David J. Abeshouse

§ 5.2 Is Time Spent Rainmaking Time Not Spent Making Money?  158
Frank J. Kautz II

§ 5.3 Setting Goals to Increase and Improve Business  162
Vicki Levy Eskin

§ 5.4 Six Steps to No/Low-Cost Law Firm Marketing Success  167
Cynthia Sharp

§ 5.5 Effortless Marketing: Putting Your Unique Qualities to Work, Second Edition  178
Melanie D. Bragg

6 The Ten Most Common Ethical Rainmaking Mistakes Lawyers Make  193
Barbara Glesner Fines

7 Taxes—Or, How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the IRS  207
Gregory A. Zbylut

8 The Conscious Lawyer: How the Practice of Mindfulness Will Increase Your Bottom Line  217
Melanie D. Bragg