ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There are many people whose work has contributed to helping shape my ideas about bar-exam success and who I note accordingly: first and foremost, my students. It’s all about you. Next, my passlaw.com business partners, Steve Bracci, Craig Gold, and Bruce Landau, who have influenced much of my thinking about teaching and learning; Professor Paul Bergman, the first to support my passion for bar review; the original BarPassers faculty including Steve Bracci, Jack Goetz, Robert Hull, and Laurel Liefert; everyone from Concord Law School (including but not limited to Dean Greg Brandes, Dean Emeritus Barry Currier, Stephen Burnett, Dr. Martha Siegel, Donna Skibbe, as well as the many alumni who have served so generously as bar mentors); to everyone at Kaplan Bar Review; and to Whittier Law School, especially Professor Tina Schindler and Dean Penelope Bryan.
