CONTENTS

Anthology Dedication v

Reflections from the Core vii
   Holly McMahon

Introduction ix
   Jill D. Rhodes
   Harvey Rishikof

Section I. The Standing Committee on Law and National Security—Its History and People

Our Mission, Then and Now 3
   Richard E. Friedman 1986–1989

The ABA Standing Committee on Law and National Security:
   Historic Player in the Creation and Development of the Field 9

Considering Current Issues: Standing Committee’s FISA Reform Project 15

National Security Reflections:
   Importance of Culture and the Past as Prologue 19
   Elizabeth Rindskopf Parker 1998–2001

The Gold Standard 25
   Harvey Rishikof 2009–2012
CONTENTS

Section II. Fifty Years of National Security Law—Its Formalization and History

A Brief History of the Field of National Security Law 31
Peter Raven-Hansen, Stephen Dycus, and William C. Banks

U.S. National Security Law and International Law: Links and Implications 41
Nicholas Rostow

The Law of Armed Conflict 49
David E. Graham

The Development of Intelligence Law 61
W. George Jameson and Robert S. Litt

ABA 50th Compilation References 67

References—Selected Topics 70

National Security and Civil Liberties 77
Kate A. Martin and Joel F. Brenner

Military Justice 83
John D. Altenburg, Jr.

Due Process and Terrorism 101
Amos N. Guiora and Laurie R. Blank

The Impact of Technology on National Security Law 115
Angeline Chen and Clark Walton

Final Thoughts and Considerations for the Upcoming Decades 135
Jill D. Rhodes

Section III. Acknowledgments

Acknowledgments 139

Section IV. Biographies

Biographies 141

Notes 153