CONTENTS

About the Authors ........................................................................................................... xi
Acknowledgments ............................................................................................................. x
About the ABA Commission on Homelessness & Poverty ................................. xi
Introduction ...................................................................................................................... xii

Chapter I
Issues of Homelessness and Education: Causes and Consequences ............... 3

Chapter II
Who is Eligible for Protections and Services under the McKinney-Vento Act? Issues of Definitions ................................................................. 7

Chapter III
Who Has Primary Responsibility for Implementing the McKinney-Vento Act? .......................................................... 11
  Office of the State Coordinator and State Educational Agency .......... 12
  Local Educational Agency Liaisons ............................................................... 13

Chapter IV
School Responsibilities and Implementation Strategies .................................... 21
  Identification and Outreach to Families and Youth Experiencing Homelessness 21
  Identification ............................................................................................................. 21
  Notice ....................................................................................................................... 23
  Redetermining Homelessness .............................................................................. 25
  Stability and School Selection .............................................................................. 28
  School of Origin ...................................................................................................... 28
  Transportation ........................................................................................................ 30
  Enrollment .............................................................................................................. 32
  Resolution of Disputes .......................................................................................... 36
  Discrimination and Segregation ........................................................................... 38
  Collaboration with Community Agencies ......................................................... 40
  Providing Education to Students Displaced by Natural Disasters ......... 43
Chapter V
Young Children Without Homes: Creating Access to Early Childhood Education Opportunities through Three Federal Laws
The McKinney-Vento Act and Public Preschool Programs
The Head Start Act and Homeless Children and Families
IDEA: Homeless Infants, Toddlers and Preschoolers with Disabilities

Chapter VI
Youth

Chapter VII
Students Involved in the Child Welfare System (Foster Care)
Fostering Connections to Success and Increasing Adoptions Act
Other Important Laws Related to Foster Care
Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act
College Cost Reduction Act
Higher Education Opportunity Act

Chapter VIII
Students with Disabilities in Homeless Situations:
The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act

CHAPTER IX
Supporting Academic Achievement:
Title I, Part A Requirements

CHAPTER X
From Homelessness to Higher Education:
Financial Aid and College Access
Financial Aid
College Access and Support Programs
NAEHCY Higher Education Helpline
Chapter XI
Relevant Federal Guidance .................................................................93
  Provision of Services for Homeless Students with Disabilities ......93
  Provision of Early Child Care and Education for Homeless Students .............................................94

Chapter XII
Case Summaries .....................................................................................97
  Right to Attend School during Pendency of Appeal ..........97
  Rights of Foster Care Youth ............................................................97
  Removing Barriers to Education ....................................................98
  Residency Issues ............................................................................102
  No Time Limit on Homelessness ...............................................104
  Rights of Students Displaced by Disasters .........................105
  Cause of Homelessness is Irrelevant .........................................105
  Supremacy of the McKinney-Vento Act ...............................106
  Enrollment Issues ........................................................................106

Chapter XIII
You Are Not Alone: Resources for Understanding and Implementing the McKinney-Vento Act ..................109
  Basic McKinney-Vento Implementation .................................109
  Early Childhood Education .........................................................110
  Displaced Students ....................................................................110
  Food and Nutrition ....................................................................110
  Foster Care ................................................................................110
  Higher Education/Financial Aid ..............................................111
  Unaccompanied Youth ...............................................................111
  Technical Assistance and Training ..........................................111

Endnotes ........................................................................................112