CONTENTS

Foreword ......................................................................................... vii
Preface ........................................................................................... ix

Chapter I
History and Overview of Section 8 ...................................................... 1
A. Basic Elements ........................................................................... 2
B. Purpose and History ................................................................. 3
C. Revisions Since Enactment ......................................................... 4
  1. Modifications before 1990: Bank Interlocks ......................... 4
  2. 1990 Amendments .................................................................. 8
     a. Jurisdictional Threshold Increase and Indexing ............... 9
     b. De Minimis Exceptions ..................................................... 10
     c. Coverage of Officers ....................................................... 12
     d. Coverage of Common Carriers ..................................... 12
  3. After the 1990 Amendments .................................................... 13

Chapter II
Common Procedural Issues .............................................................. 15
A. Who is Liable? ........................................................................... 15
   1. Directors and Officers ......................................................... 15
   2. Corporations ......................................................................... 16
   3. Other Entities ................................................................. 19
B. Common Case Postures in Private Litigation .............................. 20
   1. Lawsuit by a Corporation to Prevent an Acquisition or Proxy Fight ... 20
   2. Lawsuit by a Corporation to Remove an Interlocked Director ........ 22
   3. Lawsuits by Shareholders of Interlocked Corporations ........... 23
   4. Lawsuits by Competitors of Interlocked Corporations .......... 24
   5. Lawsuits by Customers and Firms in a Vertical Relationship ....... 26
C. Mootness Issues ......................................................................... 27
D. Standing Issues ........................................................................... 29
   1. General Antitrust Standing Requirements ............................ 30
      a. Requirement of Antitrust Injury to Seek Damages ........... 30
      b. Requirement of Antitrust Injury to Seek Injunctive Relief .... 31
2. Section 8 Standing Requirements .............................................. 33
   a. Standing of One of the Interlocking Corporations ............. 33
   b. Standing of a Competitor to the Interlocked Companies ................................................. 34
   c. Other Standing Issues .......................................................... 34
E. Remedies ..................................................................................... 36
   1. Monetary Damages for Private Plaintiffs.......................... 36
   2. Injunctive Relief for Private Plaintiffs ................................ 37
   3. Injunctive Relief for the DOJ and FTC .............................. 39

Chapter III
Related Enforcement Issues ................................................................. 41
A. Relationship to Section 1 of the Sherman Act ................................. 41
B. Enforcement under Section 5 of the FTC Act .................................. 42
C. Relationship to Section 7 of the Clayton Act ................................ 43
D. Other Interlock Statutes ................................................................... 44
   1. Depository Institutions Management Interlock Act ......... 44
   2. Interstate Commerce Commission Termination Act of 1995 ................................................................................. 45
   3. Federal Power Act ................................................................ 45
   4. Investment Company Act of 1940 ...................................... 46
   5. Federal Alcohol Administration Act .................................. 47
   6. Communications Act of 1934 .............................................. 48

Chapter IV
Tackling Common Questions And Issues ........................................... 49
A. What Is a “Competitor”? .............................................................. 49
B. How Is “Officer” Defined? ............................................................ 56
C. How Is the Phrase “Capital, Surplus, and Undivided Profits” Defined? .......................................................... 56
D. Is There Any Liability When Non-Officer Employees Serve as Directors or Officers of Competing Corporations? ..................... 59
E. I Am an Officer of a Corporation and Also Serve on the Management Committee of an Unrelated LLC. Do I Need to Be Concerned about Whether the Activities of the LLC Compete with My Corporation? ............................................ 62
F. Are Nonprofit Corporate Entities Covered by the Act? .......... 66
G. One of Our Directors Serves as a Director of a Subsidiary to a Competitor. Is That Covered by the Act? How Does Section 8 Apply to Different Corporate Structures? ....................... 67
H. Does Section 8 Apply to Banks? ................................................ 76
I. Does Section 8 Apply to Foreign Corporations? ......................... 78
J. Different Individuals Associated with the Same Organization Sit on the Boards of Competing Corporations. Is This a Problem? ........................................................................................................ 82
   1. Whether the Third Party has an Interest in Limiting Competition ............................................................................................................. 87
   2. Whether the directors or officers represent the interests of the third party .............................................................................................. 88
K. What Issues Should Concern Private Equity Firms and Other Types of Investors Likely to Serve on a Company’s Board of Directors? ............................................................................................ 90
L. Do Foreign Jurisdictions Have Similar Interlock Prohibitions? .................................................................................................................... 94