

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements

Preface

Chapter 1: Context of Mergers and Acquisitions Transactions

Chapter 2: Managing the Client Relationship and Other Ethical Issues

Who Is the Client?

Sell-Side Representation

Buy-Side Representation

Which Side Are You on Now?

Addressing the Conflicts

Obtaining Informed Written Consents

Taking on a New M&A Client

Accepting an M&A Project for an Existing Client

Taking on Multiple Clients

It's Nice to Be Appreciated

I Just Wanted to Help

Other Relationships with the Client

Documenting the Engagement

Identification of the Client

Role of Counsel

Payment for Services

Updating

Communications with the Client

The Attorney-Client Privilege and Similar Protections

Who Holds the Privilege?

Preserving the Privilege

Communication Issues and the Privilege

Negotiation Ethics

Avoiding the Lawyers

Is the Client Lying?

The Opposing Client Makes a Big Mistake

Lawyer Conduct

Practice in other States

Chapter 3: FORMING A TEAM

Background Information

The Client Team

Gatekeepers

Client Specialists

The Law Firm or Law Department Team

Legal Specialists

When to Involve Team Members (Generally Earlier, Not Later)

Obstacles to Working with the Legal Team

Managing the Legal Team

Outside Non-Lawyer Advisors

Types of Advisors

Managing Outside Advisors

Unique Role of In-House Counsel

Understanding the Target

Institutional History and Lessons Learned

Deal Structure

Involvement of In-House Lawyers

Foreign Counsel

When Does a Transaction Have International Ramifications?

Locating Foreign Counsel

Engaging Foreign Counsel

Managing the Engagement

Role of Foreign Counsel

Differing Roles of Professionals

Local and Special Counsel

APPENDIX 3-A: Time and Responsibility Schedule

APPENDIX 3-B: Selected Issues Arising from the International Character of a Transaction

Chapter 4: Dealing with Other Constituencies

Employees

Severance Issues and Resulting Liability

Retaining/Binding Key Employees

Shifting Loyalties

Unions

Employee Benefits and Human Resources

Effective Communication and Confidentiality

Customers and Suppliers

When to Notify

Who Bears the Risk of Lost Relationships?

Other Contracting Parties

Anti-assignment and “Change Of Control” Clauses

Letting Sleeping Dogs Lie

Creditors

Treatment of Creditors

Duties to Creditors—In the Vicinity of Insolvency

Communities and Charities

Chapter 5: Planning for a Sale

Conducting a Presale Examination

Assessing the Need for and Finding an Intermediary

Types of Intermediaries

Factors to Consider

Finding an Intermediary

Terms of the Engagement

Marketing Materials

Counsel’s Role

Content of the Book

Employee Retention Arrangements

Stay Bonuses

Severance Arrangements

Tax Considerations

The Type of Buyer

Understanding a Seller's Motivation

Selling to Employees

Selling to a Third Party

Chapter 6: EMBARKING ON THE SALE PROCESS

Selecting the Method of Sale

Identifying Potential Buyers

Identifying Potential Sellers

Maintaining Confidentiality

Maintaining Confidentiality of the Deal

Maintaining Confidentiality of Shared Information

The Negotiated Sale

The Controlled Auction

Roles of the Participants

Identifying Potential Bidders

Contacting Prospects

Soliciting Indications of Interest

Narrowing the Prospects

Selecting a Buyer

APPENDIX 6-A: Letter Soliciting Indications of Interest

APPENDIX 6-B: Letter Regarding Facility Visit, Data Room Visit, and Review of Accountants' Workpapers

Chapter 7: Understanding Accounting Principles, Financial Statements, and Business Valuation

Accounting Principles and Financial Statements

Accounting for Business Combinations

Financial Statements

Notes to Financial Statements

Accounting Terminology

Working Capital, Current Ratio, and Net Worth

Accruals and Deferrals

Depreciation and Amortization

Financially Oriented Provisions

Purchase Price Adjustments and Earnouts

Representations

Valuing a Business

Going Concern Value

Valuation Methodologies

Valuation in the Appraisal Rights Context

APPENDIX 7-A: Litigation and other Contingencies

Chapter 8: Negotiating the Deal

Acquiring Background Information

Negotiating the Price

The Parties and Their Representatives

Personalities

Client Priorities

Internal Factors Affecting Price

External Factors Affecting Price

Closing Price Adjustments or True-Ups

Earnouts

Negotiating the Structure

Substance of the Transaction

Stock vs. Assets

Nature of the Buyer

Legal Form of the Target

Form of Consideration

The Speed of the Transaction

Psychology of the Transaction

Existing Impressions

Liabilities of the Target

Ownership of Assets

Financing

Guaranties

Existing Agreements

Substantive Law Issues

Other Regulatory Issues

Successor Liability

Letters of Intent

Deciding Whether to Use a Letter of Intent

Terms to Include in a Letter of Intent

Chapter 9: Pacing the Deal and Negotiation Impediments

The Pace of the Deal

Negotiating Impediments and the Human Element

Your Team

Difficult Counsel on the Other Side

The Obstreperous Client

Chapter 10: Conducting Due Diligence

General Observations

The Objective of Due Diligence

Technology Advances: Virtual Data and Deal E-Rooms

Due Diligence in a Nutshell

Factors Affecting the Extent of Due Diligence

Game Theory and Due Diligence

Professional Risks in the Due Diligence Process

Sell-Side Due Diligence

Risks to A Seller

Objectives and Strategies of A Seller

Seller's Presale Due Diligence

Putting Together the Data Room/Responding to a Due Diligence Request

Running the Data Room

Coordination of Seller's Due Diligence/Preparation of Schedules

Buy-Side Due Diligence

Risks to a Potential Buyer

Objectives and Strategies

Initiating the Due Diligence Process

The Due Diligence Team

Assembling the Team

Agreeing on the Objective

Communications

The Due Diligence Checklist

Properly Tailoring the Due Diligence Checklist

Pre-Visit Requests Regarding the Data Room

The Response to the Due Diligence Request

The Data Room Visit

Reviewing Documents (in the Office or the Data Room)

Management Presentations and Site Visits

The Review Process: Next Steps

The Due Diligence Report

The Result of the Process

What Happens After the Due Diligence Report Is Made?

Continuing Due Diligence

Review Of Disclosure Schedules

Post-Signing Due Diligence

Post-Closing Due Diligence

APPENDIX 10-A: Data Room Procedures

Chapter 11: Preparing the Acquisition Agreement and Related Documents

Understanding the Client's Objectives

Preparing the Agreement

Who Prepares the First Draft?

Sources of Precedent

Preparing the First Draft

Deciding on the Approach

Arranging for Review Before Distribution

Distributing the First Draft

Reviewing and Responding to the First Draft

Blacklining and Other Customs and Courtesies

Negotiating the Agreement

Who Will Negotiate the Terms?

Coordinating the Negotiations

How and Where Negotiations Occur

Resolving Issues

Negotiating Tactics

Iterative Process

How Negotiations Are Broken Off

How Negotiations Are Successfully Concluded

Recurring Issues in an Agreement

The Parties

Conventions

Exceptions and Qualifiers

Representations

Pre-Closing Covenants

Post-Closing Covenants

Conditions

Termination

Remedies

Miscellaneous Provisions

Schedules to the Agreement

Exceptions to the Representations

Approaches to Schedule Preparation

Preparing the Schedules

Establishing General Principles

Delivering the Schedules

Supplementing the Schedules

Related Documents

Third Party Consents or Approvals

Side Letters

Ancillary Agreements

Satisfaction of Additional Obligations

Execution of Documents

Chapter 12: Getting from Agreement to Closing

Avoiding the Post-Signing Let Down

Contemplating the Closing

Practical Issues Not Covered by the Acquisition Agreement

Organizing for the Closing

Conferring with the Client

Covenants

Bridging the Gap—Best Efforts

Access and Due Diligence

Confidentiality

Adjusting the Business Being Purchased

Operational Covenants

Satisfying Closing Conditions

Consents

The SEC Process

HSR Filings

Shareholder Approvals

Real Estate Matters

Financing Contingencies and Dealing with Third Party Funding Sources

Chapter 13: Coping with the Troubled Deal

Walk (Termination) Rights and Limitations

Negotiated Termination Rights

Liability Claims Limited by Contract

Resisting The Assertion of Termination Rights

Judicial Limitations on Contract Remedies

Recourse of the Terminated Party

Assessing Alternatives When a Deal Is Faltering

Formulating Strategy—The Not Yet Failed Deal

Mutual Fault

Preparing for Litigation

Pre-Closing Discovery of a Breach

Discovery by the Breaching Party

Discovery by the Non-Breaching Party

Failed Deal Clean-Up

Communications

What Happens to the Deposit?

Return or Destruction of Documents

Break Up Fees

Chapter 14: Closing the Deal

Planning the Closing Process

Get Ready for Some Fun

Preparation for Closing—The Client

Preparation for Closing—The Other Side

The Closing Agenda

Where's My List?

When Should It Close? The Closing Date and the Timetable

Are You Ready?

Place and Time of Closing

My Place or Yours?

May I Come to Your Party?

Have the Details Been Arranged?

The Pre-Closing

The Cure for the Chaotic Closing

Can We Spend All Week Doing This?

Do We Really Have to Close?

But There Are Still Issues Out There! The Messy Closing

The Closing Itself

A Lawyer's Utopia

Is That All There Is?

The Closing Statement and Alternatives

Does the Closing Statement Matter?

If This Is So Important, Why Wait Until the End?

Is It Binding?

Potential Waiver of Conditions

Mechanics of Closing

Did I Sign That?

All We Need Is Signatures

Paper Clips?

Trust Me

Is That Really Your Signature?

Why Do We Need These Legal Opinions, Anyway?

Was I Supposed to Bring the Money?

Weekends Are for More Than Golf

Facing the Funding Deadline

Is It My Business Now?

Deals Not Ready to Close

This Just Isn't Happening

Who Do You Trust, and for How Long?

Yet Another Agreement to Draft

Non-Legal Aspects of Closings

While You're at It

Common Pitfalls

What Is the Agreement?

APPENDIX 14-A Closing Agenda

Chapter 15: Handling Post Closing Matters

Post-Closing Considerations

Expect the Unexpected

Living with the Deal

Immediate Post Closing Matters

Deal Cubes and Closing Dinners

Closing Documentation Clean Up

Announcements

Post-Closing Filings and Loose Ends

True-Ups

Closing Binders and Files

Longer Term Post-Closing Matters

Implementing Lessons of Due Diligence

Document Retention and E-Discovery

Expiration of Claim Periods and Termination of Escrows

Indemnification and Other Remedies

The Aggrieved Buyer

Preparing the Claim

Responding to the Claim

Third Party Claims

ADR or Litigation

Non-Indemnification Claims

Earnouts

Post-Closing Covenants

Transition-Related Covenants

Covenants That Protect the Value of the Transaction

Transition Services Agreements

Appraisal Proceedings

GLOSSARY

BIBLIOGRAPHY

NOTES