Contents

Foreword .................................................................................................................. ix
About the Authors ............................................................................................ xv

Chapter 1: Overview: The Role of the Board in Corporate Governance ............ 1
What Duties Does a Director Owe? ................................................................. 1
To Whom Does a Director Owe Duties? ......................................................... 3
The Traditional Model and the Focus on Other Constituencies ......................... 5
The Closely Held Corporation ............................................................................ 7

Chapter 2: Structure of the Board ................................................................. 13
Size of the Board and the Terms of Its Members ........................................ 13
Board Composition ......................................................................................... 15
Committees ...................................................................................................... 17
  Permissible Scope of Committee Activity ................................................ 18
  The Audit Committee ................................................................................... 18
  The Compensation Committee ................................................................. 22
  The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee .................................. 24

Chapter 3: Duties and Liabilities of Individual Board Members ...................... 29
Duties of Board Members ............................................................................... 29
  Duty of Loyalty and “Interested” Transactions ........................................ 29
    Duty of Loyalty ......................................................................................... 29
    “Interested” Transactions ....................................................................... 30
    Use of Independent Committees in Conflict Transactions ..................... 31
  Good Faith .................................................................................................... 33
  Duty of Care and Reliance on “Experts” ..................................................... 35
    Duty of Care ............................................................................................. 35
Contents

Reliance on Experts ................................................................. 37

Duties in Exceptional Circumstances ........................................ 41
  Duties in the Face of a Takeover Proposal .............................. 41
  Duties in Connection with the Sale of a Company ................... 44
  Duties During the Conduct of a Proxy Fight or Written Consent Contest ............................................................ 55

Duties to Preferred Shareholders .............................................. 56

The Business Judgment Rule .................................................. 60
  The Nature of the Rule ........................................................ 60
  The Prerequisites for Invoking the Rule ................................. 61

The Delaware Modification of the Rule and Other Approaches to Business Judgment in the Takeover Context ............................................................ 66

Statutory Liabilities of Directors ............................................. 67
  State Statutory Liability ..................................................... 68
  Federal Statutory Liability .................................................. 69
    Liability Under the Federal Securities Laws ....................... 69
    Liability Under the Employee Retirement Income Securities Act (ERISA) .......................................................... 70
    Liability Under the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO) .................................................. 71
    Liability Under the Environmental Laws .......................... 71
    Liability Under Sarbanes-Oxley ........................................ 72

Chapter 4: Dividends .............................................................. 91

Statutory Authority for Payment of Dividends ......................... 91
  Dividends Paid from Surplus ............................................. 92
  Dividends Paid from Profits or “Nimble” Dividends ............... 92
  Dividends of “Wasting Assets” Companies .......................... 93

Applicability of the Business Judgment Rule to Decisions Respecting Dividends .................................................. 93
  The Board Customarily Has Discretion to Set Dividend Policy ........................................................................ 93
  Dividends May Be Made Mandatory ................................... 96

Protections Afforded Reliance on Reports and Books of Corporation in Declaring Dividends ................................................. 96

Valuation of Assets ............................................................. 98

Valuation of Liabilities ......................................................... 101

Payment of Dividends If Sufficient Surplus or Profits Exist ........ 104
Fundamentals of Corporate Governance, 2nd edition

Payment of Dividends Without Current Surplus or Profits... 105
   Reduction of Capital ......................................................... 105
   Revaluing Assets and Liabilities ........................................ 106
Discrimination Among Stockholders Regarding Dividend Payments and Kinds of Payments .................. 106
Rights of Stockholders upon Declaration of a Dividend ....... 107

Chapter 5: Derivative Litigation: Managing a Unique Corporate Asset ............................................. 115
   The Nature of Derivative Litigation .................................. 116
   The Demand Rule ............................................................ 116
   Is Demand “Futile” and Thus Excused? ............................ 118
      Interestedness and Lack of Independence ....................... 118
   Valid Business Judgment .................................................. 120
   Determining Whether Demand Is Excused Where No Business Decision Has Been Made .................. 120
   Where Demand Is Made and Refused, the Stockholder Must Show “Wrongfulness” of the Rejection to Proceed...... 121
   Asserting Control of the Process: The Role of the Presuit Investigation Committee ................................ 121
      The Role of Committee Members .................................. 122
      The Work of the Committee ......................................... 125
   The Role of the Full Board ............................................... 130
   The Role of the Postfiling or Zapata Committee ................. 130
      The Context of the Legal Analysis ................................ 130
      The Work of the Committee ......................................... 132
   Consequences and Pitfalls of Using the Committee Process ........................................................................ 134
      “Structural Bias”—Skeptical Views of the Committee Process ......................................................... 134
      Authority of the Special Committee ............................... 135
      Waiver of the Attorney-Client Privilege ......................... 136
   Uncovering Wrongdoing During the Investigation .............. 137
   Discovery of the Committee’s Work ................................. 139

Chapter 6: Corporate Governance of the “Troubled” Company ......................................................... 149
   Fiduciary Duties of Directors of a Troubled Company ........ 150
      The Expansion of Constituencies Owed
      Fiduciary Duties .......................................................... 150
Contents

Balancing the Competing Interests of the Constituencies
Owed Fiduciary Duties .............................................................. 152

Determination of Insolvency and the Vicinity of Insolvency .................................................................................. 153

Governance in Bankruptcy ................................................................. 156

Formulating the Plan of Reorganization ...................................... 157

Operating the Debtor in Possession .................................................. 159

Recovering the Assets of the Estate ................................................. 160

Fights for Control of the Bankrupt Company ............................... 161

Proxy Fights for Control of the Bankrupt Company ................. 161

Takeover of the Bankrupt Company ............................................. 163

Restructuring Corporate Governance Pursuant to a Reorganization Plan ............................................................. 166

Chapter 7: Governance of Nonprofit Corporations ................. 177

The Purpose of the Nonprofit Corporation and the Duties of Its Directors ......................................................................... 178

Importance of the Corporate Purpose ............................................. 178

What Duties Does the Director of the Nonprofit Corporation Owe? ................................................................................. 180

To Whom Does the Director of a Nonprofit Corporation Owe Duties? ................................................................................. 181

IRS Initiatives to Improve Nonprofit Governance ......................... 182

The “Intermediate Sanctions” Regime .............................................. 182

The New Form 990 Governance Initiative ..................................... 185

Judicial Review of Directors’ Actions ............................................... 188

Standards of Judicial Review of Ordinary Decisions ..................... 188

Accountability of Directors of a Nonprofit Corporation ............. 189

Distinctions Between Charitable Corporations and Charitable Trusts ............................................................................ 191

Conflicts of Interest in Nonprofit Corporations ............................... 191

The Director’s Conflict of Interest .................................................... 192

Judicial Treatment of Conflict Transactions in the Nonprofit Context .............................................................. 192

Cooperatives ................................................................................... 194

Duties of Directors of Cooperative Corporations .......................... 195

Special Governance Considerations ................................................. 196

Chapter 8: Indemnification, Exculpation, and Liability Insurance ..................................................................... 203
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Statutory Indemnification</td>
<td>204</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statutory Provisions</td>
<td>204</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Prerequisites for Indemnification</td>
<td>205</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Status Suits and Public Policy</td>
<td>207</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Contractual Indemnification</td>
<td>209</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Independent Legal Ground</td>
<td>209</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Public Policy</td>
<td>209</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Typical Provisions</td>
<td>210</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Exculpation</td>
<td>212</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statutory Provisions</td>
<td>212</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statutory Limitations on Exculpation</td>
<td>212</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Directors’ and Officers’ Insurance</td>
<td>213</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Need for Insurance</td>
<td>213</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Typical Policy</td>
<td>214</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Exclusions</td>
<td>214</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>After Sarbanes-Oxley</td>
<td>215</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
<td>227</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>