Contents

Introduction vii

CHAPTER ONE
The Search for the Meaning of Value 1
Lawyers and Clients: Perception Is Reality 1
Client Perceptions of Value 2
What Is Value? 3
Conclusion 5

CHAPTER TWO
Ethical Rules and Practices 7
The Basic Rule 7
The Golden Rule 9
Gray Areas 10
Prepaid Fees in Lawyer’s Trust Account 10
Fee Agreements in Writing 11
Mandatory Arbitration 11
Business Interests Received in Payment 12
Conflicts 13
Fee Sharing 13

CHAPTER THREE
Pricing Legal Services 15
Historical Influences on Pricing Legal Services 15
Pricing Before and After Bates 16
Contents

Constraints on the Marketplace 17
The Modern Focus on Value 17

The Value Curve 19
Interpreting the Curve 21
Applications of the Curve 21
Implications of the Curve 23
Using the Value Curve 25

The Value Curve for Main Street Lawyers 26
Commodity Work 26
Brand Name 28
Experiential and Unique 29

Major Issues Regarding Billing Methods 30

CHAPTER FOUR
Using My Current Practice to Plan and Build a Billing Method 33

Self-Assessment Checklist 33
Objectives and Goals 34
Present and Future Market Trends 34
Current Billing Methods 35
Willingness to Try Innovative Billing 35

Determining Cost 36
Retrospective Analysis of Cost as a Guide 36
Cost of Service Versus Value to the Client 37

Knowing Costs Through Accounting 38
Costs 39

A Simple Exercise in Cost Accounting 40
Determining Cost to Produce a Package of Services 41
Task-Based Analysis 42
Examining Closed Files to Create Minisystems and Predict Fees 43
Recurring Variables or Uncertainties 44
Examining Profitability as It Relates to Billing 45
Factors for the Main Street Lawyer 47
Building Billing Methods for Main Street Lawyers 47
Dealing with Unsophisticated Clients 47
The Pricing Structure Can Form the Basis of the Office System 50
I Cannot Do It at That Rate and Make Any Money 52

Conclusion 52

CHAPTER FIVE
Technology and Alternative Billing 55

Technology and Client Value 56
Technology and the Billing and Collection Process 58
Recording the Charges, Whether Time-Based or Task-Based 59
Integrating Other Expenses and Payments Within the Statement and Firm’s Records 61
Preparing a Statement for the Client 62
Transmitting the Statement to the Client 62
Receiving from the Client Either Payment or Requests for Clarification or Information 63
Instituting Collection Efforts for Balances Not Timely Paid 63
Technology in Fee-Setting and Budgets 65
Substantive Systems and Document Assembly 66
Knowledge Management Tools 67
Transaction Fees: Sharing the Costs (and Benefits) of Technology 68
Collaborative Technologies 69
Conclusion 70

CHAPTER SIX
Developing the Case Plan or Transaction Plan 71
Why Should I Bother with a Plan? 71
Elements of the Case/Transaction Plan 73
Preparing in Advance 74
Setting Client Goals and Expectations 75
Determining Billing Methods 76

CHAPTER SEVEN
Implementing Value-Based Billing 77
Value Billing and Profitability 78
Strategies for Profitable Value Billing 79
Seek a Higher Dollar Realization 79
Raise the Value of Your Service 79
Improve Quality 80
Reduce the Cost per Unit of Service 80
Use Technology 81
Position on the Value Curve 81
Clients’ Perception of Value 82
Guarantees 83
Change: How to Bring It About 84
Case Study: Could This Happen in Your Office? 85
Arguments in Favor of Changing Billing Methods 86
General Arguments 86
Impediments to Change 88
Concerns of Corporate Counsel 89
Conclusion 90
CHAPTER EIGHT
Evaluating Results of the Use of Alternative Billing Methods

Review of Closed Files 91
Client Audits 93
Performance Evaluation 94
Profitability Analysis 94
Quality of Life and Quality of Work Product 94
Conclusion 96

APPENDIX
Alternative Methods of Billing 97

Case 1: Fixed Fee Corporate Representation 107
Case 2: Alternative Billing in Estate Planning 111
Case 3: Fixed Annual Fee for Small Businesses 113
Case 4: Virtual Law Office 117
Case 5: Fixed Fee Loan Documents Makeover 121
Case 6: Flat Fee Transactional Practice 125
Case 7: Moving to Value Pricing 129

Exhibit 1: Letter Giving Alternative Fee Options to Client 131
Exhibit 2: Formal Fee Agreement (Hourly or Contingent) 135
Exhibit 3: Increased Hourly Rate for Negotiations;
Contingent Fee if Litigation Is Required 145
Exhibit 4: Alternative Billing Proposal for Either Hourly Rates or Reduced Hourly Rates with a Contingency Fee if the Business Is Acquired 149
Exhibit 5: Agreement for Fixed Fee Representation of a Bank for Major Collection Litigation with Bonus Clause 155
Exhibit 6: Fixed Fee Corporation Representation Service Election Form 161
Exhibit 7: Fixed Fee Retainer Agreement for Handling Insurance Defense Cases Based on a Prescribed Volume of Cases 163
Exhibit 8: Fee Agreement Incorporating Hourly, Fixed and Unit Fees for a Real Estate Development Project 167

Index 175

About the CD 187