

About the Author

Vernā Myers, Esq., principal of Vernā Myers Consulting Group, LLC (VMCG), is a nationally recognized expert on diversity and inclusion within law firms, law departments, and law schools. Ms. Myers is a dynamic speaker and creative advisor in support of creating inclusive environments and improving the recruitment, retention, and advancement of underrepresented groups. VMCG has collaborated with over 90 legal clients to effect sustainable organizational change by conducting cultural assessments, developing comprehensive strategic diversity action plans, and facilitating compelling and interactive workshops in the U.S. and around the globe. A highly sought-after speaker at numerous conferences worldwide, Ms. Myers sponsors her own successful annual Opus Conference on Race and Ethnicity in Large Law Firms.

In 2010, Pepper Hamilton LLP awarded Ms. Myers its Diversity Champion award. In 2009 she was chosen as one of The Network Journal's "25 Influential Black Women in Business," and in 2008, one of The Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly's "Diversity Heroes."

Prior to establishing VMCG, Ms. Myers was the first executive director of The Boston Law Firm Group, a consortium of firms committed to increasing racial/ethnic diversity. She served as deputy chief of staff for the attorney general of Massachusetts (1997–99), where she executed a comprehensive diversity and inclusion initiative: increasing minority recruitment; conducting diversity and sexual harassment trainings; and performing outreach to the state's diverse population. Ms. Myers practiced corporate and real estate law in Boston for six years at Testa, Hurwitz & Thibault, LLP and Fitch, Wiley, Richlin & Tourse, LLP.

Ms. Myers graduated from Harvard Law School and received a bachelor of arts, magna cum laude, from Barnard College, Columbia University. She lives in Newton, Massachusetts and is originally from Baltimore, Maryland.
