Testimonials:

“Jim McElhaney is like a fine wine - growing better with age. The latest edition of his book, an expanded version with 90 chapters, is truly some of his best work. He writes with such ease, his anecdotes are so insightful, you don’t even realize how much you are learning. His personal experience and practical tips are evident on every page. Trial lawyers should read this book from cover to cover, maybe twice.”

"Once again Mac has proved that he is the keeper of the flame for generations of trial lawyers. He takes seriously and executes eloquently the responsibility of passing on the art and science of trial advocacy. This compilation is a must have for any lawyer or law professor engaged in the practice or teaching of this most noble sector of the profession."

"I never go to trial without reading and studying McElhaney's books - his new Trial Notebook is the best of them all. It is the trial lawyer's bible, fertile with ideas and techniques that are helpful right off the page or ripe for molding to the shape of your case. If I had to choose one book on trial practice, I would choose McElhaney's new Trial Notebook"

‘Read McElhaney’s Trial Notebook. Better still, study it. Jim McElhaney is the voice of reason, experience and knowledge. This book will help not only the young lawyer, but any lawyer. It teaches all that a trial lawyer needs to know. Excellently written and fun to read, Trial Notebook should be on every trial lawyer’s bookshelf.”
