

Contents

About the Author	vii
Preface and Acknowledgements to the First Edition	ix
Preface and Acknowledgements to the Second Edition	xi
CHAPTER ONE—INTRODUCTION	1
A. The Role of Life Insurance in Estate Planning	1
1. In General	1
2. Replacement of Income	1
3. Providing Liquidity	3
4. Business Uses	4
5. Conclusion	4
B. Terminology	4
1. Basic Terms	4
2. Riders	5
3. Dividends	6
C. Types of Policies	6
1. Term Life Insurance	6
2. Whole Life Insurance	7
3. Endowment Contracts	8
4. Universal Life Insurance	8
5. Variable Life Insurance	9
6. Survivorship Insurance	9
D. Employer-Provided Insurance	9
1. Group-Term Insurance	9
2. Split-Dollar Insurance Arrangements	10
3. Retirement Plans	16
E. Information Needed for Planning	18
1. Essential Facts	18
2. Obtaining Information; Beneficiary Designations	18
CHAPTER TWO—INCOME TAXATION	21
A. Exclusion from Gross Income; Transfer-for-Value Rule	21

Contents

B. Cash Values	24
1. Increase in Cash Values; Dividends	24
2. Withdrawals	24
C. Definition of Life Insurance	25
D. Special Rules on Exchanges, Premium Payments, and Interest on Policy Loans	26
1. Exchanges of Life Insurance Policies	26
2. Nondeductible Premium Payments	27
3. Premiums Included in Income of Employee	28
4. Interest on Policy Loans	29
CHAPTER THREE—TRANSFER TAXATION	31
A. Valuation for Gift and Estate Tax Purposes	31
1. Gifts of Life Insurance Policies, Premiums, or Proceeds	31
2. Valuation of Permanent Life Insurance Policies	31
3. Transfer Tax Valuation of Term Insurance Policies	32
4. Split-Dollar Insurance	33
5. Policy Loans	33
B. Includability of Proceeds in the Insured’s Gross Estate	33
1. General Rule	33
2. Transfers Within Three Years of Death	35
CHAPTER FOUR—THE IRREVOCABLE LIFE INSURANCE TRUST	39
A. Planning Considerations	39
1. Smaller Estates	39
2. Planning When One Spouse Has Most of the Wealth	39
3. Larger Estates	40
4. Irrevocable Trust as Owner	41
B. Qualifying for the Annual Exclusion	42
1. In General	42
2. Outright Transfers v. Transfers to an Irrevocable Trust	43
3. Qualifying for the Annual Exclusion	43
4. Designing the Crummey Power	44
a. Definition of Amount Subject to Withdrawal
b. Limitation on the Spouse’s Right to Withdraw
c. Survivorship Insurance

Contents

d. Premium Payments by Third Parties
e. Other Assets in the Trust
f. Notifying the Trustee
g. Notifying the Beneficiaries
h. Restrictions on Rights to Withdraw a Particular Donation
i. Reasonable Period
j. Naked Powers
k. Effect of Other Rights to the Trust Assets
C. Gift Tax Consequences to Beneficiaries	50
D. Income Tax Consequences to Beneficiaries	53
1. Beneficiary Treated as Owner of Trust Assets	53
2. After Original Grantor Dies	54
E. Estate Tax Consequences to Beneficiaries	55
1. Avoiding Inclusion in Gross Estate of a Beneficiary	55
2. Trustee's Powers	56
F. Generation-Skipping Transfer Tax Consequences	57
1. In General	57
2. GST Annual Exclusion Before TAMRA	58
3. Post-TAMRA GST Annual Exclusion Rules	58
4. Allocation of GST Exemption	58
G. Drafting Considerations	63
1. Designing the Agreement	63
2. Using Proceeds to Pay Estate Taxes	64
3. Creating Flexibility	64
H. Conclusion	65
CHAPTER FIVE—SAMPLE FORMS	67
A. Introduction	67
B. Form: Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust Agreement Designed to Hold Policies on the Life of the Grantor	68
C. Form: Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust Agreement Designed to Hold a Last-To-Die Policy on the Life of the Grantor and His or Her Spouse	78
D. Cover Letter to Client Explaining Use of Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust	84

Contents

E. Form: Letter Notifying Trustee of Donation87

F. Form: Letter Notifying Beneficiary of Right of Withdrawal88

Appendix: Table 200189

Index91