

About the Authors

Max Gershenoff, Esq., helps insurers prosecute and defend complex civil lawsuits against alleged no-fault insurance fraud rings, including claims under the federal RICO act. His efforts have helped create a significant body of legal authority supporting the use of affirmative litigation, and especially civil RICO, to combat insurance fraud. He also counsels automobile, property, and life insurers on claims handling practices and investigation techniques, and he works with them to develop fraud prevention, detection, and recovery plans. Mr. Gershenoff received his A.B. degree from the University of Georgia and his law degree from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law at Yeshiva University.

Barry I. Levy, Esq., has been lead counsel in hundreds of complex insurance fraud cases, including many suits to recover claim payments to physicians, medical clinics, attorneys, public adjusters, and others involved in insurance fraud schemes. Mr. Levy also counsels health-care, automobile, property, fidelity, and life insurers on claims handling practices and investigation techniques and the development of fraud prevention, detection, and recovery plans. He also represents insurers in the defense of litigation challenging claims-handling practices. Mr. Levy received his B.A. degree from the Ohio State University and his law degree from the Ohio State University College of Law.