Contents

About the Authors vii

Introduction ix
I. Chapter Overview x
II. Eligible Projects xi

Chapter 1
General Legal Framework 1
I. Types of Tax-Exempt Bonds 3

Chapter 2
Parties/Process/Roles of Counsel 9
I. Parties 9
A. Issuer 9
B. Borrower 10
C. Underwriter/Bond Purchaser 11
D. Equity Investor 13
E. Trustee 14
II. Process and Procedure 14
A. Inducement 14
B. TEFRA Approval 15
C. Authorizing Resolution 17
1. Standard Documentation 17
D. Roles of Counsel 19
Chapter 3
Tax and Securities Core Concepts 21
   I. Internal Revenue Code Requirements 21
      A. Good Costs/Bad Costs 21
      B. 15% Rehabilitation Requirement 22
      C. Functionally Related and Subordinate Facilities 23
      D. Volume Cap 23
      E. Substantial User 24
      F. Additional Rules 25
   II. Securities Act Requirements 26
      A. Rule 10b-5 27
      B. Rule 15c2-12 27

Chapter 4
Specific Structures 31
   I. Credit Enhancement—Fannie, Freddie, and FHA 31
   II. The Financial Crisis and the Changing Landscape 32
      A. Federal Support for Affordable Rental Housing 33
   III. Conclusion 35

Chapter 5
Recycled Bonds and Bifurcated Structures as Tools for Multifamily Housing 39
   I. The Provisions 43
      A. Recent Use of Volume Cap 44
      B. Annual Volume Cap (2011-14) 45
      C. Volume Cap Used (2011-14) 45
      D. Volume Cap Carry Forward 45
      E. Prior Years Carry Forward Abandoned: 2011-14 46
   II. Challenges to Using Recycling Authority 46
   III. Bifurcation 47
   IV. Recycled Bond Case Studies 50
      A. St. Ann’s Terrace 50
      B. Ocean Village 51
      C. The Tiffany 51
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contents</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>D. University Avenue Consolidated (UACIII)</td>
<td>52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E. The Bradford</td>
<td>52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F. 160 Madison</td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V. Bifurcated Case Study</td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. 261 Hudson Street</td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Combining Recycling and Bifurcation</td>
<td>54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Applicability</td>
<td>55</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>