CONTENTS

About the Editors xiii

About the Authors xv

Foreword xvii

CHAPTER 1
Policy Issuance 1
John W. Blancett and Katelin O’Rourke Gorman
Introduction 1
A. Application (New and Renewal); Incorporation of Additional Materials 1
B. Policy Exclusions for Claims or Circumstances Known by the Insured at the Inception of Coverage 4
1. Claims Arising from Known, Disclosed Information 4
2. Claims Arising from Known, Undisclosed Information 4
C. Rescission 6
1. General Considerations 6
2. Misrepresentations Deemed Sufficient to Justify Rescission 7
3. Alleged Misrepresentations or Omissions Deemed Insufficient to Justify Rescission 13
4. Severability: Whether a Misrepresentation or Omission by One Applicant Will Permit Rescission as to Other Insureds 15
a. Severability Permitted to Protect Innocent Insureds 16
b. Severability Denied: Rescission Valid as to All Insureds 17
5. Effect of Misrepresentations in Supporting Documentation That Are Not Incorporated into the Policy 18
6. Issues of Waiver or Estoppel in Connection with Rescission 19
7. Tender of Premium 22
D. Breach of Warranty 23
E. The Insurer’s Ability to Recover Damages from the Party Responsible for the Misrepresentations in an Application 24

CHAPTER 2
The Insuring Agreements 27
Eric C. Scheiner
Introduction 27
A. Individual Director and Officer Coverage 28
1. Corporations Often Are Precluded from Indemnifying D&Os for Settlements in Derivative Cases 28
2. Side-A Only Coverage 28
3. Side-A Differences-In-Conditions Coverage 29
B. Corporate Indemnification Reimbursement Coverage
  1. The Corporation Must Grant Indemnification Before the Insurer Has a Duty to Reimburse Loss 30
  2. Generally, the Corporate Insured Is Not Covered for Its Own Losses 32
  3. What Constitutes Loss for Purposes of Indemnification 34
C. Entity Coverage 36

CHAPTER 3
Trigger of Coverage 39
Ralph A. Guirgis and Sean R. Simpson
A. Determining When a Claim Is Made 39
  1. A “Claim” Is a Demand for Relief Arising from a Wrongful Act 39
     a. A Threat of Litigation or the Contingent Possibility a Claim May Be Made in the Future Generally Will Not Be Deemed to Be “Claim” 41
     b. A Regulatory Agency’s Notice of Violations or Compliance Issues Generally Does Not Constitute a Claim Against the Directors and Officers 44
     c. A Demand for Regulatory Compliance Coupled with a Threat of Enforcement Action May Constitute a Claim 46
  2. A Demand for Performance or Action Other Than Money May Constitute a Claim 46
B. Number of Claims 49
  1. Cases Finding Claims Are Not Related 49
  2. Cases Finding Claims to Be Related 52
C. The Insured Must Timely Notify Insurers of a Claim 55
  1. Notification to Insurers of a Claim Must Be Made Strictly in Accordance with Policy Provisions 56
     a. Notification Must Be Timely 56
     b. Notification Must Be Made Through Formal Claim Channels 58
     c. An Insurer Generally Need Not Demonstrate Prejudice to Deny Coverage for Failure to Comply with Provisions of the Policy Requiring Notice within the Policy Period 59
     d. Courts Are Split as to Whether the Right to Insist Upon Strict Compliance with Notification Provisions May Be Waived 60
  2. Notification During the “Discovery” Period Is Generally Limited to Claims, Not Circumstances 62
  3. Sufficiency of Content of Notification of “Circumstances” 63
     a. The Notification Must Identify the Wrongful Act(s) Forming the Basis of the Potential Claim 63
     b. “Constructive” Notice from Other Materials Generally Does Not Provide Sufficient Notice of a Potential Claim 66
     c. Information in a Renewal Application Generally Is Insufficient to Provide Notice of a Potential Claim 68
CHAPTER 4
Scope of Coverage
Michael R. Davisson

Introduction
A. Claims Must Be Against Insured Persons for Acts Taken in Their Insured Capacity
B. Coverage Is Extended Only for Claims That Fall Within the Policy Definition of “Wrongful Acts”
C. Coverage Is Limited to Items That Fall Within the Policy Definition of “Loss”
D. Insurability of Claims
   1. Intentional Acts
      a. Requisite Intent
         i. Subjective Intent
         ii. Intent Inherent in the Act Itself
      b. Intentional Acts Taken Without the Intent to Cause Injury Distinguished
      c. Negligent and Reckless Acts Distinguished
      e. Some Jurisdictions Permit an Insurer to Cover Intentional Acts
   2. Defense Costs Coverage for Alleged Intentional Acts
      a. Defense Costs for Alleged Criminal or Intentional Conduct May Be Covered
      b. A Corporate Insured May Recoup Expenses Advanced in a Criminal Action against D&Os
      c. The Expense of Actions Taken by a Corporation to Protect Its D&Os from Criminal Charges Is not Covered
   3. Examples of Conduct/Damages Precluded by Public Policy
      a. Restitution and Disgorgement
      b. Tax Liability
      c. Punitive Damages
      d. Securities Fraud
      e. Anticompetitive Conduct

CHAPTER 5
Defense Obligations
Eric C. Scheiner and Jennifer Quinn Broda

Introduction
A. Indemnity Policies
   1. Defense Costs Are Reimbursed at the Conclusion of the Case
   2. Reimbursement Is Limited to the Cost of Defense of Covered Claims
   3. Consent to Incur Defense Expenses
B. Duty to Defend Policies
   1. The Duty to Defend—Generally
2. The Duty to Defend—An Insurer’s Right to Associate in the Defense of Claims Does Not Impose a Duty to Defend 114
3. The Duty to Defend—Other Insurance Issues 115
4. The Duty to Defend—Attorney Rate Issues 115
5. The Duty to Defend—Prosecution of Counterclaims 116
6. The Duty to Defend—Use of Independent Counsel 116
7. The Duty to Defend—No Voluntary Payment Provisions 119
C. Defense Costs Are Included Within Policy Limits 119
D. Cases Holding That Defense Costs Must Be Advanced Under D&O Policies 120
E. The Right to Recoupment of Defense Costs 123
  1. Recoupment of Defense Costs Allowed When Done Pursuant to a Timely Reservation of Rights 124
  2. Recoupment of Defense Costs Not Allowed Unless Specifically Provided for in the Policy 126
  3. Recoupment and Prejudgment Interest 129
  4. Recoupment and Criminal Actions 129
F. Interplay between D&O and EPL Coverage in the Same Policy 129
G. Implications of Bankruptcy 130

CHAPTER 6
Policy Limits and Retentions 131
John W. Blancett and Matthew M. Ferguson

Introduction 131
A. Side-A, Side-B, and Other Coverages 131
  1. Corporate Indemnification Is Not Permitted Under Some Circumstances 132
     a. Corporation Is Insolvent 132
     b. Derivative Lawsuits 133
     c. Dishonest Acts 133
B. Applicable Limits of Liability Triggered by Separate Transactions or Claims 134
  1. Aggregate or Multiple Limits of Liability Available for Separate Transactions 134
  2. Single or Per Claim Limit of Liability Applied to Separate Transactions 136
C. Applicable Limits of Liability Where Wrongful Acts Occurred in Separate Policy Periods 136
  1. One Policy Limit Triggered by Claims or Wrongful Acts in Separate Policy Periods 137
  2. Limits of Multiple Policies Triggered by Claims or Wrongful Acts in Separate Policy Periods 139
D. The Number of Applicable Retentions Where Different Transactions or Separate Lawsuits Are at Issue 141
CHAPTER 7

Other Insurance Clauses

Ralph A. Guirgis and Sean R. Simpson

Introduction 143

A. Types of Other Insurance Clauses 143
B. The Relationship between D&O and Other Policies 145
C. The Relationship between D&O Coverage and a Fidelity Bond 147

CHAPTER 8

Policy Exclusions

Martin J. O’Leary

Introduction 149

A. “Breach of Contract” Exclusion 149
   1. Broad Interpretation 149
   2. Narrow Interpretation 152
B. “Dishonesty” Exclusion 154
   1. Settlement of Underlying Litigation May Prevent Determination of Dishonesty 154
   2. Dishonesty Exclusion Precludes Coverage When Default Judgment Entered against the Insured Becomes a Final Order 155
   3. An Insurer May Be Entitled to Litigate the Issue of Dishonesty Where the Issue Was Not Ruled on in the Underlying Case 155
   4. A D&O Carrier May Not Be Able to Delay Advancement of Fees Pending Outcome of a Trial on Dishonesty 156
   5. Unconditional Dishonesty Exclusion Bars Coverage 156
   6. Complaint Asserting Only Allegations of Intentional Wrongdoing Is Precluded From Coverage Under the Dishonesty Exclusion 156
   7. Application of Dishonesty Exclusion Held to Preclude Recovery Under a D&O Policy 156
   8. Dishonesty Exclusions Requiring Adjudication of Dishonesty 157
   9. A Plea of Nolo Contendere Is Not Evidence of Dishonesty 158
10. The Duty to Defend and the Dishonesty Exclusion 158
C. “Personal Profit”/Improper Gain or Advantage Exclusion 159
   1. Personal Profit Exclusion Held to Bar Recovery of Defense Costs 159
   2. Personal Profit Exclusion Held Not to Preclude the Duty to Defend 159
   3. Personal Profit Exclusion May Require a Final Adjudication in the Underlying Action 160
   4. Personal Profit Exclusion May Not Require a Final Adjudication in the Underlying Action 160
   5. Personal Profit Exclusion Requires Direct Benefit to Any Individual Insured 161
Contents ix

4. State Deposit Insurance Fund Claim Deemed Barred by a Regulatory Exclusion 186
5. State Director of Insurance Claim Barred by a Regulatory Exclusion 186
U. “Securities Claims” Exclusion 187
V. “Wage and Hour” Exclusion 188

CHAPTER 9
Settlement 191
Ralph A. Guirgis and Sean R. Simpson
Introduction 191
A. The Insured Must Obtain the Insurer’s Consent to a Settlement 191
B. Insurer’s Refusal to Consent to Settlement 193
C. Denial of Coverage Eliminates Need for Insurer Consent 195
D. Coverage for a Settlement Paid on Behalf of D&Os 196
E. Collusive Settlements 199
F. Contribution 200
G. Subrogation 201
H. The Insurer May Prefer One Insured over Another 203
I. Excess Insurers’ Obligation in Settlement 204

CHAPTER 10
Allocation 209
Martin J. O’Leary & Eryk R. Gettell
Introduction 209
A. Allocation of Defense Costs 210
B. Allocation of Settlement Costs 215
C. Burden of Proof for Allocation 217
1. Burden of Proof on the Insured 218
2. Burden of Proof on the Insurer 219

CHAPTER 11
Policy Termination and Nonrenewal 221
John W. Blancett and Matthew M. Ferguson
Introduction 221
A. Renewal on Different Terms May Constitute Nonrenewal 222
B. Duty to Advise the Insured of Nonrenewal or Renewal on Different Terms 223
C. Unequivocal Oral Request for Renewal Deemed Sufficient to Trigger Right to Discovery Period 226
D. Timing of Notice of Nonrenewal 227
E. Insurers’ Right to Cancel Policy 227
F. Policy Cancellation Stayed by Bankruptcy Filing 228
G. Policy Provisions Providing for Termination 228
   1. “Merger, Reorganization, or Cessation of Business” Clause 228
   2. Termination Upon Appointment of Liquidator 229

CHAPTER 12
Coverage Litigation Issues 231

Michael R. Davisson

Introduction 231

A. Jurisdiction 232
   1. Personal Jurisdiction 232
      a. Personal Jurisdiction Over Individual Directors and Officers 232
      b. Attendance of Nonresident Insurers at Trial 233
      c. Standing to Sue 233
   2. Joinder 235
      a. Proper Parties 235
      b. Intervention 237
      c. Interpleader 239
      d. A D&O Insurer May Be Sued Directly in a Direct Action State 240
      e. Class Actions 242
   3. Subject Matter Jurisdiction 242
      a. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies 242
      b. Ripeness/Conclusion of Underlying Litigation 243

B. Discovery 244

C. Stay of Coverage Litigation or Discovery in Coverage Litigation Pending Resolution of Underlying Proceedings 248

D. Duty to Advance Defense Costs Pending Resolution of Underlying or Coverage Litigation 252

E. Finality of Settlement and Judgment 257

F. Effect of Insured’s Bankruptcy 258
   1. The D&O Policy Is an Asset of the Estate, But Its Proceeds May Not Be 258
   2. Applicability of Automatic Stay to Actions Against Directors and Officers 264
   3. Bankruptcy Court’s Jurisdiction with Regard to Claims Involving Bankrupt’s Insurer 268
   4. Claims by Directors and Officers Against a Bankrupt Company 273

G. Rule 11 Sanctions 275

H. Bad Faith 275
   1. Claims Handling Can Give Rise to Bad Faith 276
   2. Reservation of Rights Held Not to Constitute Bad Faith 276
   3. Denial of Coverage Held Not to Constitute Bad Faith 276
   4. Bifurcation of Trial in Bad Faith Litigation 277
   5. An Insurer’s Tort Liability May Not Depend on Its Liability Under the Insurance Contract 277
Contents

6. Insurer Held Not to Commit Bad Faith by Settling Lawsuit 277
7. A Plaintiff Must Sustain Economic Loss to Recover for Bad Faith 277
8. Assignee of Insured’s Rights Not Entitled to Recover Attorneys’ Fees from Insurer 278

CHAPTER 13
UK and European Exposures and UK Coverage 279
Edward G. Smerdon and Tristan C. Hall

A. Introduction 279
B. UK and European Criminal Enforcement 279
1. Influence of the U.S. FCPA in Europe 280
2. Co-Operation—Collaboration 280
3. Increased European-Based Enforcement 281
4. New Criminal Laws Tackling Corrupt Behavior 283
5. Broadening of Personal Offences to Entities 284
6. Conclusions 284
C. UK and European Investor Activism 284
1. The Shareholder Rights Landscape in Europe 284
2. Derivative Actions 285
3. Securities Claims 286
   a. The Right to Bring Claims 286
   b. Collective Redress 286
4. Conclusions 288
D. Developing Corporate Laws in Europe 288
1. Introduction 288
2. Codification of Directors’ Duties 288
3. Corporate Collapses, Black Holes and Insolvency 290
4. Conclusions 291
E. Indemnification and Insurance in the UK 291
1. Indemnification 291
2. UK Insurance Law—Overview 291
3. General Principles 292
   a. Good Faith and Contract Formation 292
   b. Reform 292
   c. Bad Faith 293
4. Policy Interpretation 293
5. Conclusions 295

Table of Cases 297

Index 333