Contents

About the Author iii
Acknowledgments v
Introduction xv

1 Depositions Are Proving Grounds 1
   Trial Themes 2
   First Steps 3
   Next Steps 6

2 Evidentiary and Procedural Considerations 7
   Admissibility in Different Jurisdictions 7
   Depositions Used by Experts 9
   Depositions in Other Cases 9
   Rules Governing How Depositions Are Conducted 11

3 Preliminary Strategic Considerations 15
   Identifying Discovery Needs 15
   Deciding to Take or Not to Take a Deposition 16
   Video Depositions 17
   Cross-Noticing Depositions 17
   Cross-Noticing Depositions in Multiple Cases 18
   Timing of Depositions 18

4 Preparing Fact Witnesses for Deposition 21
   Witnesses and the Attorney-Client Privilege 21
   Meetings With Independent Witnesses 23
   Showing Documents to the Witness 23
   Making the Witness Comfortable 25
   The Deposition Room 27
Contents

Technique Versus Content 27
Primary, Secondary, and Tertiary Facts 28
Personal Knowledge and Speculation 29
Responding to Different Types of Questions 30
Identifying Loaded Questions 31
Restating the Question 33
Identifying Compound Questions 34
Identifying Questions That Are Not Questions 34
The “Possibility” Questions 35
Summary Questions 36
Sound Bites from Documents 37
Freedom to Pause 37
Understanding The Question 38
Making Mistakes 39
Pace and Tempo 40
Testimony About Documents 41

Overview of Video Depositions 43
Capturing The Jury’s Attention 43
Using Videos: Other Considerations 45
Making Witnesses Feel Comfortable in Video Depositions 46
Mock Examinations 47
Practice Videotapes 47
Suitable Attire 48
Posture, Demeanor, and Seating Position 49
Witness Tics and Body Language 50
The Witness as Part of a Team 51
Environmental Considerations 51
Other General Recommendations 53

Preparing For And Deposing Adverse Experts 55
Preparing a Game Plan 56
“Boxing In” the Expert 56
Saving Important Questions 57
Laying the Foundation for an Expert Challenge 57
Defining the Scope of an Expert’s Work Product 58
Document Requests or Duces Tecum 59
Invoices and Billing Records 60
Correspondence Files 61
The Expert’s CV 62
Education and Licensing 63
The “Professional” Witness 64
Prior Testimony History 65
Do Not Repeat Questions Already Asked 66
The “No True Expert” Expert 66
Legal Industry Research 67
Online Information Services 68
Computer Research of Published Opinions 68
Articles and Publications 69
Testing an Expert’s Sincerity: “Practicing What Is Preached” 70
The Initial Engagement 71
Ghost Writers and Draft Reports 72
Pre-Deposition Investigation of Scientific Method 74
Areas of Nonexpertise 74
Lack of Experience 75
Materials Reviewed and Considered 76
Mirror, Mirror on the Wall 77
Grudges and Bias 78
Testing 78
Controlling “Artful Dodgers” 79
Strategic Impeachment 80
Using Consultants 81
Impeachment Using Variable Assumptions 82
Preparing a Deposition Outline 84
Generic Outline 85

Preparing an Expert for Deposition 89
Reviewing the File 90
Compliance with Discovery Obligations 91
Key Assumptions and Opinions 91
Contents

Key Documents 92
Overextension 92
Timing Issues 93
Other Depositions 93
Review Daubert Factors 93

8 Asking Powerful Questions 95
Keep It Simple 95
The “No Lose” Questions 98
The “Duty” Questions 99
Combining Word Selections 100
The “Narrowing Path” Method 101
Illustrations of the “Narrowing Path” Method 102
“Bump and Run” 103
Knowing When to Stop, When to Follow Up, and When to Run 104
Listen, Listen, and Listen 105
Strategic Timing 106
Changing Tempo 106
Handling Unresponsive Witnesses 107
Using Video to Control Witness Behavior 108

9 Deposing Individual Plaintiffs 109
Timing of the Deposition 109
Common Questions 110
Educational Background and Experiences 111
Questioning Regarding Witness Deposition Preparation 111
Pleadings and Prior Declarations 112
Litigation Background 113
Employment Background 114
Deposing a Personal Injury Plaintiff 115
Claims of Special Expertise 116
General to Specific Examination Techniques 117

10 Deposing Third-Party Lay Witnesses 119
Meetings With the Witness 119
Obtain Witness Statements 121
Pre-Deposition Investigation 121
Use of Demonstrative Exhibits 122
Creating Exhibits During Deposition 122
Developing Witness Expertise 123
Prior Testimony Background 123
Sequencing the Examination 123
Separating Innuendo, Speculation, and Hearsay 124
Common Outline Questions 125

11 Deposing a Minor Child 127
Competency Thresholds 127
Decisions Not to Depose Children 129
Deposition Strategies 130

12 Depositions of Organizations 133
Typical Procedural Guidelines 133
Purpose of Corporate Depositions 134
Timing of a Corporate Representative Deposition 135
Duty to Reasonably Investigate and Prepare 136
Consequences of Failing to Prepare 137
The “Preparing” Lawyer’s Job 138
Standard Topic Categories: All Cases 138
Standard Topic Categories: Personal Injury/Death Cases 140
Standard Topic Categories: Breach of Contract Cases 141
Standard Topic Categories: Fraud/Misrepresentation Cases 141
Standard Topic Categories: Product Cases 142

13 Preparing Corporate Witnesses 145
First Order of Business 145
Second Order of Business 145
The Lawyer’s Role in Selecting the Company Witness 146
Prior Testimony Experience 146
Witness Demeanor 147
Self-Confidence 147
Factual Knowledge 147
Seniority 148
Contents

Selecting Attorneys as Witnesses 149
Nonemployees as Witnesses 149
General Topics for Preparing the Corporate Witness 149
Sufficient Time to Prepare 150
Individual Preparation Time 150
Review of Pleadings and Key Discovery 151
Using a Briefing Binder 151
Chronology 152
Trial Themes 152
Review of Critical Documents 153
Protecting Privileges 153
Corporate Knowledge Versus Personal Knowledge 154

14 Deposing the Corporate Representative 155
Review Topic Categories 155
Review Efforts of Witness to Prepare for Deposition 156
Confirm the Witness’s Understanding of a “Corporate Representative” 156
Differences between Corporate Knowledge and Personal Knowledge 157
Review of Specific Documents Considered 157
Examination Techniques for Important Questions 158
Review Pertinent Pleadings and Discovery Responses 158
Scope of the Examination 160

15 Special Witness Doctrines 163
Deposing Governmental Officials: The Touhy Request 163
Deposing Senior Corporate Executives: The Apex Doctrine 167

16 Using Demonstrative Evidence in Deposition 169
Preliminary Strategic Considerations 169
Focus Groups 170
Hand-Drawn Diagrams 170
Witness Charts 170
Photographs 171
Aerial Photographs 171
Magnetized Boards  172
Simple Demonstratives: Blow-Ups  172
Documents: Cutaways  173
Documents: Using Overhead Projectors  173
Using Split-Screen Videos  173
Using Timelines  174
Computer Simulations and Modeling  174
Equipment and Machinery  175
Internet Access  175
Toys  175
Fabricated Models  176
Scene Topographical Models  176

17 Motions to Quash and for Protection  177
Objections before the Deposition Begins  177
Motions in Federal Court  178
Motions in State Courts  181
Protecting the Corporate Witness as to Scope  181
After the Whistle: Moving for Protection after a Deposition Begins  182
Motions for Protection: Protecting the Named Deponent  183

18 Making and Responding to Objections  185
Jurisdictional Differences  185
Trial Depositions  189
Video Depositions  189
Exceeding the Scope of Deposition  189
Privileged Matters  190
Types of Objections at Deposition  190

19 Special Deposition Procedures  193
Out-of-State Depositions  193
Out-of-State Depositions Are Trial Depositions  195
Expeditied Discovery  196
Depositions to Perpetuate Testimony  197
Telephonic Depositions and Video Conferencing  198
Using Interpreters  200
Depositions in Arbitration  207
   The Nature of Arbitration  207
   Depositions under the Federal Arbitration Act  208
   Depositions under State Law  211
   Depositions under the Uniform Arbitration Act  213
   Depositions Pursuant to AAA  216
   Enforcement Mechanism and Jurisdiction  217
   International Arbitrations  218

Index  221