Table of Contents

Introduction — xiii
Chapter 1: History of the Lapsing Life Insurance Policy and Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust Insolvency Crisis — 1
  1 — How Could This Happen?
  2 — The Buy-and-Hold Era
  3 — The Onset of Creative Destruction
  4 — Interest Rate Catalyst for Change
  7 — Buy and Hold vs. Buy and Manage
  8 — Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust Solvency
  9 — The Need to Align the Interests of the Consumer, Agent, Carrier, and Fiduciary

  11 — Product Explosion: Good, Bad, and Ugly News Implications
  12 — The Resultant Suitability Hurdle
  13 — Life Insurance Product Planning and Risks Primer
  15 — Product Types and Suitability Considerations
  16 — Defined Benefit: Replacement Priced Policies
  19 — Defined Contribution: Retention Priced Policies
  20 — Duration Planning
  20 — Rider Considerations
  21 — Annual Policy Risk Management
  24 — Policy Restructure
  24 — The Fresh Look: Theory and Practice
  25 — The Fresh Look: Request for Proposal Purchase and Management Issues to Consider
  26 — Conclusion

Chapter 3: The Outdated Traditional Retail Agent Distribution Channel: Life Insurance Is Sold, Not Purchased — 27
  27 — Case Study
  28 — The Need for Change
  28 — Perception Is Everything . . . or Is It?
  29 — Misleading Illustration Marketing
  31 — Product Evolution Good and Bad News
  31 — The Loss of Trust and Confidence
Table of Contents

Chapter 7: Inforce Life Insurance Policy Intervention:
Damage Control/A Glidepath to Safety Intervention—
Action Taken to Improve a Situation — 67

- 67 — Executive Summary
- 68 — Is Intervention Just Same-Old, Same-Old Life Insurance Marketing Hype?
- 69 — Getting Started: Key Questions for Intervention Consideration
- 70 — The Intervention Process (Plan Your Work and Work Your Plan)
- 71 — Intervention Forms
- 72 — Intervention: Senior Insured Persons
- 73 — Intervention: The Time-Tested Risk Management Process
- 74 — Intervention Statistical Support: Consider the Following Statistics
- 75 — Intervention—Legal and Tax Advisor Role
- 75 — Conclusion
  - 75 — Intervention: “Action Taken to Improve a Situation”

Chapter 8: Long Term Care Insurance 1980–2015 — 77

- 77 — History of Long-Term Care Insurance
- 78 — What Is Long Term Care Insurance?
- 78 — The Market
- 78 — The Elder Law Strategy
- 79 — The Government’s Strategy
- 79 — The Partnership Strategy
- 80 — Pricing Assumptions
- 81 — Combination/Linked Products
- 82 — Combination Linked Strategies
- 82 — Current Trends
- 82 — Conclusion
  - 83 — Author’s Note

Chapter 9: Life Insurance as an Asset Class:
The Gap between Theory and Practice — 85

- 86 — Definitions
- 87 — The Planning Value of Life Insurance
- 88 — The Gap between Theory and Practice
- 89 — Conclusion

Chapter 10: Life Settlement Market — 91

- 93 — Settlement Market History
- 93 — Settlement Market Considerations
  - 93 — Viatical and Life Settlement
- 94 — Life Settlement Tax Implications

105 — Delegate-Diversify-Disclose
108 — Reader Perspective
111 — The ILIT Fiduciary Practices Fresh Look Starting Point: Advisor Involvement and Delegation
   112 — How Could This Happen?
   112 — How Can Inattention Be Overcome?
   112 — Who Are the ILIT Parties That Are Advisors and How Can They Participate in This Corrective Action Assessment?
   113 — Which Advisor Is Likely to Be the Most Effective “Quarterback” in Establishing Procedures to Avoid Policy Lapse and Trust Insolvency?
114 — Key ILIT Administration and Asset Management Parties:
A More In-depth Discussion
   115 — The Drafting Attorney
   116 — The ILIT Trustee
   119 — Life Insurance Sales Agent—Is a Life Insurance Sales Agent Held to a Fiduciary or Suitability Standard?
   120 — Attorney-Trustee-Sales Agent Alignment—Doing the Right Thing in the Right Way Requires Process, Delegation, Diversification, and Disclosure
121 — The TOLI Risk Management Hurdles
122 — ILIT and TOLI Myths to Dispel
123 — The Intervention Process: Plan Your Work and Work Your Plan
Table of Contents

126 — Beneficiary Protection Checklist Considerations
129 — Litigation
131 — Conclusion
132 — Serious Problems Cannot Be Dealt With at the Level of Thinking That Created Them

134 — Life Insurance Prudent Practices—Problem-Solving Questions to Consider 135 — Connecting the Dots: Definitions to Consider 137 — Lessons Learned Guidance to Connect the Dots
138 — Conclusion: “Discipline Is the Bridge between Goals and Accomplishments”

Chapter 13: ILIT Litigation: Process over Performance (Best Practices Litigation-Tested Guidance) — 141
142 — The Right versus Wrong Way Model: ILIT Best versus Predatory Practices
143 — The Missing “Buy Side” Discipline
144 — Delegation Considerations to Avoid Defective Practices: A Quiz
145 — The Important Role of Litigation
145 — Litigation
145 — Cochran v. KeyBank
148 — Subsequent Defining Matters
149 — Practices Affirmed
149 — Issues Warranting Further Attention
149 — Conclusion

Chapter 14: Special Issues — 151
151 — Fiduciary Advisor Series (FAS)
151 — Family Offices
151 — Sample Older Age and Impaired Risk Request for Proposal
152 — Trust Protectors
153 — Financed Life Insurance
153 — Red Flags

Chapter 15: Sample Documents — 155
156 — Life Insurance Planning Worksheet
156 — Planning Purpose Brief Description
156 — Beneficiaries
157 — Sample Portfolio Management Consulting Services Letter
159 — Sample New Policy Request for Proposal
159 — (Death Benefit Driven Purpose)
Chapter 16: Reference Articles — 183
183 — Articles—Life Insurance Planning and Risk Management
184 — Articles—Changing Life Insurance Distribution Model
185 — Articles—Trust-Owned Life Insurance
186 — Articles—Trust-Owned Life Insurance (E. Randolph Whitelaw and Henry Montag)
187 — Articles—Trust-Owned Life Insurance (Henry Montag)
187 — Articles—Long-Term Care Insurance (Henry Montag)
188 — TOLI Media News Stories (Henry Montag)
189 — Books, Handbooks, and Reports
189 — Educational Sources

Chapter 17: Sample Life Insurance Cases — 191

Chapter 18: Contributed Articles — 199
199 — Trustee Appointment
201 — It’s Time to Dust Off Those Insurance Policies
203 — Alan Gassman’s “Skeptical Glasses” Talking Points
205 — Actuarial Evaluation of Life Insurance Products
206 — Order Does Make a Difference
207 — Getting Back on Track
208 — Leveraging of COI Charges
209 — On Mortality Rates
209 — The Elements of Risk in a Life Insurance Product
209 — Carrier Risk
210 — Inflation Risk
210 — The Risk of Life Insurance Contract Survivorship
210 — Return Risk
211 — The Society of Actuaries Report on Illustrations
212 — Understanding the Contract
212 — Buy and Hold is Not an Acceptable Strategy
Table of Contents

212 — Finding a Funding Level
214 — The Last Question
214 — Long-Term Care Insurance Riders and Tax Consequences
  214 — Estate Tax Consequences
  215 — Income Tax Consequences
  215 — Paying for the Long Term Care
  216 — In Summary
217 — Trust Owned Life Insurance (TOLI) Policy Replacements Also Known
  Euphemistically as Policy Exchanges, Restructurings and Upgrades
  217 — Basic Replacement Premise for the New Replacement Policy to Make Economic Sense
  217 — Key Questions to Consider in a TOLI Replacement 218 — Illustrations Are a Necessary Part, but Not the Entire Replacement Transaction
  218 — Other Factors to Be Considered
  219 — Suggested Replacement Process
  219 — Inherent Policy Risk Factors
  220 — Risks under Various Types of Life Insurance Policies
  221 — Summary
  221 — What This Treatise Does Not Discuss

Conclusion — 223

Glossary of Terms — 227