
Table of Contents

About the Editors	xv
About the Authors	xvii
Foreword from the ABA Forum on Franchising Chair	xxiii
Foreword from ABA-IPL Section Chair	xxv
Preface	xxvii
Chapter 1: Trademarks—United States	I
I. Introduction	I
II. Basic Trademark Principles	I
A. Trademark Forms and Types	I
1. Words	2
2. Numbers	2
3. Number and Word Combinations	2
4. Slogans	2
5. Designs	2
6. Images	2
7. Colors	3
8. Sounds	3
9. Smells	3
10. Three-Dimensional Configurations	3
B. Trademark Functions	3
C. Spectrum of Distinctiveness	4
1. Fanciful Marks	5
2. Arbitrary Marks	5
3. Suggestive Marks	5
4. Descriptive Terminology	6
5. Generic Terminology	8
6. The Suggestive/Descriptive Conundrum	8
D. Strength of Trademarks	8
E. Trade Dress	9

III. Selection and Clearance of Marks for Use in the United States	10
A. Selection	10
1. General Considerations	11
2. Avoid Descriptive Terms	11
a. Selection Factors	11
b. Practice Pointer—Recognizing Descriptive Marks	12
3. Avoid Geographic Names	13
4. Avoid Surnames	13
5. Avoid Laudatory Terms	14
B. Clearance	14
1. Clearance Searches	14
2. Practice Pointer—A Final Word about Clearance	15
IV. Establishing Rights in a Trademark	16
A. Common Law Rights	16
B. The Federal Registration System	16
1. The Federal Registration Process	17
2. Maintenance	18
3. Statutory Bars to Registration	18
a. Absolute Prohibitions	18
b. Conditional Prohibitions	19
c. Previously Registered and Used Marks	20
4. Benefits of Federal Registration on the Principal Register	20
a. Constructive Notice	20
b. Incontestability	21
c. Presumption of Validity of Ownership	21
d. Federal Court Jurisdiction	21
e. Importation of Infringing Articles	22
5. Federal Registration on the Supplemental Register	22
6. Other Bars to Registration	22
7. Registration of Trade Dress	22
C. State Trademark Law	22
V. Protection of Trademark Rights	23
A. Common Situations Prompting Enforcement Actions in Franchising	23
B. Infringement Actions	23
C. Dilution Actions	24
D. Anticybersquatting Actions	26
1. The Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act	26
2. The Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy	26
E. Policing Trademarks	27
F. Social Media	29
G. Remedies	29
1. Injunctions	29
2. Monetary Recovery	30
a. Actual Damages	30
b. Defendant's Profits	30

c. Cumulative Nature of Remedies	31
d. Equitable Adjustments	31
e. Attorneys' Fees	31
f. Punitive Damages	31
g. Prejudgment Interest	31
h. Costs	32
3. Other Infringement Remedies	32
4. Dilution Remedies	32
VI. Proper Marking and Use	32
A. Proper Marking	32
B. Proper Use	33
1. Trademarks Should Be Used as Adjectives	33
2. Trademarks Should Be Used Uniformly	33
3. Trademarks Should Not Appear in Advertising as "Running Text"	34
4. Trademark Owners Should Monitor Use by Authorized Third Parties	34
C. Abandonment	35
VII. Trademarks and the Franchise Relationship	37
A. Whether or Not a Trademark License Is Necessary	37
B. The Role of Trademarks in Different Types of Franchise Systems	37
VIII. Trademark Licensing	38
A. Preamble	38
B. Granting Clause	38
C. Quality Control	39
D. Actual Exercise of Control	40
E. Practice Pointer—Licensor Liability and Exercise of Control	40
F. Representations and Warranties	41
G. Policing Licensees	41
H. Trademark Relationship and Ownership	41
I. Display of the Trademark	41
J. Trademark Enforcement	42
K. Expiration and Termination	42
L. Indemnification and Insurance	43
M. Miscellaneous Trademark Provisions	43
N. Practice Pointer—Drafting Effective License Provisions	44
IX. Conclusion	44
Chapter 2: Trademarks—International	45
I. Introduction	45
II. Selecting, Searching, and Clearing the Mark	45
A. Selection: The Trademark Spectrum	46
B. International Selection	48
1. The Business Plan	48
2. Trademark Selection	49
a. Meaning of the Trademark	50
b. Registration in Local Languages	51
c. Use of a Logo as International Trademark Designation	51

C. Search and Clearance	52
D. Conclusion	53
III. Filing and Rollout Strategy	54
A. Selecting Countries for Applications	54
1. Jurisdictional Issues	54
2. Other Considerations	56
3. Geopolitical Considerations	56
B. Selecting Local Counsel	57
C. Options for Filing	59
1. Treaties	59
a. Nice Agreement	59
b. Paris Convention	60
c. Madrid Protocol	61
(i) The Madrid Protocol Registration Process	61
(ii) Potential Cost Savings and Other Benefits	62
(iii) Potential Drawbacks	62
2. Multinational Trademark Rights	63
a. European Union Trademark	63
b. African Union	64
c. Other Multinational Associations	65
D. The Application Process	65
IV. Use Requirements	66
A. Use Requirement for Registration	66
B. Use Following Receipt of Registration	67
C. Use at Renewal of Registration	67
D. Examples of Use	67
V. Policing and Enforcement	68
A. Choice of Counsel	69
B. Monitoring Infringement	70
C. Initial Investigation and Pursuit of Trademark Infringement	70
D. Enforcement	71
1. Demand Letters / Dispute Resolution	71
2. Administrative Proceedings	72
3. Civil Lawsuits	74
4. Criminal Actions	75
5. Customs Protection	75
VI. Assignment and Recordal	76
A. Introduction	76
B. Preassignment and Considerations	77
1. Assignments versus Licenses	77
2. Purpose of Recordal	77
3. Local Counsel and Due Diligence	78
C. How to Effect an Assignment	79
1. Types of Assignment Documents	79
2. Elements of a Trademark Assignment Document	79

D. Authentication of Assignment Documents	80
1. Overview	80
2. Brief Description	81
3. Plain Photocopies	81
4. Original or Certified Copies of the Original	81
5. Apostille	81
6. Full Legalization	82
E. The Recordal Process	82
F. Conclusion	83
VII. Licensing and Recordal	83
A. Introduction	83
B. Why License?	83
C. Prelicensing Considerations—Due Diligence	84
D. Mechanics of Trademark Licensing	85
E. Recordal of Trademark Licenses: Minor Risk for Large Benefit	86
F. Conclusion	87
VIII. Conclusion	87
Chapter 3: Domain Names and Trademarks on the Internet	89
I. Introduction	89
A. Overview	89
B. Trademarks and Service Marks	90
C. Domain Names	90
II. The Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act (ACPA)	94
A. Background	94
B. Proving an ACPA Claim	94
1. Trademark Rights and Confusion/Dilution	94
2. Registrant's Bad Faith	95
C. Jurisdiction	97
1. In Personam	97
2. In Rem	98
D. Defenses	99
E. Damages	100
F. First Amendment Issues—"Gripe Sites"	101
III. Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (UDRP)	104
A. Choosing a Dispute Resolution Service Provider	104
B. Procedure	105
C. Proof of a UDRP Claim	105
1. Identical or Confusingly Similar	106
2. Rights or Legitimate Interests	106
3. Bad-Faith Use and Registration	110
4. Reverse Domain Name Hijacking	113
D. Challenges in Pursuing Licensees	114
IV. Uniform Rapid Suspension System Proceedings	115
V. Choosing a Course of Action Against Cybersquatters	119
A. Cease and Desist Letters	119
B. ACPA versus UDRP (or URS)	119

VI. Protection of Personal Names	121
VII. Criminal Sanctions	122
VIII. Keyword Disputes	122
IX. Web Scraping, Phishing, Tasting, and Auction Disputes	124
X. Management of Domain Names	126
A. Selection as Part of Trademark Clearance	126
B. Registration Options	127
C. Purchases from Existing Registrants	129
D. Monitoring and Policing	130
E. Trademark Clearinghouse	131
F. Maintenance and Agreements	131
XI. Social Media Policies Relating to Trademarks and Domain Names	132
A. Social Media Disputes	132
B. Tweeting, Retweeting, and Related Concerns	133
C. Best Practices Regarding Use of Social Media	135
XII. Specific Concerns for Franchisors and Franchisees	137
XIII. Conclusion	138
Chapter 4: Copyrights	139
I. Overview	139
A. Definition of Copyrightable Subject Matter	139
B. Idea/Expression Dichotomy	140
C. Formalities	140
D. Notice	141
E. Benefits of Registration	142
F. Term of Copyright and Public Domain Issues	142
G. Rights Granted by Copyright	143
H. Ownership Issues	145
1. Work Made for Hire	145
2. Architectural Plans and Buildings	146
3. Website Development	146
4. Website Content	147
5. Assignment or Transfer of Ownership	148
6. Ownership of a Copyrighted Material Object	148
I. Publication	149
II. Registration	150
A. What to Register	150
B. The Registration Process	152
C. Selecting the Correct Form	153
D. Completing the Form—General Concepts	154
E. Deposit Copies	157
F. Recordation of Transfers with the Copyright Office	158
III. Infringement	158
A. Elements of Infringement	158
B. Defenses	160
C. Remedies	161

IV. International Copyright Law	162
V. Conclusion	163
Appendix I: Sample Work for Hire Agreements with Backup Assignment	165
Appendix II: Sample Website Development Agreement with Work for Hire/Assignment	167
Appendix III: Sample Copyright Application for a Franchise Manual	173
Chapter 5: Patents	177
I. What Is a Patent?	177
A. Term of a Patent	177
B. How Can a Patent Be Important to a Franchisor or Other Company?	178
1. Negative Right—to Exclude but Not Practice	178
2. Protects Idea and Concepts	179
3. Independent Development—Not a Defense to Infringement	179
4. Formidable Remedies	180
5. Significant Intangible Value	181
II. What Can Be Patented?	181
A. Patentable Subject Matter	181
B. Invention Must Be New	182
C. Invention Must Be Useful	182
D. Invention Must Not Be Obvious	183
E. Types of Patents	183
1. Utility Patents	183
2. Design Patents	184
3. Plant Patents	184
III. Provisional Patent Applications	184
A. Advantages	184
B. Disadvantages	185
IV. Patent Application Publication	186
A. Timing and Conditions	186
B. Antithesis of Trade Secret	186
V. Emerging Patent Classifications	187
A. Computer Software Patents	187
B. Business Method Patents	188
C. Biotechnology as Intellectual Property	189
VI. Pathway to Patent Protection	190
A. Conception of Invention	190
B. Reduce Invention to Practice	190
1. Actual Reduction to Practice	191
2. Constructive Reduction to Practice	191
C. Preparation of the Patent Application	191
1. Parts of a Patent Application	191
2. Types of Claims	191
D. Filing the Patent Application	192
1. Inventorship	192
2. Ownership	193

E. Prosecution of the Patent Application	193
1. Information Disclosure Statement	193
2. USPTO Office Actions (i.e., Preliminary Refusals)	194
3. Response to an Office Action	194
F. Patent Issuance	194
VII. Post-issuance Activity	195
A. Reissue	195
B. Ex Parte Reexamination	195
C. Supplemental Examination	196
D. Post-Grant Review	196
E. Inter Partes Review	197
F. Covered Business Method Review	198
VIII. Patent Protection Strategies	198
A. Minimal Approach	198
B. Modest Approach	200
C. Aggressive Approach	202
IX. Patent Enforcement	203
A. Infringement	203
B. Scope of Claim Coverage	204
1. Doctrine of Equivalents	204
2. Prosecution History Estoppel	204
C. Defenses to Infringements	205
1. Patent Invalidity	205
a. What Is Prior Art?	205
b. Statutory Requirements	205
2. Inequitable Conduct	206
3. Misuse or Violation of Antitrust Laws	206
4. Laches or Estoppel	207
5. Other Substantive Defenses	207
D. Remedies Available	208
1. Monetary Damages	208
2. Injunctive Relief	209
X. International Protection	210
A. Territorial Treatment	210
B. Absolute Novelty	210
C. Paris Convention	210
D. Patent Cooperation Treaty	211
E. European Patent Convention	211
XI. Additional Patent Tips	211
XII. Conclusion	212
Chapter 6: Trade Secrets	213
I. Introduction	213
A. Trade Secrets: Valuable Corporate Assets That Often Go Unrecognized	213
B. Trade Secrets Should Be Safeguarded with Great Care	214
C. Scope and Organization of This Chapter	215

II. What Is a Trade Secret?	216
A. Definitions	216
1. Uniform Trade Secrets Act	217
2. The Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016	217
3. Non-UTSA States	218
a. Massachusetts	218
b. New York	219
c. North Carolina	219
B. Four Basic UTSA Trade Secret Definitional Elements	220
1. Information	220
2. Economic Value	221
3. Not Generally Known or Readily Ascertainable	221
a. Not Generally Known	222
b. Not Readily Ascertainable through Proper Means	224
4. Reasonable Efforts to Maintain Secrecy	225
C. Examples of Trade Secrets	227
1. Technical Information	228
2. Business Information	229
3. Trade Secrets in Franchising	230
D. Relationship to Other Forms of Intellectual Property	231
1. Patent Law	231
a. Some Similarities and Differences between Trade Secrets and Patents	233
b. Some Considerations in Choosing between Patent and Trade Secret Protection	234
c. Copyright Law	235
III. Steps to Protect Trade Secrets	235
A. General Precautions	235
1. Confidentiality Agreements and Provisions	235
2. Trade Secret Policies and Procedures	237
3. Focus on What Is Reasonable and Practical	238
B. Considerations Relating to the Workforce and Franchise Systems	239
1. Considerations Relating to Recruiting Employees and Franchisees	240
2. Considerations Relating to Incumbent Personnel	242
3. Considerations Relating to Terminating Employees, Independent Contractors, and Franchisees	242
IV. Related Bodies of Law	245
A. Contract Law	245
B. Employment Law	245
C. Tort Law and Property Law	246
V. Misappropriation	246
A. General Definition	247
B. Improper Means	248
1. Definition	248
2. Proper Means	248
a. Independent Development	249
b. Reverse Engineering	249

C. Wrongful Acquisition	250
D. Wrongful Use	250
E. Wrongful Disclosure	252
VI. Negation or Loss of Trade Secret Status, Use of Proper Means, and Other Defenses	253
A. Defenses Going to the Alleged Existence of a Trade Secret	254
B. Defenses Going to the Alleged Act of Misappropriation	255
VII. Substantive and Procedural Remedies	255
A. Civil	255
1. Uniform Trade Secrets Act	255
a. Injunctive Relief	256
(i) Prohibitory Injunctions	256
(ii) Royalty Order Injunctions	259
(iii) Mandatory Injunctions	260
(iv) Ex Parte Seizure Orders	261
(v) Protective Orders	263
b. Damages	264
(i) Compensatory Damages	264
(ii) Punitive Damages	265
c. Attorneys' Fees	265
2. Unfair Competition	266
3. Other Causes of Action	267
B. Federal and State Computer Crimes Laws	268
1. Overview	268
2. Federal Computer Fraud and Abuse Act	269
3. State Computer Crime Laws	272
4. Federal Electronic Communications Privacy Act	274
C. Criminal	275
1. The Economic Espionage Act—18 U.S.C. §§ 1831–1839	275
2. The “Computer Crimes” Statute—18 U.S.C. § 1030	276
3. Mail and Wire Fraud—18 U.S.C. §§ 1341, 1343	276
4. RICO—18 U.S.C. §§ 1961–1968	276
5. The National Stolen Property Act—18 U.S.C. §§ 2311–2333	276
6. Fraud in Connection with Access Device—18 U.S.C. § 1029	277
D. Choosing Between Civil and Criminal Remedies	277
Chapter 7: Technology: The New Frontier in Intellectual Property	279
I. Introduction: Change Is Constant	279
II. Contracting through Technology	280
A. Digital Signatures	280
B. Click-Wrap, Browse-Wrap, and Sign-In-Wrap Agreements	281
C. Franchise Sales	286
III. Available Forms of Franchisor Electronic Communications:
Intranets and the Internet	287
A. Purpose	287
B. Intranets	287
C. Internet	288
D. Risks	289

IV. Fundamentals of an Online Presence	290
A. Domain Names	290
B. Operational Matters	291
1. Accessibility (ADA Issues)	291
2. Website Terms and Conditions and Other Website Content	292
3. Copyright Issues	293
C. Marketing Matters	295
1. Internet Marketing versus Contractual Exclusivity	295
2. CAN-SPAM Act	298
3. Telephone Consumer Protection Act	301
4. Endorsements, Astroturfing, and Related Marketing Techniques	302
V. Data Privacy and Security	305
A. Data Privacy	308
1. Legal Landscape: Domestic and International	308
a. Federal Trade Commission Act	309
b. Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998	310
c. Other Focused U.S. Data Protection Statutes	311
d. European Data Directive and Relationship to U.S. Obligations	313
e. Privacy Laws in Other Jurisdictions	316
2. Industry Self-Regulation	316
3. Effect of Alternate Data Capture Methods	317
B. Data Security	319
1. Applicable Laws	321
a. Federal Data Security Laws	321
b. Federal Trade Commission Act	323
c. State Data Security Laws	327
d. Other Legal Principles Bearing on Data Security	329
2. Other Security Standards	333
a. General Standards	333
b. Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard	334
c. Elements of Security Standards	335
C. Effect of Cloud Computing	338
1. What Exactly Is Cloud Computing?	338
2. Opportunities and Risks	339
3. Ethical Considerations	340
VI. Social Media and the Franchise System	344
A. Trademark Issues	344
B. Copyright and Related Issues	346
C. Trade Secret Issues	348
D. Personal Information Issues	348
E. Employee Information Issues	351
F. Advertising Practice Issues	352
VII. Conclusion	353
Appendices	355
Index	407