ABOUT THE EDITORS

Eric R. Harlan is a partner in the litigation department of Shapiro, Sher, Guinot & Sandler in Baltimore, Maryland. His practice focuses on the representation of businesses and individuals in a broad range of commercial, employment, and domestic matters, including the prosecution and defense of business tort actions, fiduciary litigation, fraud claims, and complex domestic disputes. He is a co-chair of the Trial Evidence Committee of the ABA’s Section of Litigation.

Jennifer B. Routh is a litigation associate at McDermott Will & Emery LLP in Washington, D.C. She focuses her practice on complex civil litigation, government investigations, and white-collar criminal defense. Ms. Routh also maintains an active pro bono practice focusing on enforcement of children’s rights under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. Previously, she served as a law clerk for Judge Thomas F. Hogan of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia.

Both editors also served as authors of certain chapters in this book.
