Table of Contents

About the Authors ix
Acknowledgments xi
Introduction to this Fourth Edition xiii

Chapter 1: Developing an Internet Marketing Plan 1
Analyze Your Firm to Develop Your Internet Marketing Plan 2
Your Firm's Business Strategy 2
What Are Your Firm's Top Skills? And Who Are Your Clients? 3
What Do Clients Need Help With? 3
Consider Your Reputation 4
Consider Your Culture and Style of Doing Business 4
Identify the Internet Tools and Options That Make the Most Sense for Your Firm 7
Building Credibility on the Internet 8
Determine and Maintain a Consistent Internet Persona 9

Chapter 2: Content Marketing 11
The Rule of the First Impression 11
Positioning Strategy 12
Your Firm Values Will Affect and Inform Your Positioning Strategy and Content Marketing Plans 13
The Importance of Unique Content Strategies for Each Practice and Industry 13
Where Does Your Content End Up? How Do People Find It? 15
Design a 360-Degree Content Strategy 15
What Internet Marketing Tools Are the Best Fit for Your Firm, Your Practice Mix, and Lawyers? 16
Website 16
Social Media—And How It Has Been Affected by Mobile Devices 17
Video and Audio—Critical Content Tools 18
E-mail 19
Webinars and Other Educational Programming 19
Awards, Rankings, and Directory Listings 20
Chapter 3: Today's Websites 23
The Big Picture 23
The Visitor Experience 24
Visitor Experience on the Go 26
Your Audience: Are Your Visitors Global or Local? 27
Where Do You Begin? 28

Chapter 4: Planning and Designing Your Website 31
How Much Will It Cost? 32
An Outline of the Typical Phases of Your Website 34
And the Final Question: How Long Will It Last? 36
Domain Names 36

Chapter 5: Ten Foundational Best Practices for Law Firm Websites 39
Scoring of the 2016 Global 50 Websites: Ten Foundational Best Practices Study 40
Foundational Best Practice #1: Communicating Your Message 40
Foundational Best Practice #2: Design 45
Responsive Web Design (RWD) 46
A Design Trend: Minimalism 51
Foundational Best Practice #3: Navigation 52
More about Navigation 54
Hamburger Menus 55
Foundational Best Practice #4: Professional Biographies 56
Create Three-Dimensional (3-D) Bios 60
Foundational Best Practice #5: Content (Excluding Biographies) 62
Practice and Industry Descriptions 66
News, Events, Publications, Press Releases, Articles, and More 69
A Note about Press Releases 69
Headlines 69
Events 70
Even More Content 71
Foundational Best Practice #6: Interactivity and Social Outreach 72
Foundational Best Practice #7: Site Search 77
Foundational Best Practice #8: Site Optimization and Online Awareness (SEO) 80
Foundational Best Practice #9: Mobility and Responsiveness 81
Foundational Best Practice #10: Site “Hygiene” and Usability 83

Chapter 6: Website Technologies and Platforms 87
Open Source 87
Proprietary Platforms and Content Management Systems (CMS) 89

Chapter 7: Website Timelines, Budgets, and Contracts 91
Typical Phases of Your Website and the Time Each Takes 91
Contracts That Govern Your Website Project 93
Budget 95

Chapter 8: Website Hosting 97
Advantages of External Hosting 97
Hosting in the Cloud 98

Chapter 9: Announcing, Promoting, and Growing Your Website 101
Growing Your Site 102
Chapter 10: Mobile
Content Strategies 104
Setting Up Your Mobile Site or App 108

Chapter 11: Social Media Marketing
The Big Picture 113
Blogs 114
LinkedIn
A LinkedIn Profile 117
Skills, Endorsements, and Recommendations 118
Groups 119
Law Firm Pages 119
Publishing 120
ProFinder 121
Connections 121
Profile Views 124
Building Relationships 124
Search Engine Optimization (SEO) 125
LinkedIn Premium 125
Twitter 126
Facebook 130
Google+ 132
Avvo 133
Other Lawyer Social Media Sites 137
Social Media Management 137
Social Media Content Strategies 138

Chapter 12: E-mail Marketing
The Big Picture 141
How E-mail Fits into Your Content Strategy 141
Newsletters 142
Client Alerts/Breaking News 142
White Papers/Legal Summaries 142
Special Occasions (Birthdays, Holiday Cards, and More) 143
Announcements of Firm News 143
Press Releases 143
Links to Video and Audio Content 143
Tying E-mail to Social Media Channels 143
Invitations 144
E-mail Composition and Formatting 144
Providers and Platforms 145
The Design of E-mails 146
Signature Blocks 147
Developing a Mailing List 149

Chapter 13: Video, Podcasts, and Webinars
The Big Picture 151
How Video and Audio Fit into Your Content Strategy 153
Choosing Your Subject Matter for Video and Audio—And Rules to Live By 154
A Case Study: Lawyer Richard Hsu
Hsu Untied 156
Making This Considerable Investment and Having It Pay Off 157
Chapter 14: Search Engine Marketing and Search Engine Optimization (SEM and SEO) 169
Tim Stanley, Ken Chan, and David Kemp, Justia

The Big Picture—What Is SEO? 169
Website Content 171
  High Quality Content 171
  Original Content 173
  Focused Content 174
  What to Write 175
  Additional Items about Content 177
Web Page Markup 178
  Title Tags 179
  Meta Descriptions 180
  Text 181
  Structured Data 182
Website Structure 183
  Indexability 183
  Speed 185
  Mobile and Responsive Design 185
  Secure Server—https 187
Distribution and Editorial Promotion 187
  Editorial Links 187
  Social Media 189
Resources 190
  General SEO Resources 190
  Legal Web Marketing Blogs and Resources 191
  Google and Bing Webmaster Tools 191
Conclusion 192

Chapter 15: Choosing Your Consultants and Vendors 193
One-Stop Shop for Websites 193
Web Designer and/or Developer 194
Strategy and Positioning/Branding Consultants 195
Copywriters and Copyeditors 197
Website Maintenance 197
Social Media Consultants 198
  Advice from Others 199
Search Engine Optimization (SEO)/Search Engine Marketing (SEM) Consultants 201
Website Requests for Proposals (RFPs) and Requests for Information (RFIs) 203
  Other Website RFP Don’ts 203
  Website RFP and Post-RFP Do’s 205

Chapter 16: Analytics and Measuring Your Return on Investment 207
Google Analytics 207
Other Analytics Programs 210
Chapter 17: The Ethics of Client Development on the Internet and through Social Media

David Hricik

Introduction 211
Application of the Rules Regulating Lawyer Marketing to the Internet 212
The Model Rules Regulate Commercial Speech—Only 213
A Lawyer Cannot Make a False or Misleading Communication about the Lawyer or the Lawyer’s Services 214
Lawyers May Not Misleadingly Claim to Be a Specialist or Even to Have Expertise 215
With Limited Exceptions, a Lawyer Cannot Pay a Person to Recommend the Lawyer’s Services 216
Synchronous or “Real-Time” Contact with Prospective Clients on the Internet and Inadvertently Forming Attorney-Client Relationships 216
Using E-mail and Other Asynchronous Forms of Communications to Solicit Prospective Clients 217
Advertisements on the Internet, Including Keyword Purchases 218
Ratings Services and Reviews 219
Providing a Discount to Encourage Reviews 219
Responding to Negative Comments from Former Clients 220
Responding to Positive Comments by Clients 220
Conclusion 221

Index 223