

Douglas Hand is one of the pre-eminent fashion lawyers in the United States and a generally sharp dressed man. He is a member of the Council of Fashion Designers of America (CFDA) Fashion Awards Guild which votes on the designers to receive CFDA Awards. Douglas is also on the Fashion Institute of Technology's Couture Council. He is an adjunct professor of Fashion Law at both NYU and Cardozo School of Law. Douglas has been featured and profiled in numerous media outlets including the New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, Vanity Fair, the American Bar Association Journal, Women's Wear Daily and The Business of Fashion. Before becoming a founding partner of HBA LLP, he was an M&A lawyer at Shearman & Sterling LLP. He received his JD and MBA from NYU. His ongoing musings on style can be followed at @handlawsofstyle.