

Contents

Volume I

Preface.	xxv
------------------	-----

PART 1

The Attorney-Client Privilege 1

I. Purpose and Scope of the Attorney-Client Privilege	2
A. Definition of the Privilege	2
B. Policy Justifications for the Privilege	4
C. Strict Construction of Privilege	12
D. Predictability as a Goal	17
E. Relationship Between Privilege and Attorney's Ethical Obligations.	18
II. Standing	23
A. Who May Raise the Privilege?	23
B. Who May Waive the Privilege?	30
1. The Client	31
2. Counsel Acting on Client's Behalf.	32
3. Deceased and Defunct Client	36
4. In the Corporate Context.	39
5. The Closely Held Corporation	50
6. Successors-In-Interest	51

7. Trustees in Bankruptcy	55
a. In the Corporate Context	55
b. In the Individual Context	58
8. In the Governmental Context	65
9. Who May Waive a Joint Privilege?	68
10. Waiver in Context of Dual Representations	71
C. May the Privilege Be Assigned?	75
D. Dismissal of Action Based on Privileged Communications	79
E. May a Negative Inference Be Drawn from Assertion of the Privilege?	80
III. Elements of The Attorney-Client Privilege	84
ELEMENT 1: A Communication	85
A. Communications from Client	89
1. Client and Potential Client Questionnaires	96
a. Protection Accorded	97
b. Protection Not Accorded	100
B. Communications from Attorney	103
1. Strict Construction of Privilege	105
2. Broad Construction of Privilege	109
C. Communications About Legal Advice Among Client Employees	113
D. Communications Between Attorneys	115
E. Communications Not Encompassed Within Privilege	116
1. Facts	116
2. Existence of Attorney-Client Relationship and Identity of Client	119
3. The Fact That—and the Purpose for Which—Attorney Was Retained Are Not Privileged	125
a. What Subject Matter Was Discussed with Attorney	127
b. Pre-Engagement Communications	127
4. Foundational Issues	128
5. Fee Arrangements Generally Not Privilege Protected	131

6. Client Identity and Fee Payments in the Grand Jury or Quasi Criminal Context	140
7. Billing Statements and Hourly Records	157
8. Documents and Other Tangibles Transmitted to an Attorney	162
9. Client Interviews	167
10. Client Notes	167
11. Witness Statements	169
12. Attorney’s Notes	170
13. Drafts of Documents	171
14. Communications Between Debtor and Attorney Before Filing of Petition	173
ELEMENT 2: Privileged Persons	174
A. The Client	174
1. In General	174
2. When Is a Client Indeed a “Client”?	178
a. Temporal: When Does a Client Become a “Client” for Purposes of the Privilege?	183
b. When Can a Client Speak Through a Representative?	184
3. Corporate Entity as Client	185
a. Subject Matter and Control Group Tests	189
b. Transmission of Privileged Documents Within Corporation	198
c. Transmission of Documents Through Agent of Corporation	201
4. Related Corporate Entities	201
5. Individual Employee or Corporation as Client	203
a. The Default Assumption: The Corporation Is the Client	203
b. The Bevill Factors Must Be Shown for Privilege to Attach to Corporate Officer	205
c. Whom Is Counsel Representing in the Closely Held Corporation?	210
d. Whom Is Counsel Representing in Other Institutional Contexts?	215
e. Representational Conflict Issues	216

6. Does the Privilege Extend to Former Employees of the Corporation?	222
7. Various Corporate Agents as Representatives of Client (Functional Equivalent of an Employee and Other Agents)	233
8. Other Non-Individual Entities as Clients	238
9. Government as Client	238
a. In the Civil Context	238
b. In the Grand Jury Context	243
10. Class Members as Clients	249
11. Multiple Clients	250
12. Association Members as Clients	250
13. Fiduciary or Beneficiary as Client	251
14. Independent Contractors as Corporate Agents for Privilege Purposes	252
15. Independent Contractors as “Functional Equivalent of Employees”	255
B. Client’s Attorney	260
1. Formal Retention	260
2. When Is an Attorney an “Attorney”?	261
3. Non-Attorneys Giving Legal Advice	267
4. Attorney as In-House Counsel	270
5. Attorney as Friend or Relative	273
6. Attorney as Officer of Court	274
7. Government Agency as Attorney for Private Citizens	275
8. Insurance Company Representatives	276
C. Agents of Attorney	278
D. Retained Experts	284
E. Media Consultants	296
F. Communicating Agents	301
G. Attempts to Use Attorney as Shield to Prevent Disclosure	304
ELEMENT 3: In Confidence	305
A. Existence of Attorney-Client Relationship	306
B. Expectation of Confidentiality	307
C. Intention to Maintain Confidentiality	311

D. Intention to Reveal to Third Parties	320
E. To What Extent Are Prior Drafts of Public Filings or Third-Party Letters Discoverable?	330
F. Does the Presence of Third Parties Affect Privilege?	335
1. Family Context	344
2. Corporate Context	347
3. Governmental Context	351
4. In Jail	353
5. Co-Counsel	354
G. Common Interest	356
1. Single Attorney for Multiple Clients	369
2. Common or Joint Defense	376
3. Joint Prosecutorial Interest	382
4. Commonality of Legal Interest	382
5. Commonality of Commercial Interests	392
6. Actual or Potential Identity of Interest	396
7. Agreements to Pursue Common Interest	401
8. Adverse Interests Intertwined with Common Interests	404
9. Presence of Requisite Elements for Joint Defense/Common Interest Privilege	407
10. When Parties with Common Interests Have a Falling Out	410
11. Extent of Joint Defense or Common Interest Privilege	420
12. Waiver of Joint Privilege	422
H. Settlement Discussions	423
I. Marking Documents as Confidential	424
ELEMENT 4: For Purpose of Seeking or Obtaining Legal Assistance	425
A. Primary Purpose Must Be to Seek Advice	426
B. Implicit Request for Legal Advice Is Sufficient	433
C. Communication Is Necessary to Render Legal Advice	435
D. Client Testimony About Why Documents Were Created	439

E. Nonlegal Business Information Conveyed to Attorney	440
F. When Is Attorney Giving Legal Advice?	441
1. When Attorneys Wear Two Hats	443
2. Investigations and Legal Audits Conducted by Attorneys	448
3. Attorney as Drafter of Legal Documents	459
4. Attorney as Agent for Nonlegal Transactions	460
5. Attorney as Document Depository or Incidental Recipient of Documents	461
6. Attorney on Corporate and Other Committees	463
7. Attorney as Conduit of Information	465
8. Attorney as Business Advisor	466
9. Attorney as Business Agent	470
10. Attorney as Negotiator	472
11. Attorney as Consultant	474
12. Attorney as Lobbyist	474
13. Attorney as Political Advisor	476
14. Attorney as Tax Preparer	476
15. Attorney in Patent Law Area	483
16. Attorney as Claims Adjuster	504
a. Attorney Carbon Copied	505
b. Attorney Present at a Meeting	505
c. In-House Counsel	506
IV. Forfeiture or “Waiver” of the Attorney-Client Privilege	508
A. Reservation of the Privilege	510
B. Scope of Privilege Forfeiture	513
C. Who Has the Authority to Waive the Privilege?	518
D. What Actions and What Situations Result in Forfeiture of the Privilege?	518
1. Purposeful or Voluntary Disclosure	519
2. Partial Disclosure	533
3. Involuntary or Compelled Disclosure	538
4. Failure to Object to Disclosure	544
5. What Constitutes Failure to Protect from Disclosure	553

6. Inadvertent Disclosure	564
a. The Lenient Approach to Inadvertent Disclosure	565
b. Strict Approach for Inadvertent Disclosure	568
c. The Balancing Test for Inadvertent Disclosure	574
d. Inadvertent Production Not Excused	586
e. Inadvertent Disclosure Excused	592
E. The Effect of Rule 502 of the Federal Rules of Evidence on Negating Forfeiture Arising from Inadvertent Disclosure	601
F. Protective Orders and Inadvertent Disclosure?	619
G. Must Inadvertently Produced Documents Be Returned?	619
H. “Clawback” Agreements	623
I. Volunteering Attorney Communications During Depositions	626
J. Disclosure by Third Parties	627
K. Disclosure Between Privileged Parties	629
L. Disclosure Within Another Privilege-Protected Context	636
M. Disclosure During Settlement Discussions	637
N. Disclosure Within a Corporation	639
O. Disclosure Between Affiliated Corporations	642
P. Disclosure to Client’s Agent	644
Q. Disclosure to Selective Third Parties	645
1. Privilege Is Definitely Lost by Selective Disclosure	651
2. Selective Disclosure Does Not Definitely Lose the Privilege	659
R. Will a Confidentiality Agreement, Entered into Before Disclosure to the Government, Preclude Forfeiture in Respect to Third Parties?	661
S. Partial Disclosure	665
T. Forfeiture of Privilege by Affirmative Reliance	666
1. Forfeiture of Privilege Protection When Advice of Counsel Is Raised as a Defense	672

2.	Giving Notice of an Intent to Rely upon an Advice of Counsel Defense	692
3.	Strategies to Avoid Forfeiting the Privilege	694
a.	Choice: Abandonment of Defense of Advice of Counsel or Disclosure	694
b.	Bifurcation of Trial for Issues Which Rely on Advice of Counsel.	699
4.	When Advice of Counsel Is Merely Implicit to a Claim or a Defense	700
5.	When Advice of Counsel Is Asserted as a Reason for an Action Taken	708
6.	Waiver by “Offensive Use”	720
7.	Advice of Counsel in the Grand Jury Context.	724
8.	Reliance on Privileged Document	725
9.	Withdrawal of a Claim or Defense That Would Result in Forfeiture of Privilege	726
10.	Forfeiture of Privilege in Suits/Proceedings Where Actions or Advice of Counsel Are Placed in Issue	726
a.	In the Civil Context.	730
b.	In the Criminal Context	739
11.	Forfeiture by Reliance on Attorney’s Investigation.	747
12.	Forfeiture by Preparation of or Refreshing Recollection of Witness	749
13.	Forfeiture Where Testimony of a Witness Can Be Impeached by a Privilege-Protected Document.	754
14.	Forfeiture When an Attorney Is a Witness or When There Is Testimony Regarding Privileged Communications	756
15.	Forfeiture by Failure to Assert the Privilege . . .	759
16.	Compelled Waiver to Obtain Reduced Sentence	762
U.	Actions and Situations That Do Not Constitute Forfeiture	766

V. Scope of Forfeiture	771
1. Permanent and for All Purposes	774
a. In the Civil Litigation Context	774
b. In the Criminal Litigation Context	777
2. All Communications on Same Subject Matter.	778
3. Scope of Waiver in Context of Inadvertent Disclosure	790
a. Same Subject Matter Disclosure Not Required.	795
b. Document-by-Document Determination of Whether Disclosure Is Required	797
c. Disclosure of Subsidiary Issues Not Required.	797
4. Scope of Waiver When Attorney Advice Is at Issue	798
5. Scope of Waiver in Patent Cases.	800
a. What Discovery Is Allowed When Opinion Relied upon Is Not in Writing?	811
b. Discovery Allowed Even of Not Communicated Work Product	812
c. Discovery of Not Communicated Work Product Not Allowed	820
d. Will Discovery of Trial Counsel’s Work Product Be Allowed?.	823
(1) Discovery of Trial Counsel’s Work Product Allowed	823
(2) Discovery of Trial Counsel’s Work Product Not Allowed	824
(3) Discovery of Trial Counsel’s Work Product Allowed but Only if Communicated to Client	825
e. Will Discovery of Trial Counsel’s Work Product Be Allowed After Suit Is Filed?.	826
W. Attorney’s Ethical Obligations upon Receipt of Privileged Documents	829
X. Policy Considerations Implicated in Scope of Waiver.	834

V. Exceptions to Application of the Attorney-Client Privilege	836
A. The Fiduciary Exception	836
1. Garner Doctrine	837
2. Garner Doctrine Applied—and Then Again Not	840
3. Piercing the Privilege in Other Fiduciary Contexts	846
a. Other Corporate Contexts	846
b. ERISA Context	848
c. Insurance Context	867
d. When Banks Act as Fiduciaries	870
e. When Unions Act as Fiduciaries	871
f. When Government Acts as a Fiduciary	873
g. Partnerships	874
h. Fiduciaries in Bankruptcy Context	874
i. Attorneys as Fiduciaries	875
j. Executors	876
4. Fiduciary Exception Not Applied by Many State Courts	877
B. Crime or Fraud Exception to the Attorney-Client Privilege	878
1. Policy Reasons for Not Protecting Confidences Designed to Effect Future Crime or Fraud	884
2. Time When Legal Advice Is Sought Key to Whether Exception Is Available	887
3. Requisite Showing of Crime/Fraud	889
4. What Constitutes a Prima Facie Showing of Crime or Fraud?	908
a. Prima Facie Finding Made	929
b. Prima Facie Case Not Made	938
5. Problems Surrounding the Requisite in Camera Review	940
6. Extent to Which the Privilege Is Lost	949
7. Reliance on Prior Proceedings and Findings	952
8. Bankruptcy Context	953
9. Patent Law Context	954

10. Reaching Privileged Communications in Furtherance of a Tort	955
11. Reaching Privileged Communications in Furtherance of Breach of Fiduciary Duty	958
12. Reaching Privileged Communications in Context of Other Improper Behavior	959
13. Dangers Attendant upon Subpoenas Issued by Prosecutors Against Attorneys	971
14. Miscellaneous Considerations	972
C. Overriding Public Policy Exception	973
D. In Sixth Amendment Context	975
VI. Criminal Convictions Based on Attorney Testimony	975
VII. Survival of the Attorney-Client Privilege.	983
A. The Death or Transformation of the Client	983
1. The Individual Client	983
2. The Corporate Client	991
3. The Partnership	993
B. The Death or Transformation of the Attorney	994
C. Sale of Corporation or Corporate Assets	995
VIII. Attorney-Client Privilege in International Context . . .	997
A. Recognition of the Privilege Abroad	997
B. Recognition of Foreign Attorney's Privilege by United States Courts	1001
C. Choice of Law	1003
IX. Ethical Concerns	1004
A. Maintaining Client Confidences	1005
B. Whistle-Blowing in the Civil and Criminal Context	1007
C. In-House Lawyers Suing Former Employer/ Client for Wrongful Discharge.	1009
D. Attorneys Providing Privileged Information Against Clients	1020
E. Disqualification of Counsel	1025
F. Interviewing Former Corporation Employees as Witnesses.	1027

G. Returning Privileged Documents	1029
H. Attorney's Conflict of Interest and Its Effect on Privilege	1033
X. Constitutional Issues	1033
XI. Strategic Issues	1035
A. Gamesmanship as an Area of Judicial Concern.	1035
B. Choice of Forum	1036
C. Much Ado About Nothing or What Is the Fight About?	1037

Volume II

PART 2

The Work-Product Protection

I. Purpose and Scope of Work-Product Protection	1039
A. History and Policy of Work-Product Protection	1042
B. Codification of Work-Product Protection.	1044
1. Civil Discovery Rule.	1045
2. Criminal Discovery Rule	1048
3. Availability of Work-Product Protection in Other Proceedings	1049
a. Grand Jury	1049
b. Other Investigations	1050
c. Trials	1051
d. State Court Proceedings	1051
e. Arbitrations	1051
f. FOIA Requests	1052
C. Scope of Work-Product Protection.	1053
D. Discovery of Underlying Facts	1055
II. Procedural Matters	1056
A. Applicable Law	1056
B. Standing to Assert or Waive Protection	1058
C. Burden of Proof.	1066
D. Client's Right to Work Product	1069

III. Elements of Work-Product Protection	1071
ELEMENT 1: Documents and Tangible Things Otherwise Discoverable	1072
ELEMENT 2: Prepared in Anticipation of Litigation or for Trial	1081
A. What Constitutes Litigation?	1084
B. What Constitutes “Anticipation”?	1094
1. Time When Work Product Is Prepared	1094
2. Likelihood of Litigation	1097
3. Requisite Specificity of Claims	1104
4. Time as Continuum	1110
5. Facts Indicative of “Anticipation”.	1111
C. Causation: In Anticipation of Litigation from a Motivational Perspective	1114
1. Internal Investigations or Business Audits.	1125
2. Tax and Business-Related Documents	1129
3. Implementation-of-Policy Documents	1132
4. Settlement Documents	1132
5. Business Strategy Documents	1134
6. Routine Investigatory Documents	1135
7. Assessments of Litigation as Work Product.	1140
8. Patent Filings	1141
D. Indicia of Primary Motivation.	1141
1. Designating Documents as Work-Product Protected	1143
2. Participation of Attorney	1143
3. Commentary on Ongoing Litigation	1147
4. Routine Business Practice.	1148
5. Dual Purpose Documents: For Business and Litigation.	1153
6. Avoidance of Litigation	1163
7. Settlement Documents	1163
E. Review of Preexisting Documents	1164
F. Attorney’s Non-Litigation Activity.	1165
G. Extent of Protection	1167
1. If No Litigation Ensues	1167
2. In Current Litigation Only.	1168

3. In Subsequent Litigation.	1170
4. Protection After Litigation Has Terminated	1178
H. Insurance Company Files.	1179
I. False Claims Act Disclosure Statements to Government	1184
J. Mechanisms for Enhancing Likelihood That Work-Product Protection Will Be Granted.	1187
ELEMENT 3: By or for Another Party or That Party's Representative.	1189
IV. Qualifications on Work-Product Protection.	1197
A. Substantial Need	1200
1. Nature of Substantial Need Must Be Specifically Articulated	1201
2. Cost Alone Does Not Constitute Substantial Need	1201
3. Unavailable Witness	1202
a. Dead Witness	1203
b. Witness Beyond Court's Reach	1204
c. Witness Who Claims Privilege.	1204
d. Witness with Faulty Memory	1204
e. Hostile Witness.	1208
4. Disclosure at Trial Likely	1208
5. Work-Product Probative of Key Issue in Litigation	1209
6. Possible Rebuttal and Possible Impeachment	1212
7. Most Reliable Available Information	1214
8. Substantial Need Not Shown	1215
B. Unable to Obtain Substantial Equivalent by Other Means without Undue Hardship	1216
1. No Readily Available Alternative Means	1217
2. Cost as a Factor of Undue Hardship	1220
C. Balancing Need for Information Against Work-Product Protection Policies	1223

V. Protecting Attorney’s Mental Impressions	1224
A. Rule Implies Absolute Protection
Is to Be Accorded.	1224
1. Prior Drafts	1233
2. Litigation Strategy	1235
3. Assessment of Litigation and Likelihood of Success.	1235
4. Attorney’s Notes.	1236
B. Exceptions to Absolute Protection Given to Opinion Work Product	1238
1. Attorney as Expert Witness	1238
2. Attorney’s Opinion Relevant to Prove Issue in Dispute	1239
3. Attorney’s Actions Relevant to Issue in Dispute.	1240
4. Obtaining Work Product of Plaintiff’s Attorney to Prove Defendant’s Defense	1241
5. Obtaining Work Product of Defendant’s Attorney to Prove Plaintiff’s Claim.	1244
C. Specific Categories of Documents	1246
1. Litigation Reserves	1246
2. Insurance Reserves	1248
3. Fee Arrangements in Multiple Party Cases	1250
4. Litigation Assessments	1250
5. Reduction in Force Work Papers	1250
6. Document Organization, Selection, Indexes.	1251
7. Insurance Company Files	1251
8. Data Compilations.	1255
9. Witness Statements.	1256
10. Witness Identities	1267
a. Identities of Witnesses Interviewed Work-Product Protected	1268
b. Identities of Witnesses Interviewed Not Work-Product Protected.	1270
11. Witness Preparation	1273
12. Settlement Negotiations	1277

13. Tape Recordings	1277
14. Third-Party Business Records in Possession of Counsel	1278
VI. Waiver of the Work-Product Protection	1279
A. Relation to Waiver of Attorney-Client Privilege	1279
B. Who May Waive the Work-Product Protection?	1283
C. Disclosure	1286
1. Disclosure to an Adversary	1291
2. Disclosure to a Party with a Common Litigation or Commercial Interest	1296
3. Disclosure to a Party without a Common Litigation or Commercial Interest	1307
4. To a Governmental Agency	1311
a. Compelled Disclosure	1311
b. Voluntary Disclosure	1314
5. Within a Corporate Entity or the Government	1321
6. Public Allusion to Work-Product Content Does Not Necessarily Constitute Disclosure	1323
D. Reasonable Expectation of Confidentiality	1323
1. To an Independent Auditor	1324
a. Waived	1324
b. Not Waived	1325
2. To or From a Testifying Expert	1327
a. Cases Requiring Full Disclosure Even of Core Work Product	1329
b. Cases Not Requiring Disclosure of Core Work Product	1341
c. When a Testifying Expert Is or Was Also a Consulting Expert	1345
3. To a Non-Testifying Expert	1346
4. To Outside Auditors	1348
a. Protection Waived	1350
b. Protection Not Waived	1351
c. More Proof Required	1351

5. Inadvertent Disclosure of Work-Product Protected Documents	1351
6. Attempted Recapture of Work-Product Protection.	1353
E. Mandated Filings.	1355
F. Selective Waiver.	1355
1. To Governmental Agency	1355
2. Disclosure for Settlement Purposes.	1363
3. Partial or Manipulative Disclosure.	1365
G. Effect of “Advice of Counsel Defense” on Attorney’s Work Product	1367
H. Affirmative Use	1369
1. Reliance on Protected Material	1369
2. “At Issue”.	1374
3. Attorney as Expert Witness	1376
4. Use at Trial.	1377
5. Witness Preparation and Rule 612.	1379
I. Extent of Waiver	1386
J. Anticipatory Waiver.	1391
K. Disclosure to Client.	1392
VII. Exceptions to the Work-Product Protection.	1394
A. Witness Statements	1394
B. Experts	1394
1. Testifying Experts.	1394
2. Non-Testifying Experts.	1404
C. Surveillance Tapes	1406
D. Attorney’s Conduct in Issue.	1407
E. Crime or Fraud	1407
1. Protection Can Be Claimed by Either Attorney or Client	1413
2. Considering Actions of Attorney and Client	1419
3. Prima Facie Case in Work-Product Protection Context.	1423
4. Heightened Standard When Claim Made That Litigation Itself Is in Furtherance of Crime/Fraud.	1426

F. Fiduciary Exception in Work-Product Context . . . 1426
G. Work Product When Common Interest Exists . . . 1430
H. Insurance Company Files. 1432
I. Right of Trustee-in-Bankruptcy to Attorney
Work Product 1433
J. No Protection for Third-Party Work Product 1434

PART 3

Factors Common to Both the Attorney-Client Privilege and the Work-Product Protection

1437

I. Underlying Facts Not Privilege Protected. 1437
II. Redaction 1440
III. Procedural Issues 1445
A. Privilege Applicable in All Proceedings 1445
1. Privilege Issues in Arbitration. 1447
2. Privilege Issues in Grand Jury Proceedings 1447
B. Which Courts May Enforce Subpoena of
Privileged Documents? 1448
C. Which Law Governs Attorney-Client
Privilege and Work-Product Protection? 1449
1. Conflicts-of-Law Issues as to Applicable Law 1460
2. Comity of Law Principles in Foreign
Law Context 1466
3. Proving and Applying Foreign Law 1470
4. Providing Translations 1472
5. Choice-of-Law Issues in Patent Cases. 1473
6. Choice-of-Law Issues in Bankruptcy
Context 1477
D. Specific and Timely Assertions of the Privilege or Work-Product Protection 1477
E. Sustaining Burden of Proof 1483
1. No Blanket or Boilerplate Assertions of Attorney-Client Privilege or Work-
Product Protection 1490

2. Demonstrating Applicability of Each Element	1495
3. Demonstrating Forfeiture or an Existence of an Exception	1502
4. How to Raise Privilege or Protection	1512
5. Marking Documents as Privileged	1520
6. Timeliness of Assertions of Privilege or Protection.	1521
F. The Creation of Privilege Logs	1522
1. What Rules Apply and What Do They Require?	1537
2. Defective Privilege Logs	1544
3. Forfeiture of Privilege Claims if Privilege Log Not Provided (Donzinger Waivers).	1548
4. Amendment of Privilege Logs Either Granted or Required	1556
5. Failure to Provide a Timely Privilege Log	1560
6. E-mail Chains and Privilege Logs	1573
7. Updating Privilege Logs	1577
G. Statistical Reviews	1578
H. Submission of Affidavits	1579
I. Conducting an Adversary Proceeding	1584
J. In Camera Inspections	1585
K. Appointment of Special Masters	1612
L. Placing Privileged Documents Under Seal	1614
M. “Clawback” Agreements to Disclose Privileged Material without Privilege Forfeiture.	1619
N. Protective Orders.	1625
O. Confidentiality Agreements	1645
P. “Chinese Walls” by Prosecutors.	1648
Q. In Limine Motions	1649
R. Status to Intervene.	1652
S. Sanctions.	1653
1. Dismissal of Action or Issue Preclusion	1653
2. Grant of Summary Judgment	1659
3. Forfeiture of Privilege/Protection Due to Failure to Assert in Timely Fashion	1659

4. Forfeiture of Privilege as Sanction for Discovery Abuse	1670
5. Monetary Sanctions	1674
6. Sanction of Loss of Work-Product Protection for Ethical Lapse	1681
T. Requisite Findings for Valid Order	1683
U. Judicial Sua Sponte Review	1684
V. Appeals	1685
1. From Ruling by the District Court	1686
2. Orders Enforcing Subpoenas on Third Parties	1691
3. From a Section 1782 Application	1699
4. From Magistrate's Ruling	1700
5. From Special Master's Ruling	1702
6. From Ruling by Administrative Law Judge	1703
W. Availability of Mandamus	1703
1. Mandamus Issued	1707
2. Mandamus Not Issued	1710
X. Standard of Review for Discovery Orders	1713
Y. Stay Orders Pending Appeal	1720
Z. Reversal of Trial Verdict	1721
AA. Mootness	1723
BB. Preclusive Effect of Prior Discovery Orders	1723
CC. Resisting Orders Issued during Trial	1724
IV. Deposing and Testifying Counsel	1725
A. Subpoena Quashed	1746
B. Subpoena Not Quashed	1751
V. Waiver of Privilege in Government Prosecutions or Investigations	1758
VI. Attorney-Client Privilege and Work-Product Protection in the Electronic Age	1760
A. Costs of Privilege Review and Cost Shifting	1761
B. Non-Waiver Agreements	1764
C. Precautions Against Forfeiture	1766
D. Computerized Word Searches for Privilege	1773

E. Personal Use of Employer’s Computer System—Is It Privilege Protected?	1776
1. No Reasonable Expectation of Privacy.	1777
2. Reasonable Expectation of Privacy.	1780
F. Seizure of Entire Hard Drives	1782
G. Sharing of Servers	1785
H. The FRCP and Digital Documents	1785
VII. “Two Strings to the Bow” Raising Both Privilege and Protection	1788
VIII. Interplay Between FOIA and Privilege/Protection	1793
IX. Conclusion: Whither the Privilege.	1801
Bibliography	1807
Table of Cases	1813
About the Author	1815