
Table of Contents

| | |
|-------------------------|-------------|
| Contributors | viii |
| About the Editor | xiv |
| Introduction | xv |

PART I: LEGACY PAYMENT SYSTEMS

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Chapter 1: Bank Systems | 3 |
| I. Checks | 4 |
| II. ACH System | 6 |
| A. Basics of the ACH System | 7 |
| B. Liability—Commercial Transactions | 8 |
| C. Liability—Consumer Transactions | 10 |
| D. Liability—Federal Government Transactions | 11 |
| E. International ACH Transfers | 11 |
| F. Common Types of ACH Transfers | 12 |
| G. ACH System Access and Security | 14 |
| H. Third-Party Senders | 15 |
| I. Continued Evolution of the ACH System | 16 |
| III. Wire Transfer Systems | 17 |
| IV. Faster Payments | 19 |
| Chapter 2: Charging Ahead—from Innovation to Industry | 21 |
| I. How It Began | 22 |
| A. New Industry Arises in Post-WWII America | 22 |
| II. Card Industry Key Players | 23 |
| A. Card Associations | 23 |
| B. Acquiring Banks | 26 |
| C. Card Issuers | 28 |

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----|
| III. Payment Processing | 29 |
| A. Transaction Authorization | 29 |
| B. Charge-Backs | 31 |
| IV. Card Products and Applicable Law | 33 |
| A. Types of Card Products | 33 |
| B. Key Laws | 35 |
| V. New Card Payment Technologies | 45 |

Chapter 3: Nonbank Money Transmitters 47

| | |
|---|----|
| I. Introduction | 47 |
| II. Types of Money Transmission | 47 |
| A. Traditional Money Transmission Businesses | 48 |
| B. New and Emerging Forms of Money Transmission | 49 |
| III. Legal and Regulatory Frameworks | 50 |
| A. Federal Regulation | 51 |
| B. State Regulation | 58 |
| C. State and Federal Penalties for Violations | 68 |
| IV. Privacy and Data Security | 71 |
| A. Federal Law | 71 |
| B. State Law | 73 |
| C. Private Industry Standards | 73 |
| V. Looking to the Future | 74 |

PART II: THE NEXT GENERATION

Chapter 4: Mobile Wallets/Mobile Payments and Peer-to-Peer Payments 77

| | |
|---|-----|
| I. Introduction | 77 |
| II. Mobile Wallets, Mobile Payments, and P2P Transfers | 79 |
| A. Mobile Banking v. Mobile Wallets/Mobile Payments | 79 |
| B. Mobile Payment Types and Products | 80 |
| C. What Mobile Wallet/Mobile Payments Technologies Change in Traditional Payments Transactions | 82 |
| III. Risks Involved with Mobile Wallets/Mobile Payments | 85 |
| A. Cost of Payments | 85 |
| B. Fraud and Data Security | 85 |
| C. Control over Customer Data | 86 |
| D. Intellectual Property Issues | 87 |
| IV. Regulatory Framework | 88 |
| A. Regulatory Frameworks Governing Transactions | 88 |
| B. Regulatory Framework Governing Privacy/Data Security | 102 |
| C. Regulatory Framework Governing General Consumer Protection | 106 |
| D. Miscellaneous Regulatory Requirements | 112 |
| V. Policy Questions and Considerations Regarding Mobile Wallets/Mobile Payments | 113 |
| A. Resolving Transaction Disputes | 113 |
| B. Data Security, Privacy, and Data Ownership | 115 |
| C. State v. Federal Regulations and Calls for Uniformity | 117 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Chapter 5: Cryptocurrency: Bitcoin and Blockchain Technology | 123 |
| I. Introduction | 123 |
| II. What is Virtual Currency and Blockchain Technology? | 124 |
| A. Functional and Technological Descriptions of Bitcoin | 124 |
| B. Blockchain and Distributed Ledger Technology | 127 |
| C. The Industry and Challenges | 130 |
| III. Legal and Operational Risks and Challenges | 135 |
| A. Risks for Virtual Currency Businesses | 135 |
| B. Risks and Challenges for Blockchain Technology | 138 |
| IV. Regulatory Responses to Virtual Currency and Blockchain Technology | 141 |
| A. Virtual Currency | 141 |
| B. Blockchain Technology | 147 |
| V. Conclusion | 149 |
| | |
| Chapter 6: Emerging Technologies: In Pursuit of Consumers— Merchant Payments via Contextual Commerce | 151 |
| I. Introduction | 152 |
| II. Key Legal and Regulatory Issues | 156 |
| A. State Money Transmission Laws/Federal BSA | 156 |
| B. FinCEN Prepaid Access Rule | 160 |
| C. Consumer Financial Protection Bureau Prepaid Accounts Rule | 163 |
| D. Compliance with PCI DSS | 165 |
| III. Conclusion | 166 |
| | |
| PART III: LEGAL AND POLICY INSIGHTS IN THE PAYMENTS ENVIRONMENT | |
| <hr/> | |
| Chapter 7: Money Laundering and Tax Enforcement: U.S. Foundations | 169 |
| I. Introduction | 169 |
| II. Money Laundering | 169 |
| III. Overview of AML Regulation in the United States | 170 |
| IV. Significant U.S. Money Laundering Legislation | 171 |
| A. BSA | 171 |
| B. Money Laundering Control Act | 171 |
| C. Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988 | 172 |
| D. Annunzio-Wylie Anti-Money Laundering Act | 173 |
| E. USA PATRIOT Act | 173 |
| V. Regulatory Administration | 175 |
| VI. Impacts of BSA/AML Regulation on Payments Systems | 176 |
| A. Depository Institutions | 177 |
| B. MSBs | 181 |
| VII. MSB Obligations to Comply with BSA | 186 |
| A. Registration | 187 |
| B. Maintenance of Agent List | 187 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| C. AML Program | 188 |
| D. Examination and Enforcement | 191 |
| VIII. OFAC | 192 |
| IX. Conclusion | 193 |
| Chapter 8: Money Laundering and Sanctions Regimes: | |
| Cross-Border Payments | 195 |
| I. Introduction | 195 |
| II. The Current European Framework: The Fourth EU Directive on AML | 197 |
| III. Proposed Amendments to the Fourth AML Directive | 198 |
| IV. Further Proposed Amendments to the Current European Framework | 200 |
| V. Recent Developments | 202 |
| Chapter 9: Regulatory Developments in the European Union: | |
| Structures and Frameworks | 207 |
| I. Reengineering European Payment Law | 207 |
| II. EU-Level Coordination | 211 |
| A. Digital Single Market Strategy | 212 |
| B. New Legal Framework for Payments | 215 |
| C. EU-Level Standard Setting | 215 |
| III. E-Money Directive II | 216 |
| IV. Payment Accounts Directive | 218 |
| V. Interchange Fee Regulation | 221 |
| VI. Single Euro Payments Area and Payment Services Directives I and II | 223 |
| A. Launch of the Single Euro Payments Area | 226 |
| B. Payment Services Directive I | 229 |
| C. Completion of the Single Euro Payments Area | 229 |
| D. Payment Services Directive II | 232 |
| VII. Instant/Faster Payments | 235 |
| VIII. Conclusion: Past as Prologue? | 237 |
| Chapter 10: E-payments Systems in the United Kingdom: | |
| Implementing EU Directives and UK Privacy Laws | 239 |
| I. Introduction | 239 |
| II. Case Study: Mike and Jenny Hill and NotjustFood Co. | 240 |
| A. Legal and Regulatory Overview | 242 |
| B. Application to NotjustFood | 247 |
| III. Conclusion | 258 |
| Chapter 11: Access to Payments and Credit in the Age of Big Data | 259 |
| I. Data Analytics: Big Data Platforms and Financial Services | 259 |
| A. Description | 259 |
| B. Regulatory Coordination | 263 |
| C. Implications of Big Data in Developing New Ways to Monetize Payment Practices | 266 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| II. Shadow Credit Reporting and Alternative Credit Metrics | 275 |
| A. Description | 275 |
| B. Social and Policy Issues | 277 |
| Chapter 12: Toward the Internet of Value: The Internet of Things and the Future of Payment Systems | 287 |
| I. A World of Interconnected Objects | 287 |
| II. The Limitations of Today's Payment Networks | 288 |
| III. Toward a World of Interconnected Payment Networks | 289 |
| IV. Legal and Policy Considerations for an Interconnected World | 290 |
| A. Identity and Access Controls | 291 |
| B. Authentication and Authorization | 292 |
| C. Privacy and Security | 294 |
| V. The Next Transformation | 296 |
| Chapter 13: Structure and Purpose of Payment Systems: Regulation in a World of Emerging Technology | 297 |
| I. Introduction: Fundamental Characteristics of Payment Systems | 297 |
| II. Payment Systems: The Emergence of Intangible Markers | 298 |
| III. Stabilizing and Standardizing Systems | 301 |
| IV. Modern Transitions: Technological and Legal Changes | 303 |
| V. Macroprudential Considerations | 307 |
| VI. Possible Futures | 311 |
| Index | 313 |