Contents

About the Author xxxiii

Preface xxxv

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION 1
   I. Objectives 1
      A. Enjoyment 2
      B. Management 2
      C. Protection against Creditors 2
      D. Tax Efficiency 2
      E. Control 2
      F. Investment Strategy 3
      G. Principal-Income Model 3
      H. Annuity Trust and Unitrust Models 3
      I. Trust Models 3
   II. Illustrations of Drafting to Approach Benefits (but Not Burdens) of Outright Ownership 5

CHAPTER 2 THE REAL ATTRACTION OF BYPASS TRUSTS 7
   I. Avoiding Distortion 9
   II. Effects of Instability 10
   III. Drafting for Whether a Tax Is “in Effect” 10
      A. Form 2.1: Rules of Construction 11
      B. Purpose of Form 2.1 11
CHAPTER 3   THE BUILDING BLOCKS FOR PAYMENTS TO BENEFICIARIES

Part One

Primary Beneficiaries

Subpart 1

Mandatory Payments

I. Mandate to Accumulate Income
   A. Form 3.1: Trustee Directed to Accumulate Income
   B. Taxation of Ordinary Income

II. Mandate to Pay Income
   A. Form 3.2: Trustee Directed to Pay Income to Single Distributee
   B. Form 3.3: Trustee Directed to Pay Income to Plural Distributees
   C. Taxation of Ordinary Income

III. Mandate to Pay Principal
   A. Form 3.4: Fixed Number of Dollars
      1. Income Tax Results of Form 3.4
      2. Drafting of Form 3.4
   B. Fixed Fraction of Residue
      1. Form 3.5: Fixed Fraction
      2. Drafting of Form 3.5
   C. Formula-Determined Gifts
      1. Form 3.6: Exemption-Shelter Gift
         a. Purpose of Form 3.6
         b. Drafting of Form 3.6
      2. Form 3.7: Marital-Deduction Gift
         a. Purpose of Form 3.7
         b. Drafting of Form 3.7
      3. Income Tax Results of Form 3.7

Subpart 2

Discretionary Distributions

I. Independent Trustee Possesses Discretion
   A. Form 3.8: Discretion of Independent Trustee to Pay to Single Distributee
   B. Form 3.9: Discretion of Independent Trustee to Pay to Plural Distributees
   C. Taxation of Income
D. Drafting for Discretion of Independent Trustee 19
   1. Form 3.10: Optional Limitation: Statement of Purpose Concerning Discretion 20
   2. Form 3.11: Optional Limitation: Precatory Preference for Specified Person(s) 21
   3. Form 3.12: Optional Limitation: Treatment of Distributions as Advancements 22
   4. Special Drafting for Avoidance of Claims of Creditors 22
   5. Special Drafting for Beneficiaries with Disabilities 22
   6. Marital-Deduction Planning for Spouse Who Is Insolvent or Has Disability 23

II. Nonindependent Trustee Possesses Discretion 23
   A. Form 3.13: Discretion of Nonindependent Trustee to Pay to Single Distributee 23
   B. Form 3.14: Discretion of Nonindependent Trustee to Pay to Plural Distributees 23
   C. Tax Issues 24
   D. Solutions 24
      1. Preventing (i) Ownership (for Tax Purposes) Because of Powers to Pay to Self and (ii) Gifts Because of Powers to Pay to Others 24
      2. Preventing Ownership Because of Powers to Discharge Legal Obligations by Payment to Other Than Power Holder 26
         a. Form 3.15: Removal of Discretion 26
         b. Form 3.16: Prohibition of Payment 26
         c. Purpose of Forms 3.15 and 3.16 27
         d. Drafting of Forms 3.15 and 3.16 28
         e. Form 3.17: Authorization of Certain Payments “For” Beneficiary 31
            f. Purpose of Form 3.17 31
      3. Drafting of Ascertainable Standards 31
         a. Consideration, Versus Nonconsideration, of Other Resources 32
         b. “Shall” Versus “May” 36
         c. “Necessary or Advisable” 37
         d. Relationships Among Issues 37
         e. Conclusive Determination 37
IV. Reasons for the Rule

A. Deficiencies of Preexisting Law 53
B. Evidence of Dissatisfaction 53

V. Accommodation of Modern-Portfolio Theory 53

A. First Principle of the Theory: Risks of Shortfall 54
1. Two Risks of Shortfall 54
2. Market Risk 55
3. Nonmarket Risk 56
4. Prime Duty 56
B. Second Principle of the Theory: Ability to Outperform the Market 57

VI. Trusts That Are Designed for Diminished Distinction Between Income and Principal 57

A. General Principles 57
1. Form 3.23: Maximum Distinction Between Income and Principal 58
2. Form 3.24: Reduced Distinction 58
3. Form 3.25: Distinction Further Reduced 59
4. Form 3.26: Distinction Eliminated 59
5. Form 3.27: Facilitating the Reduced Distinction 60
6. Form 3.28: Special Drafting for Marital Deduction 60
7. Special Caution if Trustee Has Beneficial Interest 60

Part Three
Modern Styles of Distributions 61

Subpart 1
Annuity Trusts and Unitrusts 61
I. Form 3.29: Annuity Trust Example 61
II. Form 3.30: Conventional Unitrust Example 61
III. Rationales and Characteristics 62
IV. Mandated-Percentage Unitrusts 64
A. Form 3.31: Mandated Percentage Unitrust 64
B. Rationale and Characteristics of Form 3.31 64

Subpart 2
Primary Beneficiary Possesses Nonfiduciary Discretion: Withdrawable-Percentage (“Give-Me-Five”) Unitrusts 65
I. Two Versions 66
A. Form 3.32: Withdrawable-Percentage (“Give-Me-Five”) Unitrust Example: First Version 66
Contents

B. Form 3.33: Withdrawable-Percentage (“Give-Me-Five”)
   Unitrust Example: Second Version 66

II. Transfer Tax Implications and Planning 66

III. Rationale and Characteristics 67

IV. First and Second Versions 68

V. Advantages 69

VI. Exercise of the Power 70

VII. Vulnerability to Creditors 71

VIII. Transfer Tax Implications of Rights of Creditors 75

IX. Conclusion Regarding Effects of Creditor Rights 77

X. Management of Income Tax Liability of Donee 78

XI. Income Tax Implications and Planning 78
   A. Portion Deemed Owned According to Code Section 678 78
   B. Recognition of Gain and Loss Upon Satisfaction 83
      1. Primary Theory 83
      2. Possible Extension of Nonrecognition 91
      3. Grantor-Trust Theory 93
      4. Conclusions Regarding Recognition of Gain and Loss 93

XII. Instruments of Withdrawal 94
   A. Form 3.34: Direction and Assignment 94
   B. Form 3.35: Covering Letter 96

XIII. Interface Between Income Tax and Transfer Tax Implications, and Planning for It 97
   A. Form 3.36: Mandate to Pay Marginal Tax Attributable to Lapsed Power 98
   B. Purpose of Form 3.36 98

XIV. Conclusion 99

Part Four

Unitrusts and Annuity Trusts, Trust-Accounting Income and Principal, “Ordering” Rules, and Code Section 643 Regulations 100

Part Five

Other Beneficiaries: Discretionary Distributions 106

Nonindependent Person Possesses Nonfiduciary Discretion (Powers of Appointment)
Subpart 1

During Life of Power Holder 106
   I. Form 3.37: Nongeneral Power of Appointment 106
      A. Effects of Possession and Exercise 106
B. Preventing General Power of Appointment Because of Power Holder’s Powers to Pay to Other Than Self 107
C. Value of Gift That Results from Exercise of Nongeneral Power of Appointment 107

II. Form 3.38: Power to Withdraw Entire Trust Estate if Power Holder Survives One or More Others 108
   A. Rationale of Form 3.38 109
   B. Applicability of Form 3.38 109
III. Form 3.39: Limited Right to Withdraw from QTIP 109
   A. Purpose of Form 3.39 109
   B. Income Tax Results of Form 3.39 109
IV. Right to Withdraw Versus Mandatory Distribution 109
   A. Form 3.40: Marital‑Deduction Trust 109
   B. Form 3.41: Trust for Descendant 109
   C. Purpose of Forms 3.40 and 3.41 110

Subpart 2
After Death of Power Holder 111
   I. Form 3.42: Nongeneral Power of Appointment Exercisable by Will 111
   II. Estate and Gift Tax Effects of Form 3.42 111
   III. Additional Protection Against General Power of Appointment 111

Subpart 3
General Power of Appointment Exercisable by Will to Subject Property to Estate Tax, Avoid Generation‑Skipping Tax, and Reduce Income Tax 112
   I. According to Nonformula Mandate 112
   II. According to Formula That Beneficiary Can Control 112
   III. Form 3.43: According to Discretion of Independent Trustee 113
      A. Portion One‑Portion Two System 120
      B. Effect of Severances Upon Placement of Rights to Withdraw: Qualified Severances and Inclusion in Gross Estate of Settlor According to Code Sections 2036(a (2) and 2038(a)(1) 120
      C. Purpose and Method of Discretion to Grant GPOA 121
      D. One‑Part Versus Two‑Part Appointive Portion 122
      E. Models for Common Situations 125
      F. One‑Part Portion in Which GPOA Can Exist: Should a GPOA Exist Unless Revoked, or Should a GPOA Not Exist Unless Affirmatively Granted? 127
G. A Limitation 128
H. Risk of Inclusion in Gross Estate of Settlor According to Code Sections 2036(a)(2) and 2038(a)(1) 128
I. Limitation of Deemed Existence 130
J. Prevention of Manipulation 130
K. Qualified Severances 130
L. Separate Trusts of Different Transferors 133
M. Example 10 at Treasury Regulations Section 26.2642–6(j) 133
N. Two-Part Portion in Which GPOA Can Exist:
   Absorption of Estate Tax Exemption of Spouse of Primary Beneficiary 135
O. Two-Part Portion in Which GPOA Can Exist:
   Tandem Use with (i) One or More Other Two-Part Appointive Portions or (ii) One or More One-Part Appointive Portions 136
P. Two-Part Portion in Which GPOA Can Exist: Single, Per Stirpital Disposition for Each Descendant 136
Q. Two-Part Portion in Which GPOA Can Exist: Use of Delaware Tax Trap to Manipulate GPOA 137
R. Reimbursement of Marginal Tax 138
S. Improvement of Bases for Income Tax Purposes 138
T. Optimal Scope of “Appointive Portion” 139
IV. Conclusion 142

CHAPTER 4 USE OF EXEMPTIONS 143
Part One
Ownership and Payment Arrangements 143
Part Two
The Reluctant Donor 146
   I. Inter Vivos QTIP Trust 146
   II. Agreement Between the Spouses 146
Part Three
Why Not Deduct? 147
Part Four
Why Not Shelter? 148
Part Five
The Various Credits 149
   I. Credit of Applicable Credit Amount 149
   II. Credit for State Death Tax 149
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>III. Credit for Tax on Prior Transfers</td>
<td>150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Other Credits</td>
<td>150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V. Deductions</td>
<td>150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Part Six</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Why Pay Rather Than Defer?</td>
<td>151</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Part Seven</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Preserving the Choices</td>
<td>152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Part Eight</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Protecting Includable Transfers Against Short Survival</td>
<td>154</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. Planning for Wealthier Spouse</td>
<td>154</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Form 4.1: Formula Marital-Deduction, Credit-Shelter Arrangement</td>
<td>154</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Form 4.2: Simple Will</td>
<td>155</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Drafting of Form 4.1</td>
<td>155</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II. Planning for Less Wealthy Spouse</td>
<td>156</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Form 4.3: Formula Marital-Deduction, Credit-Shelter Arrangement</td>
<td>156</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Form 4.4: Simple Will</td>
<td>157</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Drafting</td>
<td>157</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Part Nine</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Receptacles for Spousal Disclaimers</td>
<td>157</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. Form 4.5: Special “Disclaimer” Trust</td>
<td>158</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Purpose of Form 4.5</td>
<td>159</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Drafting of Form 4.5</td>
<td>159</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II. Existing Trust</td>
<td>159</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. Existing Trust, with Modifications</td>
<td>160</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Special “Disclaimer” Trust, Created by Reference to Existing</td>
<td>160</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trust</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V. Original Trust</td>
<td>160</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Part Ten</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Enhancing the Use of Spousal Disclaimers That Salvage Exemptions but</td>
<td>161</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Do Not Forgo Enjoyment</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. Form 4.6: Outright to Spouse by Joint Tenancy, Beneficiary Designation, or Bequest but, if Spouse Disclaims, in Sheltered Disposition for Primary Benefit of Spouse</td>
<td>161</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Purpose and Drafting of Form 4.6</td>
<td>162</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Effect of Beneficiary Designation</td>
<td>163</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Enhanced Importance of Disclaimers</td>
<td>163</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
II. Form 4.7: Gift of Interest in IRA or Qualified Plan Outright to Spouse but, if Spouse Disclaims, in Sheltered Disposition for Primary Benefit of Spouse 166

III. Form 4.8: Effect of Disclaimer Upon Sizes of Marital and Credit-Shelter Dispositions 166
   A. Purpose of Form 4.8 166
   B. Reversal of Effect of Form 4.8 168

IV. Form 4.9: Effect of Disclaimer Upon Size and Inclusion Ratio of GST-Exemption Disposition Examples 168
   A. Purpose of Form 4.9 169
   B. Drafting of Form 4.9 169

Part Eleven
Qualified Terminable Interest Property 173
I. Form 4.10: Partial Elections 173
   A. Drafting of Form 4.10 174
   B. Allocation of Charges; Severance of Portions 174
II. Alternative Methods of “Fine-Tuning” the Election 174
III. Using “Clayton QTIPs” to Defer Decoupled State Death Taxes 175
   A. Form 4.11: “Clayton QTIP” 177
   B. Tax Sensitivity of Power to Elect 180

CHAPTER 5  INCREASE OF BASIS 181

CHAPTER 6  DISPOSITIVE CONFIGURATIONS 183
Part One
Arrangements for Present Benefit of More Than One Person 183
I. General Characteristics 183
II. Form 6.1: “Pot” Trust Until Youngest Child Attains Certain Age 183
   A. Purposes of Form 6.1 184
   B. Drafting of Form 6.1 184
III. Form 6.2: Single Trust for All Descendants, and Optionally Spouse, of Settlor 184
   A. Purposes of Form 6.2 185
   B. Drafting of Form 6.2 186
IV. Form 6.3: Separate Trusts, for Descendants, Per Stirpes, and Their Descendants 186
   A. Purposes of Form 6.3 188
   B. Infrequent Use Before Death of Survivor of Settlor and Spouse 188
Part Two
Arrangements for Present Benefit of One Person
   I. Form 6.4: Division into Shares 189
   II. Form 6.5: Outright Dispositions of Shares 189
   III. Form 6.6: Dispositions in Separate Trust for Particular Descendant Until Stated Age(s) or for Life 189
      A. Drafting of Form 6.6 191
      B. Addition of Spouse as Permissible Appointee 191
   IV. Form 6.7: Testamentary Power of Appointment of Predeceased Child 192
      A. Drafting of Form 6.7 192
      B. Addition of Descendants of Deceased Child as Beneficiaries 193

Part Three
Discretion to Create New Trust(s) from Trust for Present Benefit of More Than One Person
   I. Form 6.8: Creation of Separate Trusts 193
   II. Purpose and Drafting of Form 6.8 193

CHAPTER 7 ALLOCATION OF DEATH COSTS 195
   I. Executor Shall Pay or Direct Trustee to Pay, Subject to Specified Reimbursement and Apportionment 195
      A. Form 7.1: Charges and Taxes 195
      B. Purpose and Drafting of Form 7.1 198
   II. Trustee of Revocable Trust Shall Pay to Extent That Estate Is Insufficient or Executor Directs 198
      A. Form 7.2: Charges and Taxes 198
      B. Purpose and Drafting of Form 7.2 200
   III. Tax Attributable to Marital-Deduction Trusts Upon Death of Surviving Spouse of Settlor 200
      A. Form 7.3 200
      B. Purpose of Form 7.3 201
      C. Form 7.4: Exoneration of GST-Exempt Marital Trust Created by Mandate 201
      D. Purpose of Form 7.4 203
      E. Form 7.5: Exoneration of GST-Exempt Marital Trust Created by Discretion 203
      F. Purpose of Form 7.5 204
G. Tax Attributable to State-Only QTIP Marital-Deduction Trust Upon Death of Surviving Spouse of Settlor
   1. Form 7.6 204
   2. Purpose of Form 7.6 205
   3. Form 7.7: Exoneration of GST-Exempt State-Only QTIP Marital Trust 205
   4. Purpose of Form 7.7 206

IV. Equitable Apportionment 207
   A. Form 7.8 207
   B. Purpose of Form 7.8 208

V. Irrevocable Insurance Trusts 210

CHAPTER 8 SPECIAL DISPOSITION PROVISIONS: DISCOUNTABLE INTERESTS 211

I. First Scenario 212

II. Second Scenario 213
   A. The Objective 213
      1. Form 8.1 215
      2. Purpose of Form 8.1 216
   B. Implications of Chenoweth 216
   C. Avoidance of Phantom Transfers 218
   D. Effect of Fiduciary Discretion to Allocate Assets to Dispositions 219
   E. Techniques to Remove Control Premiums 219
      1. Combined Use of Lifetime and Deathtime Transfers 219
      2. Deathtime Transfers Only 219
   F. Summary of Second-Scenario Strategies 223

III. Third Scenario 224

IV. Fourth Scenario 228
   A. Discounted Interests and Objective Number One 228
   B. Nondiscounted Interests and Objective Number Two 229
   C. Summary of Results 229
   D. Flexibility to Pay Tax: Objective Number Three 230
   E. Uncertain Law 230
   F. Tensions 231
   G. Single Asset—Single Trust 232
   H. Reduction of Costs 233
VI. Implementation of Deathtime Planning 233
   A. Death Costs 233
      1. Will of Settlor 233
      2. Revocable Trust of Settlor 233
   B. Form 8.2: Specific-Asset-QTIPs and Residuary-QTIP System 233
   C. Form 8.3: Special Interests QTIPs, Control Interest QTIPs, and Residuary QTIP System 238

CHAPTER 9 DIFFERENT INTERESTS AND POWERS BUT EQUAL VALUES FOR DIFFERENT CHILDREN: ALLOCATIONS, ADVANCEMENTS, CHARGES, CONTROL DEVICES, MERGERS, MIXING BOWLS, AND OPTIONS 247
   I. “Overall Design” 247
   II. Symmetrical and Hotchpot Arrangements 247
   III. Limitations and Extensions 249
   IV. Separation of Control and Enjoyment 249
      A. Beneficiary as Plenary or Special Trustee 250
      B. Shifting the Right to Vote 250
      C. Reconfiguration of Assets 250
   V. Discretionary Allocations 250
   VI. Mergers 251
   VII. “Mixing Bowls” 251
   VIII. Options 252
   IX. Similarities and Differences 252
   X. Proliferation of Dispositions 253
   XI. Posturing the Vehicles 254
   XII. Methodology 255
   XIII. Conclusion Regarding Allocations and Advancements 256
   XIV. Special Allocations 256
      A. Form 9.1: Mandatory 256
      B. Methodology of Form 9.1 257
      C. Form 9.2: Precatory 258
      D. Form 9.3: Discretionary 258
      E. Purpose and Drafting of Form 9.3 259
   XV. Advancements 259
      A. Form 9.4: Lifetime Transfers as Advancements Against Deathtime Shares 260
B. Form 9.5: Equalization by Pecuniary Gift 261
C. Form 9.6: Deathtime Transfers as Advancements Against Other Deathtime Transfers 261

XVI. Form 9.7: Charges 261

XVII. Form 9.8: Restricted Stock 262

XVIII. Form 9.9: Mergers 262

XIX. Mixing Bowls 262
   A. Form 9.10: Mixing Bowl (Not Created by Exercise of Power of Appointment) 262
   B. Form 9.11: Mixing Bowl (Created by Exercise of Power of Appointment) 263
   C. Purpose and Drafting of Form 9.10 and Form 9.11 264

XX. Options 265
   A. Form 9.12: Purchase Rights 265
   B. Purpose and Drafting of Form 9.12 266

XXI. A Precis on Prorata and Nonprorata Allocations of Assets Among Fractional-Share Dispositions 267
   A. The Purpose 267
      1. Form 9.13 267
      2. Purpose of Form 9.13 267
      3. The Underlying Law 267
         a. Form 9.14 269
         b. Form 9.15 269
         c. Purpose of Form 9.14 and Form 9.15 269
         d. Pick-and-Choose Authority 270
      4. Unrealized Gain and Skewing of Values 271
   B. Prorata Allocation and Minimal Deviation According to Pick-and-Choose Authority 273
      1. System A 273
      2. System B 274
   C. Methodology of Nonprorata Allocation 274
      1. Examples 275
      2. Distinctions Between Income and Principal 278

CHAPTER 10  SPECIAL DISPOSITIVE PROVISIONS FOR GIFTS DURING INCAPACITY 281
   I. Form 10.1: Gifts According to Revocable Trust and Power of Attorney 281
   II. Purpose and Drafting of Form 10.1 283
CHAPTER 11  SEVERANCES OF TRUSTS INTO GST EXEMPT, GST NONEXEMPT, AND OTHER PORTIONS

I. Form 11.1: Authorization to Sever and Segregate
   A. Purpose of Form 11.1
   B. Drafting of Form 11.1

II. Availability of a Qualified Severance (i) if the Severance Changes Beneficial Interests or Otherwise Coincides with Changes in Beneficial Interests and (ii) if Remainder Dispositions Are Outright
   A. Issues
   B. Analysis
      1. Simultaneous Severance and Change
      2. Alteration of Sequence
      3. Severance Before Change
      4. Change Before Severance
      5. A Disquieting Example
      6. Remainder Dispositions Outright
   C. Conclusion
   D. Drafting
      1. Form 11.3: Direction of Qualified Severance
      2. Form 11.4: Notice of Qualified Severance
      3. Grant of General Power of Appointment
      4. Form 11.5: Allocation of Assets Between Exempt and Nonexempt Portions
      5. Purpose of Form 11.5

CHAPTER 12  SPECIAL DISPOSITIVE PROVISIONS MISCELLANEOUS

I. Tax Elections and Beneficial Interests
II. Irrevocable Insurance Trusts
   A. Form 12.1: Payment of Death Costs
   B. Purpose of Form 12.1
   C. Form 12.2: Marital-Deduction Disposition
   D. Purpose of Form 12.2
   E. Form 12.3: Crummey Powers for Trust That Has None
   F. Purpose of Form 12.3
   G. Form 12.4: Deferral of Division
   H. Purpose and Drafting of Form 12.4
I. Form 12.5: Treatment as Advance; Avoidance of Taxable Lapse 319
J. Purpose and Drafting of Form 12.5 319

III. Tangible Personal Property 319
A. Form 12.6: Gifts to a Class 319
B. Purpose and Drafting of Form 12.6 319
C. Form 12.7: Disposition by Memorandum 320
D. Purpose and Drafting of Form 12.7 320

IV. Residences 320
A. Form 12.8: Outright Gift 320
   1. Drafting of Form 12.8 320
   2. Income Tax Results of Form 12.8 321
B. Form 12.9: Retention in Trust 321
   1. Purpose and Drafting of Form 12.9 322
   3. Rental Value as Income 323
   4. Marital Deduction 323
   5. Effect Upon Mortgage Debt 323

V. Form 12.10: Insurance That One Spouse owns on Life of the Other 324

VI. Form 12.11: Pour-overs: “Backup” Systems 324

VII. “Savings” Clauses 324
A. Form 12.12: Marital Deduction 324
B. Form 12.13: Code Section 2503(c) or 2642(c) Trust 325
C. Form 12.14: Charitable Trust 325

VIII. Power of Trustee to Reform or Amend 325
A. Form 12.15: General 326
B. Form 12.16: Charitable Remainder Trust 326
C. Form 12.17: Wholly Charitable Trust 326

IX. Form 12.18: Sources of Deductible and Nondeductible Gifts 326

X. Form 12.19: Powers of Appointment That Increase Flexibility but Preclude Diversion 327

XI. Form 12.20: Authority for Fiduciaries to Receive Compensation 328

XII. Distributions to Present Spouse 328
A. Form 12.21: Alternative #1 328
B. Form 12.22: Alternative #2 328
C. Purpose of Form 12.21 and Form 12.22 328
XIII. Form 12.23: “Pour-Back,” from Revocable Trust to Probate Estate 329

XIV. Form 12.24: Direct Distribution to Beneficiary Rather Than Through Trust 329

XV. Form 12.25: Release of Powers 329

XVI. Form 12.26: Consolidation of Trusts 329

XVII. Form 12.27: Accumulated Income 330

CHAPTER 13 AVOIDING AND ATTRACTING GRANTOR-TRUST TREATMENT 331

Part One

Exclusion of Income from Gross Income of Grantor 332

I. Methodology 332

II. Specimen Trusts 333

A. Code Section 2503(c) Trusts 333

B. Code Section 2642(c) Trusts 333

C. Trust, with Crummey Powers, for One Non-Skip Person 334

D. Trust, without Crummey Powers, for Primary Benefit of One Person 334

III. Specimen Powers and Interests 334

A. Powers and Interests That Can Transfer Trust Estate to Grantor or Spouse of Grantor 334

B. Powers and Interests That Cannot Transfer Trust Estate to, but Can Divert Trust Estate from, Grantor and Spouse of Grantor 335

IV. Distributions to Grantor and Spouse of Grantor: Code Sections 673, 676, and 677 336

A. Enjoyment Deferred until Prior Death(s) and Contingent on Survival: A Framework for Application of Code Sections 673, 676, and 677 337

1. Effects of Powers and Interests at (1), (2), (3), (12), (13), and (14) of III.B 355

2. Effects of Other Powers and Interests at III.B 361

B. Reversion Interest Described at (i) of III.A; Remainder Interests Described at (ii) and (iii) of III.A 362

C. Remainder Interest Described at (iv) of III.A 363

D. Inter Vivos Nongeneral Powers Described at (v) and (vi) of III.A 365

E. Inter Vivos General Power Described at (vii) of III.A 366
Contents

F. Testamentary Nongeneral Powers Described at (viii) and (ix) of III.A; Testamentary General Power Described at (x) of III.A
G. Ordering of Powers and Interests
H. Remainders to Avoid
V. Powers to Affect Enjoyment: Code Section 674
   A. Powers and Interests Described at (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi), (vii), and (x) of III.A and at (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (15), and (16) of III.B: Powers and Interests Not Described in Code Section 674(a)
   B. Power Described at (6) of III.B: Exceptions at Code Sections 674(b)(6) and (7) to Code Section 674(a)
   C. Powers Described at (v), (vi), (vii), (viii), (ix), and (x) of III.A: Exception to Exceptions at Code Sections 674(b)(5), (b)(6), (b)(7), (c), and (d) to Code Section 674(a)
   D. Power Described at (7) of III.B: Exception at Code Section 674(b)(5) to Code Section 674(a)
   E. Power Described at (8) of III.B: Exception at Code Section 674(d) to Code Section 674(a)
   F. Power Described at (9) of III.B: Exception at Code Section 674(b)(5) to Code Section 674(a)
   G. Powers Described at (10) and (11) of III.B: Exception at Code Section 674(c) to Code Section 674(a)
   H. Powers Described at (viii) and (ix) of III.A: Exception at Code Section 674(b)(3) to Code Section 674(a)
VI. Power to Withdraw: Code Section 678
VII. Conclusions with Respect to Specimen Powers and Interest
VIII. Conclusions with Respect to Specimen Trusts
IX. Additional Analysis and Conclusions with Respect to Specimen Trust Similar to the Specimen II.D
   A. Powers and Interests
   B. Tax Effects of Powers and Interests
      1. Code Section 673
      2. Code Section 674
      3. Code Section 675
      4. Code Section 676
      5. Code Section 677
X. Special Considerations for Crummey Powers
XI. Special Considerations for Irrevocable Life Insurance Trusts
Part Two

Powers and Interests That Cause Inclusion in Gross Income but Not in Gross Estate

I. Spousal “Remainders” 387
II. Powers in Gross 389
III. Testamentary Powers That Do Not Create Any Reversion or Spousal Remainder 391
IV. Powers to Add Beneficiaries 391
V. Broad Powers of Related or Subordinate Trustees 391
VI. “Safe” Powers of Spouse of Grantor as Trustee 392
VII. Power to Borrow Without Adequate Interest or Security 393
   A. Form 13.1: Power to Borrow Without Adequate Security 394
   B. Purpose and Drafting of Form 13.1 394
VIII. Power to Reacquire Assets 395
   A. Form 13.2: Power of Substitution 397
   B. Purpose and Drafting of Form 13.2 398
IX. Conclusion 399
X. Special Considerations for Intentional Grantor Trusts 399
   A. Form 13.3 400
   B. Form 13.4 400
   C. Form 13.5 401
   D. Form 13.6 401
   E. Purpose of the Forms 402

CHAPTER 14
ACCOMMODATION OF CODE SECTION 2032A ASSETS 407
I. The Issue 407
II. Problems and Solutions 408
   A. Form 14.1: Special Election for Special Property 408
   B. First Problem 409
   C. Possible Solution 409
   D. Second Problem 409
   E. Possible Solution 410
   F. Third Problem 410
   G. Drafting of Form 14.1 410
III. Choice of Marital-Credit Shelter Formula in Contemplation of 2032A Election 411
   A. Assumptions 411
   B. Scenarios 412
      1. Form 14.2: The First Scenario 412
2. Results of Form 14.2 and First Scenario 412
3. Form 14.3: The Second Scenario 413
4. Results of Form 14.3 and Second Scenario 414
5. Form 14.4: The Third Scenario 414
6. Results of Form 14.4 and Third Scenario 415
C. Private Rulings 415
D. Conclusions 415

CHAPTER 15  ACCOMMODATION OF S CORPORATION STOCK 417
I. Form 15.1: The Trust 417
II. Purpose of Form 15.1 417
III. Form 15.2: “Stub” Income 418
IV. Purpose of Form 15.2 418

CHAPTER 16  ACCOMMODATION OF QUALIFIED PLANS 419
AND IRA INTERESTS
Part One
Integration of Qualified Plans and IRAs into the Estate Plan 420
I. Synopsis of Conclusions 422
A. Alternative Formats 422
B. Rules of Thumb 423
  1. Conduit System 423
  2. Accumulation System 426
  3. Mandatory Allocation System 428
  4. No System 428
II. Basic Rules for Applicable Distribution Period 428
III. The Conduit Rules 429
IV. Accumulation Trusts 430
V. Conduit Versus Accumulation 431
A. Form 16.1 431
B. Purpose of Form 16.1 432
VI. Form 16.2 432
VII. Specific Features of Form 16.2 434
VIII. Form 16.3 437
IX. Specific Features of Form 16.3 440
  A. “Accumulation System” 440
  B. Roth Versus Regular IRA 440
  C. Affinity Between Roth IRA and Accumulation System 441
  D. Importance of Allocation 441
E. Subsection (A) 441
F. Subsection (B) 442
G. Subsection (C) 443
H. Subsection (F) 443
X. Mandatory Allocation System 443
A. Form 16.4 443
B. Purpose of Form 16.4 444
XI. Named Beneficiary: Revocable Trust Versus Continuing Trust 444
XII. Effect of Payment of Death Costs Upon Existence of a Designated Beneficiary 445
A. If Revocable Trust Is Named Beneficiary and Death Costs Are Payable from Revocable Trust 445
1. Issues 447
2. Basis for Determination 447
3. IRS Pronouncements 451
   a. No Mention of Death Costs 451
   b. State Law Exempts Qualified Assets 451
   c. No Limitations, No Use of Qualified Assets To Pay Death Costs 452
   d. No Limitations, No Payments After September 30 453
   e. State Law or Trust Prohibits Use of Qualified Assets for Payment 453
4. Avoidance of the Issue 455
5. Conclusion 455
6. Prohibition of Use 455
   a. Form 16.5 455
   b. Purpose of Form 16.5 456
   c. Form 16.6 456
   d. Purpose of Form 16.6 456
B. If QTIP-Style Trust Is Beneficiary 456
C. If the Costs Are Payable Upon Death of Spouse and Are Attributable to QTIP 458
XIII. Marital Deduction 458
A. Form 16.7: Certain Income 458
B. Purpose and Drafting of Form 16.7 459
XIV. Conduit Treatment if Trustee of Revocable Trust Is Named Beneficiary 459
A. “Pot” Trust and Plural Trusts 459
B. Other Observations 461
XV. Allocation of Interests Among Dispositions

XVI. Allocation to Trusts Based Upon Shelter Versus Nonshelter and Roth IRA Versus Traditional IRA
   A. Form 16.8
   B. Purpose of Form 16.8
   C. Form 16.9
   D. Purpose of Form 16.9
   E. Form 16.10
   F. Purpose of Form 16.10

XVII. Supplemental Allocation of Rights of Named Beneficiary
   A. Constraints Upon Allocation
      1. Form 16.11
      2. Purpose of Form 16.11
   B. Specific, Supplemental Allocation
      1. Form 16.12
      2. Purpose of Form 16.12
      3. Form 16.13
      4. Purpose of Form 16.13
      5. Form 16.14
      6. Purpose of Form 16.14
      7. Form 16.15
      8. Purpose of Form 16.15
      9. Form 16.16
     10. Purpose of Form 16.16
     11. Form 16.17
     12. Purpose of Form 16.17
   C. Documentation of Specific, Supplemental Allocation

XVIII. Integration of Beneficiary Designation and Trust Instrument if Continuing Trusts Are Named Beneficiaries
   A. Form 16.18
   B. Purpose of Form 16.18
      1. Example 1
      2. Analysis of Example 1
      3. Example 2
      4. Analysis of Example 2

XIX. A Conduit Exception? Applicability of Payment Mandate Before September 30
   A. Form 16.19
   B. Purpose of Form 16.19
C. Form 16.20 494
D. Purpose of Form 16.20 494

XX. A Conduit Exception? Use of Proceeds of Pre-September 30 Redemptions 494

XXI. Conduit System: Possible Sensitivity of Powers 496
A. Power to Make Pre-September 30 Payments 496
B. General Power of Trustee to Make Withdrawals 497

XXII. Beneficiaries That Need to Be Taken into Account for Determination of Applicable Distribution Period 497

XXIII. Disclaimer or Release to Avoid Beneficiary Status 498

XXIV. Trusts That Suspend Ownership 498
A. The Statutory Scheme 498
B. Same Treatment for Same Situations 499
C. Policy of Code Section 401(a)(9) 501

XXV. Payment of Obligations Consistently with Existence of Designated Beneficiary 501
A. Standard Advice 501
B. Other Techniques 502
1. Technique 1 (Conserve non-IRA assets for use after September 30) 502
2. Technique 2 (Create pre-September 30 IRA proceeds for use after September 30) 502
3. Technique 3 (Eliminate continuing trusts) 503
4. Technique 4 (Nonprorata allocation of IRA and non-IRA assets and all obligations) 503
5. Technique 5 (Infusion of cash) 504
6. Technique 6 (Pay from IRA such expenses as are attributable to IRA) 505

Part Two
Disposition of Undistributed Interest of Primary Beneficiary Upon Death 505

Part Three
Avoidance of Certain Beneficiaries, Plans, and IRAs 506
I. Effect of Identity of Beneficiary Upon Method of Distribution 506
II. Whether Participant Should Transfer Interest in Qualified Plan to IRA, or Owner Should Transfer Interest in IRA to Another IRA, to Avoid Undesirable Method of Distribution 507
Part Four
Selection of Method of Distribution  508

Part Five
Overriding Questions  509
   I. Presentation in Common Scenarios  509
   II. Speculation About Answers  510
   III. Possible Solution  512

CHAPTER 17  INTER VIVOS MARITAL DISPOSITIONS  513
   I. Qualification for Marital Deduction: Ability of Donor to Control During Life and After Death of Donee  513
   II. Inclusion in Gross Estate of Donor: Ability of Donor to Benefit, or to Receive a Power, After Death of Donee  520
   III. Form 17.1: Illustration of Inter Vivos QTIP  527
      A. Purpose of Form 17.1  531
      B. Drafting of Form 17.1  533

CHAPTER 18 INTEGRATION OF EXEMPT AND NONEXEMPT DISPOSITIONS  537
   I. Percentage or Fractional-Share Dispositions  537
      A. Form 18.1: Percentage Disposition  537
      B. Purpose and Drafting of Form 18.1  538
   II. Pecuniary-Amount Dispositions  538
      A. Form 18.2: Pecuniary Sum  538
      B. Purpose and Drafting of Form 18.2  539
   III. Nonprorata Allocations and Distributions to Avoid Generation-Skipping Tax  539
      A. Single Distrubee  539
         1. Form 18.3: Income Interest  539
         2. Purpose and Drafting of Form 18.3  540
         3. Form 18.4: Unitrust Interest  540
         4. Purpose and Drafting of Form 18.4  540
         5. Form 18.5: Rights of Withdrawal (Integration from Outset)  541
         6. Purpose of Form 18.5  541
         7. Form 18.6: Right of Withdrawal (Integration After Qualified Severance)  541
         8. Purpose of Form 18.6  542
         9. Form 18.7: Annuity Interest  542
CHAPTER 19 PERPETUITIES AND POWER-OF-APPOINTMENT ISSUES: THE DELAWARE TAX TRAP, SAVINGS CLAUSES, AND SPECIAL ADMINISTRATION OF APPOINTED ASSETS

Part One

Application of Delaware Tax Trap to Exercise of Nongeneral Powers of Appointment if Rule Against Perpetuities Is (i) Common-Law, (ii) Elected Not to Apply, (iii) Term of Years, or (iv) Abolished

I. Form 19.1: Exercise of Certain Powers of Appointment

II. Purpose of Form 19.1

A. Code Section 2041(a)(3)

B. Trap-Prone Exercises

C. Rationale of Murphy

D. Jurisdictions That Have Rule Against Suspension of Power of Alienation but No Rule Against Remoteness of Vesting

E. Jurisdictions in Which the Rule Against Remoteness of Vesting Is the Common-Law Rule or a Period of Years

F. Effects, Respectively, of Governing Law and Governing Instrument

G. Jurisdictions That Have No Rule Against Remoteness of Vesting but Do Require a Power of Alienation to Exist at All Times

H. Jurisdictions That Have No Rule Against Remoteness of Vesting and No Rule Against Suspension of Power of Alienation

III. Comprehensive Techniques

IV. Drafting of Form 19.1

V. Summary

VI. A Matrix
Contents

VII. Form 19.2: Additional Protection  566
VIII. Purpose of Form 19.2  566

Part Two
Savings Clauses  566
I. Form 19.3: Common-Law Jurisdiction  567
II. Drafting of Form 19.3  568
III. Form 19.4: “Elect-Out” Jurisdiction  568
   A. Purpose of Form 19.4  568
   B. Drafting of Form 19.4  569
IV. Form 19.5: Other Jurisdictions  569
V. Drafting of Form 19.5  570
VI. Form 19.6: Savings Clause for Different Periods  570
   A. Purpose of Form 19.6  571
   B. Drafting of Form 19.6  571
VII. Form 19.7: Savings Clause for Appointive Property Subject to General Power to Appoint by Will  571
VIII. Purpose and Drafting of Form 19.7  571

Part Three
Separate Receptacles for Appointive Property Subject to Different Periods of Limitation  572
I. Form 19.8: Appointment Trusts  572
II. Purpose of Form 19.8  573

Part Four
Contingent Disposition of Appointive Property  573
I. Form 19.9: Contingent Disposition  573
II. Purpose of Form 19.9  574

CHAPTER 20 TRUST MANAGEMENT  575
Part One
General Limitations  575
I. Administrative Provisions Can Shift Enjoyment  575
II. Possible Solutions  576
Part Two
Selection and Succession of Trustees  577
I. Power to Resume Office After Resignation  577
   A. Form 20.1: Power to Resume Office  577
   B. Purpose of Form 20.1  577
II. Power to Remove Trustee  578
   A. Form 20.2: Alternative #1  578
   B. Form 20.3: Alternative #2  578
VI. “Sensitive” Property
   A. Form 20.17: Alternative #1 591
   B. Form 20.18: Alternative #2 591
   C. “Sensitive” Property: Issues and Solutions 591

VII. Section 2032A Property 592
   A. Form 20.19: Special Valuation Property 592
   B. Purpose of Form 20.19 593

Part Four
Impact of Prudent Investor Rule 593
I. Applicability of Prudent Investor Rule 593
   A. Roles of State Law and Governing Instrument 593
   B. Avoidance of Contrary Law of the State 594
   C. State Law Governs 594
   D. Form 20.20: Invocation of the Prudent Investor Rule 594
   E. Avoidance of Prudent Investor Rule 594
   F. Scope of the Rule 595

II. Requirement of Skill 595

III. Duty of Diversification 596
   A. General Principles 596
   B. Comparison of UPIA, Illinois, and Restatement (Third) Versions 596
   C. Form 20.21: Waiver of Diversification 597
   D. Purpose of Form 20.21 597

IV. Duty with Respect to Original Investments 597
   A. General Principles 598
   B. General Authorization to Retain Assets 599
   C. Form 20.22: General Authorization to Retain Business Interests 599
   D. Specific Authorization to Retain Particular Property 599

V. Delegation of Authority 600
   A. General Principles 600
   B. Allocation of Investment Duties 600
      1. Authority Relating to Investments Generally 600
         a. Form 20.23: Investment Trust Advisor 600
         b. Purposes and Drafting of Form 20.23 603
      2. Authority Relating to Particular Investments 604
         a. Form 20.24: Business Property 604
         b. Purpose of Form 20.24 604
      3. Form 20.25: Reliance Upon Advisors 604
   C. Form 20.26: Custody and Bookkeeping 605
CHAPTER 21  CONCLUSION  607

Table of Forms  609

I. Revocable Trusts and Wills  609
   Appendix Form #1  609
   Appendix Form #2  609
   Appendix Form #3  609
   Appendix Form #4  610
   Appendix Form #5  610
   Appendix Form #6  610
   Appendix Form #7  610
   Appendix Form #8  610
   Appendix Form #9  611
   Appendix Form #10  611

II. Other Revocable Documents  611
   Appendix Form #11  611
   Appendix Form #12  611
   Appendix Form #13  611

III. Irrevocable Trusts  611
   Appendix Form #14  611
   Appendix Form #15  611
   Appendix Form #16  612
   Appendix Form #17  612
   Appendix Form #18  612
   Appendix Form #19  612

Appendix Form #1  613
Appendix Form #2  647
Appendix Form #3  653
Appendix Form #4  669
Appendix Form #5  675
Appendix Form #6  705
Appendix Form #7  711
Appendix Form #8 757
Appendix Form #9 765
Appendix Form #10 793
Appendix Form #11 799
Appendix Form #12 803
Appendix Form #13 805
Appendix Form #14 809
Appendix Form #15 825
Appendix Form #16 851
Appendix Form #17 873
Appendix Form #18 887
Appendix Form #19 903
Index 921