
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xi
About the Author	xvii
 Chapter 1
The Voir Dire and Jury Selection Setting	1
Goals of Jury Selection and Voir Dire	2
Information Gathering	3
Rapport	3
Education	4
Persuasion	4
Voir Dire and Jury Selection Procedures	5
Voir Dire Style	5
Methods of Exercising Peremptory Challenges	7
 Chapter 2
Jurors' Backgrounds, Experiences, and Opinions	13
The Story Model	13
The Viewpoints of Jurors	14
Stereotypes	14
Backgrounds	16
Experiences	19
Direct versus Indirect Experience	19
Ski Case Example	23
CSI Effect	23
Global Opinions and Personality Traits	25
Authoritarianism	25
Equity	28
Case-Specific Opinions	31
Legal Opinions	35
 Chapter 3
Understanding Jurors' Nonverbal Communication	43
Types of Nonverbal Communication	43
Visual Cues: What We See	45
Body Movement	45
Body Posture	46
Body Orientation	47
Inadvertent Emblems	48

Shrugs	48
Eye Contact	49
Facial Expressions	50
Microexpressions	51
Auditory Cues: What We Hear	51
Speech Disturbances	51
Vocal Hesitancy	52
Rising Pitch	53
Amount of Speech	53
Speed of Speech	54
Tone of Voice	54
Tense Laughter	55
Word Choice	56
How to Evaluate Jurors' Nonverbal Communication	57
Establish a Baseline	57
Evaluate Changes in Jurors' Responses	58
Notice Patterns and Inconsistencies	58
Seek Clarification	59
Watch Jurors' Sources of Support	59
Observe Jurors at All Times	59
Chapter 4
Preparing for Voir Dire	63
Case Analysis	63
The Theme of the Case	64
The Strengths and Weaknesses of the Case	64
The Nature and Extent of Pretrial Publicity	66
Important Opinions and Attitudes of Jurors	67
Important Experiences and Reference Groups of Jurors	68
Potential Grounds for Challenges for Cause	68
Statement of Contentions/Mini-opening	69
Opposing Counsel's Important Voir Dire Topics and Questions	70
Question Development	71
Information Gathering	72
Rapport	78
Education	79
Persuasion	82
Chapter 5
Conducting Voir Dire	95
Obstacles to Effective Voir Dire	95
Social Interaction Skills	96
Communication Skills	96
Interview Techniques	101

Structuring the Voir Dire	104
Flexibility	104
Organization of Voir Dire	105
Reduced Information Settings	121
Restricted Content	121
Group Questioning Techniques	123
Judge-Conducted Voir Dire	136
 Chapter 6
Common Situations and Problems in Voir Dire	143
Reluctant Jurors	143
Encouraging Reluctant Jurors	144
Defusing Controversial Issues	146
Difficult Jurors	149
Dealing with Difficult Jurors	151
Stealth Jurors	158
Identifying and Dealing with Stealth Jurors	160
Negative Spiraling	162
Breaking the Negative Spiral	162
Good Jurors	164
Using Good Jurors During Voir Dire	164
Pretrial Publicity	166
Conducting Questioning on Pretrial Publicity	166
Case Example: Pretrial Publicity and the Case of Oliver North	169
 Chapter 7
Juror Questionnaires	177
What Are Supplemental Juror Questionnaires?	178
How to Use Supplemental Juror Questionnaires	180
Supplemental Juror Questionnaire Checklist	187
Format of Juror Questionnaires	188
Introduction	189
Background Information	192
Knowledge of Witnesses, Lawyers, and Parties	199
Awareness of the Case	204
Opinions and Perceptions	211
Oath or Affirmation	220
Designing the Questionnaire	222
Choosing the Question Format	222
Phrasing of Questions	226
Designing the Questionnaire Format	237
Maximizing the Utility of Restricted-Length Questionnaires	242
Managing the Information	244
Computer-Assisted Processing	247

Chapter 8
Jurors and the Internet	253
The Internet as a Tool in Jury Selection	256
Public Records	256
Involvement in Politics	256
Causes and Interests	257
Juror Websites and Social Networking Websites	258
News/Media Stories	259
Blogging and Live Journaling	259
Other Internet Sources	260
Avoiding the Pitfalls of Internet Research	260
The Threat to the Jury System	261
Allure of the Internet	262
Internet Searches	262
Litigation-Related Websites/Pages	263
Posting/Tweeting by Parties/Representatives During Trial	264
Victim Websites	265
Jurors Posting/Tweeting	265
Jurors Friending Trial Participants	267
What Can Be Done	269
Know What Is Out There	269
Establish the Footprints and Preferences of Jurors	269
Jury Instructions	271
Affirmative Actions/Commitments by Jurors	273
Monitor Juror Web Activity During Trial	273
Do Not “Friend”	275
 Chapter 9
Member Selection in General Courts-Martial	285
General Courts-Martial: The Basics	286
Creation of the Member Pool	287
Member Selection at Trial	290
General Voir Dire Process	290
The Four-Stage Selection Process	293
The Four-Stage Process: Two Special Considerations	294
Pretrial Information	294
Group Voir Dire	296
Individual Voir Dire	299
Exercising Challenges	301
The Deliberation Process	302
 Chapter 10
Evaluating Potential Jurors	309
Collecting Information on Potential Jurors	309
Pretrial Information	309
Trial Information	312

The Jury as a Group.....	313
Individual Participation.....	313
Group Dynamics.....	315
Integrating Information: The Final Evaluation of Jurors.....	317
Recording Information.....	317
Systematic Evaluation: Assigning Values to Jurors.....	323
 Chapter 11
Selecting the Jury.....	331
Preparing for Jury Selection.....	331
Preventing Jurors from Serving on the Jury.....	334
Challenges for Cause.....	334
Peremptory Challenges.....	335
Conducting Jury Selection in Light of Batson and J.E.B.	346
Strategies for Exercising Peremptory Challenges.....	348
Sequential Method.....	349
Struck Method.....	351
 Appendix I
Example of a Motion for Suggested Voir Dire Procedures and the Use of a Supplemental Juror Questionnaire in a Possession of Child Pornography Case.....	357
 Appendix II
Sample Opinion Questions for Selected Criminal Voir Dire Topics...	447
 Appendix III
Sample Opinion Questions for Selected Civil Voir Dire Topics.....	479
 Appendix IV
List of Juror Questionnaires.....	507
 Appendix V
Proposed Questionnaires Submitted by the United States Attorney’s Office and the Federal Public Defender’s Office in United States v. Zacarias Moussaoui	523
 Appendix VI
Motion to Compel Appointment of Expert Assistance in Member Selection and Trial Judge’s Order Granting the Appointment.....	625
 Appendix VII
Plaintiff’s Memorandum in Support of Oral Batson Motion.....	705
Index.....	719